9 NOV 1918 • Abdication of Kaiser Wilhelm II & Proclamation of Republic

Key Topic 1.1

Facing military collapse and naval mutiny at Kiel, Kaiser Wilhelm II abdicates and flees to Holland. Social Democrat leader Friedrich Ebert takes power as Chancellor, establishing Germany's first parliamentary democracy.

28 JUN 1919 • Signing of the Treaty of Versailles (The Diktat)

Key Topic 1.1

Weimar representatives sign the Versailles treaty under threat of immediate Allied invasion. Germany loses 13% of its European territory, its colonies, 100,000-man army limit, £6.6bn reparations, and accepts sole blame under Article 231.

JAN 1923 • French Occupation of the Ruhr & Passive Resistance

Key Topic 1.2

When Germany defaults on timber and coal reparations, 60,000 French and Belgian troops occupy the Ruhr industrial heartland. Ebert calls for passive resistance, printing paper money to pay striking workers.

LIVING TIMELINE • PART 2: CHRONOLOGICAL ANCHORS (KEY TOPIC 1)

Instructions: Complete the dual-coding sketches to permanently anchor these chronological turning points in long-term memory.

NOV 1923 • Hyperinflation Peak & Introduction of Rentenmark

Key Topic 1.2

The German mark collapses to 4.2 trillion marks per US dollar; life savings of the middle class are wiped out. Newly appointed Chancellor Gustav Stresemann burns the old currency and introduces the stable, land-backed Rentenmark.

AUG 1924 • The Dawes Plan Secures US Wall Street Loans

Germany voluntarily accepts its western borders with France and Belgium. The diplomatic breakthrough secures Germany's entry into the League of Nations in 1926 and wins Stresemann the Nobel Peace Prize.

Enquiry 1.1: Was the Weimar Republic doomed from the moment of its creation in 1919? KEY TOPIC 1

Specification Focus: Abdication of Kaiser Wilhelm II; Ebert; Council of People's Representatives; Weimar Constitution: structure, proportional representation, Article 48.

1. RETRIEVAL RECALL "DO NOW" • ANSWER IN 1–3 WORDS [TARGET: 10/10] Score: [/ 10]

Q1: Who was the German Emperor who abdicated on 9 November 1918?	Q2: Which town hosted the 1919 assembly that drafted Germany's new constitution?
Q3: Who became the first President of the Weimar Republic in 1919?	Q4: What electoral system allocated Reichstag seats precisely according to party vote share?
Q5: Which constitutional article allowed the President to suspend civil rights and rule by decree?	Q6: What was the minimum voting age for German men and women in the Weimar Constitution?
Q7: What was the German parliament building in Berlin called?	Q8: Which pact between Ebert and General Groener guaranteed army loyalty against Communists?
Q9: What term described governments formed by several parties joining together?	Q10: On what date was the First World War armistice signed by German politicians?

2. CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY [TEXTBOOK §1.1–§2.1] HISTORICAL TERMINOLOGY

Distinguish between the electoral mechanism that guaranteed fair representation for small parties but caused unstable coalitions (Proportional Representation) and the executive constitutional clause allowing the President to bypass parliament (Article 48):

SOURCE A BA-K 183-1919-44 • BUNDESARCHIV • BERLIN

Provenance: From a speech by Friedrich Ebert, President of Germany, to the Weimar National Assembly, February 1919.

“We have turned our backs forever on autocratic royal rule. The German people are now their own masters. Our new republic will guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of religion, and equality for all men and women. Yet our newborn state is besieged on every front: starvation still grips our cities due to the Allied blockade, and armed extremists seek to tear apart our democratic order.”

• QUESTION 1: INFERENCE FROM SOURCE A [4 MARKS • 5 MINS] ★ High-Yield Forecast (Q1 Inference)

Give two things you can infer from Source A about the establishment of the Weimar Republic.

(i) What I can infer: _____
Details in Source A that tell me this: _____

(ii) What I can infer: _____
Details in Source A that tell me this: _____

Explain why the Weimar Constitution created serious weaknesses for the new German Republic.

You may use in your answer: • Proportional Representation • Article 48 (You must also use information of your own.)

1. CAUSE 1: PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION[Textbook §1.1–§1.3]

Explain that PR allocated seats exactly to votes (1 seat per 60,000 votes); this splintered parliament into dozens of small extremist parties, making stable majority rule impossible and forcing 20 coalition collapses between 1919 and 1933.

2. CAUSE 2: ARTICLE 48 & EXECUTIVE DECREES[Textbook §2.1–§2.2]

Explain that Article 48 gave the President autocratic power to bypass the Reichstag in an "emergency". It was meant as a safeguard, but fatally undermined democracy by encouraging authoritarian rulers (Hindenburg) to sideline parliament.

3. CAUSE 3: RETENTION OF TRADITIONAL ELITES[Textbook §3.1–§3.2]

Explain that the Republic kept the judges, civil servants, and military officers of the old Kaiserreich; these right-wing elites despised democracy, gave lenient sentences to nationalist putschists, and sabotaged the Republic from within.

Analytical Connectives: The Weimar Constitution contained fatal structural flaws primarily because... • Crucially, the system of Proportional Representation caused... • Consequently, no single party could win a majority, which resulted in... • Furthermore, Article 48 created an open constitutional backdoor for... • Therefore, these built-in weaknesses destabilised the Republic because...

Word Bank: Proportional Representation • Article 48 • Coalitions • Reichstag • Friedrich Ebert • Splinter parties • Kaiserreich elites • Authoritarian rule

Timeline Mission: Turn to Pages 2–3 (Milestone 1). Sketch Ebert holding the new Weimar Constitution with ballot boxes and the scales of justice.

Enquiry 1.2: Which posed the greater threat to the Republic: left-wing revolution or right-wing nationalism?

KEY
TOPIC 1

Specification Focus: Treaty of Versailles: land, military, reparations, War Guilt; political uprisings (Spartacists, Kapp Putsch); Ruhr occupation; hyperinflation.

1. RETRIEVAL RECALL "DO NOW" • ANSWER IN 1–3 WORDS [TARGET: 10/10]		Score: [/ 10]
Q1: Which left-wing group launched an armed uprising in Berlin in January 1919?	Q2: Name the two Spartacist leaders murdered by the Freikorps in 1919.
Q3: Who were the Freikorps?	Q4: Which right-wing nationalist politician led an armed march on Berlin in March 1920?
Q5: How did Berlin workers defeat the Kapp Putsch within 100 hours?	Q6: Which two countries invaded and occupied the Ruhr industrial region in January 1923?
Q7: What policy did the Weimar government instruct Ruhr workers to adopt against French troops?	Q8: What economic catastrophe occurred in 1923 when the government printed paper marks?
Q9: What derogatory phrase did right-wing Germans use for politicians who signed the Treaty?	Q10: Which article of the Versailles Treaty forced Germany to accept sole blame for WW1?

2. CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY [TEXTBOOK §1.1–§2.1]

HISTORICAL TERMINOLOGY

Distinguish between the military conspiracy myth that German front soldiers were betrayed by democratic politicians (Dolchstoß) and the bitter German resentment of the unnegotiated Versailles treaty (Diktat):

• FORENSIC CAUSATION DOMINO: CHRONOLOGICAL SEQUENCE	HISTORICAL CAUSALITY
• 1. Germany defaults on 34th reparations coal shipment to France (Late 1922)
• 2. 60,000 French and Belgian troops invade the Ruhr to seize factory output by force (Jan 1923)
• 3. Chancellor Cuno orders passive resistance; factories halt and miners strike (Feb 1923)
• 4. Government prints billions of paper banknotes to pay striking Ruhr workers' wages (Spring 1923)
• 5. Floods of paper money destroy mark value; prices double every few hours (Autumn 1923)

• FORENSIC CAUSAL TASK: EXPLAIN THE TURNING POINT

Explain how the French occupation of the Ruhr directly triggered the hyperinflation crisis of 1923:

Explain why the Treaty of Versailles caused intense hostility towards the Weimar Republic between 1919 and 1923.

You may use in your answer: • Article 231 (War Guilt) • Military restrictions (You must also use information of your own.)

1. FACTOR 1: ARTICLE 231 & MORAL INJURY

[Textbook
§1.1–§1.3]

Explain that the War Guilt Clause forced Germany to take sole moral responsibility for the war; Germans viewed this as an insulting lie, labelling democratic signers "November Criminals" and delegitimising the new Republic.

2. FACTOR 2: MILITARY HUMILIATION & DISARMAMENT

[Textbook
§2.1–§2.2]

Explain that limiting the German army to 100,000 volunteers, banning tanks, aircraft, and submarines, and demilitarising the Rhineland left Germany vulnerable to invasion, infuriating patriotic soldiers and the Freikorps.

3. FACTOR 3: TERRITORIAL LOSSES & REPARATIONS

[Textbook
§3.1–§3.2]

Explain that losing 13% of land (Alsace-Lorraine, Polish Corridor) and paying £6.6bn reparations crippled the economy, prompting the catastrophic Ruhr invasion and hyperinflation crisis of 1923.

Analytical Connectives: The Treaty of Versailles created lasting hatred toward Weimar because... • In particular, Article 231 inflicted severe psychological trauma as... • Furthermore, drastic military cuts left Germany defenceless, which meant... • In addition, crushing reparations of £6.6bn caused financial collapse... • Consequently, these harsh terms permanently alienated German nationalists because...

Word Bank: Article 231 • Diktat • November Criminals • Disarmament • 100,000 limit • Polish Corridor • £6.6 billion reparations • Ruhr occupation • Freikorps

Timeline Mission: Turn to Pages 2–3 (Milestone 3). Sketch French bayonets guarding Ruhr coal trains alongside stacks of worthless paper banknotes.

Enquiry 1.3: How far was Stresemann’s economic recovery an illusion built on American debt?

KEY TOPIC1

Specification Focus: Stresemann’s strategy: Rentenmark, Dawes Plan, Young Plan; foreign diplomacy: Locarno, League of Nations, Kellogg-Briand Pact.

1. RETRIEVAL RECALL "DO NOW" • ANSWER IN 1–3 WORDS [TARGET: 10/10]		Score: [/ 10]
Q1: Who served as German Chancellor in 1923 and Foreign Minister until 1929?	Q2: What new temporary currency was introduced in November 1923 to end hyperinflation?
Q3: What was the Rentenmark backed by to restore public confidence?	Q4: Which 1924 plan provided 800 million gold marks in US loans to Germany?
Q5: Which 1925 treaty saw Germany voluntarily accept its western borders with France?	Q6: In which year was Weimar Germany admitted to the League of Nations?
Q7: What 1928 international agreement renounced war as an instrument of national policy?	Q8: Which 1929 plan reduced Germany's total reparations bill from £6.6bn to £2bn?
Q9: Which US economic catastrophe in October 1929 shattered Germany's golden recovery?	Q10: What famous metaphor did Stresemann use about Germany dancing on a volcano?

2. CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY [TEXTBOOK §1.1–§2.1]

HISTORICAL TERMINOLOGY

Distinguish between the 1924 agreement that provided initial US loans and scaled payments (Dawes Plan) and the 1929 plan that permanently cut total reparations to £2 billion over 59 years (Young Plan):

SOURCE B	BA-K 183-W1927-09 • BUNDESARCHIV • BERLIN	SOURCE C	PA-AA R3459 • POLITISCHES ARCHIV • BERLIN
“German industrial output has now exceeded pre-war levels. Modern blast furnaces in the Ruhr are operating at maximum capacity, financed by generous American credits. Our export trade flourishes, employment has risen, and the Rentenmark remains the most stable currency in central Europe. Gustav Stresemann has led our battered fatherland out of the abyss.”		“Our economic position is only flourishing on the surface. Germany is dancing on a volcano. If the short-term American credits are recalled by Wall Street, a huge section of our industry will collapse overnight, and our millions of workers will be thrown into the gutter without hope.”
From an editorial in a mainstream Berlin financial journal aligned with Stresemann's German People's Party (DVP), December 1927.		From a private speech by Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann to senior party delegates, October 1928.

Utility Evaluation Strategy (COP Formula):

- Content: What specific factual details do Sources B & C reveal about the enquiry?
- Origin & Purpose: Why was each source created? Who was the author trying to convince?
- Context: Test both sources against your precise historical own knowledge!

Question 3(a): Source Utility [8 marks • 12 mins]

EDEXCEL NOVEMBER 2020 (Q2) / JUNE 2026 SPECIMEN (Q3A)

Score: [/ 8]

How useful are Sources B and C for an enquiry into the economic recovery of the Weimar Republic under Stresemann?

You may use in your answer: • Industrial production • Reliance on American loans (You must also use information of your own.)

1. SOURCE B EVALUATION (CONTENT & ORIGIN)

[Textbook
§1.1–§1.3]

Evaluate Source B: Highly useful for showing the visible signs of Weimar recovery (Ruhr factories, stable Rentenmark, rising exports). However, provenance limits it: written by a pro-Stresemann business paper celebrating party success.

2. SOURCE C EVALUATION (CONTENT & ORIGIN)

[Textbook
§2.1–§2.2]

Evaluate Source C: Extremely valuable insider warning from Stresemann himself, exposing the fragile reality: prosperity relied entirely on short-term US loans that could be recalled at any moment ("dancing on a volcano").

3. COMPARATIVE UTILITY VERDICT

[Textbook §3.1–§3.2]

Reach an evaluative judgment: Both sources are remarkably useful together because they show the dual nature of 1924–29: the glowing surface boom (Source B) versus the terrifying structural vulnerability beneath (Source C).

Analytical Connectives: Source B is useful because it provides authentic contemporary evidence that... • Its value is reinforced by historical facts, such as... • However, Source B is limited in tone and purpose because... • In contrast, Source C is exceptionally valuable as Foreign Minister Stresemann privately admits... • Weighing both sources, they are mutually illuminating because...

Word Bank: Source Utility • Content • Provenance • Purpose • Rentenmark • Dawes Plan • American loans • Dancing on a volcano • Wall Street fragility

Timeline Mission: Turn to Pages 2–3 (Milestone 5). Sketch Gustav Stresemann signing the Locarno Pact alongside handshake symbols between France and Germany.

Enquiry 1.4: Did the Golden Twenties liberate German citizens or alienate traditional conservatives?

KEY
TOPIC 1

Specification Focus: Social changes: standard of living, unemployment insurance, housing; changing role of women (work, politics, leisure); cultural changes: art, architecture, cinema.

1. RETRIEVAL RECALL "DO NOW" • ANSWER IN 1–3 WORDS [TARGET: 10/10]		Score: [/ 10]
Q1: In which year was the landmark Weimar Unemployment Insurance Act passed?	Q2: How many new homes were built in German cities between 1924 and 1931?
Q3: What percentage of German women were in employment by 1925?	Q4: What nickname was given to fashionable, financially independent Weimar women?
Q5: Which architectural and design movement was founded by Walter Gropius in Dessau?	Q6: Name the famous expressionist painter who depicted mutilated war veterans and corrupt Berlin.
Q7: Which groundbreaking science-fiction movie was directed by Fritz Lang in 1927?	Q8: Which German actress became an international star in the 1930 film The Blue Angel?
Q9: Which political group violently condemned Weimar culture as decadent and un-German?	Q10: What traditional phrase summarized the conservative ideal for women's roles?

2. CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY [TEXTBOOK §1.1–§2.1]

HISTORICAL TERMINOLOGY

Distinguish between the socially emancipated Weimar woman with short hair and economic independence (Neue Frau) and the modernist architectural school championing functionality over ornate decoration (Bauhaus):

INTERPRETATION 1: FROM A MODERN HISTORY TEXTBOOK, PUBLISHED 2012

“For millions of German women, the 1920s brought genuine liberation. Women enjoyed complete legal equality, voted in greater numbers than men, and entered the Reichstag as elected deputies. Young, unmarried women in cities had jobs, earned their own money, cut their hair short, smoked in public, and enjoyed Berlin’s vibrant night life. Weimar offered women unprecedented personal freedom.”

INTERPRETATION 2: FROM AN ACADEMIC STUDY OF WEIMAR SOCIETY, PUBLISHED 2016

“The liberated ‘New Woman’ was largely a myth created by newspapers and cinema. Outside Berlin, traditional attitudes remained completely entrenched. Most women were trapped in low-paid, menial jobs and were forced out of work the moment they married. Conservative and religious Germans viewed modern women with disgust, voting in droves for parties that promised to return them to the kitchen.”

• QUESTION 3(C): REASON FOR DIFFERENCE [4 MARKS • 5 MINS]

EDEXCEL PAPER 3

How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 that the liberation of women in Weimar Germany was largely an illusion? Explain your answer using both interpretations and your own knowledge.

You may use in your answer:

- Legal equality and the vote

- Traditional conservative attitudes

(You must also use information of your own.)

1. SUPPORT FOR INTERPRETATION 2 (TRADITIONAL REALITY)

[Textbook
§1.1–§1.3]

Deploy evidence supporting Interp 2: Equal pay was rarely enforced (women paid 33% less); civil service forced married women to resign ("double-earners"); rural Catholic communities despised "un-German" flappers, fuelling Nazi support.

2. COUNTER-ARGUMENT / INTERPRETATION 1 (GENUINE PROGRESS)

[Textbook
§2.1–§2.2]

Deploy evidence supporting Interp 1: Article 109 guaranteed constitutional equality; over 90% female voter turnout; 112 women elected to the Reichstag; 100,000 female teachers and 3,000 female doctors represented genuine breakthrough.

3. SUSTAINED EVALUATIVE JUDGMENT & CRITERIA

[textbook
§3.1–§3.2]

Weigh the evidence: Agree partially with Interpretation 2 because legal emancipation failed to dismantle patriarchal social norms for the majority of working-class and rural women, while recognising that urban women made historic legal strides.

Analytical Connectives: Interpretation 2 offers a compelling argument that female liberation was exaggerated because... • Specifically, historical evidence proves that married women were... • However, Interpretation 1 correctly identifies revolutionary legal gains, such as... • Furthermore, over 100 women served in the Reichstag, demonstrating that... • In conclusion, I agree with Interpretation 2 to a moderate extent because while the legal framework advanced dramatically, daily economic reality remained conservative for most German women...

Word Bank: Interpretation • Article 109 • Neue Frau • Dual-earners • Female Reichstag deputies • Berlin nightlife • Traditionalist backlash • Kinder Küche Kirche

Timeline Mission: Turn to Pages 2–3 (Milestone 6). Sketch a Bauhaus geometric chair and a Weimar woman voting in the 1920s elections.

ARCHIVAL & CONCEPTUAL BLUEPRINT • STRUCTURE OF THE WEIMAR CONSTITUTION & VERSAILLES LOSSES

1. ANATOMY OF THE WEIMAR CONSTITUTION (AUGUST 1919): DEMOCRATIC ARCHITECTURE VS BUILT-IN FLAWS
 The President (Head of State): Elected every 7 years by all German adults. Appointed the Chancellor, controlled the armed forces, and could dissolve the Reichstag. Exercised Article 48 emergency powers.	 The Chancellor & Cabinet: Appointed by the President. Needed majority support in the Reichstag to pass everyday laws. Led government ministries and formulated state policy.
 The Reichstag (Parliament): Elected every 4 years by Proportional Representation. Passed laws, approved national taxation, and debated national issues. Over 20 separate parties sat in parliament.	 The Reichsrat & Fundamental Rights: Reichsrat represented 18 German regions (Länder). Bill of Rights guaranteed freedom of speech, freedom of religion, equality of women, and right to form trade unions.
2. TERRITORIAL, MILITARY & FINANCIAL PENALTIES OF THE TREATY OF VERSAILLES (1919)
TERRITORIAL LOSSES 13% of European territory lost. Alsace-Lorraine returned to France; Polish Corridor given to Poland (cutting off East Prussia); Eupen-Malmedy to Belgium; Danzig made Free City.
MILITARY DISARMAMENT Army strictly limited to 100,000 long-term volunteers. Conscription banned. Navy capped at 6 battleships, zero submarines. Air force completely banned. Rhineland demilitarised.
REPARATIONS & WAR GUILT Article 231 (War Guilt Clause) forced Germany to accept sole blame for WW1. Inter-Allied Reparations Commission set total indemnity at £6.6 billion (132 billion gold marks) in 1921.
