SOURCE A

BA-K 183-1921-88 • BUNDESARCHIV • KOBLENZ

Provenance: From an account by a Munich police spy reporting on a Nazi meeting in the Hofbräuhaus, November 1921.

“Adolf Hitler spoke for nearly two hours with fanatical energy. He blamed Germany’s defeat entirely on the Jews, the corrupt Weimar politicians, and the Marxist traitors. Whenever anyone in the audience attempted to heckle or ask a critical question, uniformed young men wearing brown shirts and swastika armbands attacked them violently, beating them with clubs and throwing them onto the pavement. The crowd cheered Hitler with wild enthusiasm.”

[Textbook
§1.1–§1.3]

Explain that Hitler discovered an extraordinary oratorical talent in Munich beer halls; his rehearsals, theatrical pauses, and passionate rage provided clear scapegoats (November Criminals, Jews, Communists) for humiliated Germans.

[Textbook

Explain that the SA (under Ernst Röhm) recruited violent ex-soldiers and Freikorps men; they provided security, beat up political rivals, and gave an impression of strength, order, and discipline amidst Weimar chaos.

[Textbook §3.1–§3.2]

Explain that the 25-Point Programme cleverly appealed across classes: nationalists loved tearing up Versailles; small shopkeepers loved banning department stores; workers were promised pensions and profit-sharing.

Analytical Connectives: The early Nazi Party expanded rapidly in Munich primarily because... • In particular, Hitler's magnetic oratorical skill allowed him to... • Furthermore, the creation of the SA provided crucial physical dominance by... • In addition, the 25-Point Programme broadened party appeal across social groups because... • Consequently, these factors combined to transform the DAP into a formidable Bavarian movement...

2. CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY [TEXTBOOK §1.1–§2.1]

Question 2: Explain Why [12 marks • 18 mins]

EDEXCEL JUNE 2023 (Q2 CAUSATION)

Score: [/ 12]

Explain why the Nazi Party achieved very little electoral success between 1924 and 1929.

You may use in your answer:

- Gustav Stresemann's economic policies

- The ban on the Nazi Party

(You must also use information of your own.)

1. FACTOR 1: STRESEMANN'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY

[Textbook
§1.1–§1.3]

Explain that the Rentenmark and Dawes Plan restored stability: hyperinflation vanished, US loans built factories and houses, and wages rose; when ordinary Germans had jobs and food, extremist parties lost their appeal.

2. FACTOR 2: INTERNATIONAL REINTEGRATION

[Textbook
§2.1–§2.2]

Explain that Stresemann's diplomatic successes (Locarno 1925, League of Nations 1926, Kellogg-Briand 1928) restored German national pride peacefully, disproving Hitler's claim that Weimar was a helpless puppet of the Allies.

3. FACTOR 3: PARTY BAN & INTERNAL DIVISIONS

[Textbook
§3.1–§3.2]

Explain that following the Munich Putsch, the NSDAP was banned until 1925, Hitler was barred from public speaking until 1927, and bitter feuds split the northern socialist wing (Strasser) from Munich until the 1926 Bamberg Conference.

Analytical Connectives: The Nazi Party struggled to make electoral headway between 1924 and 1929 primarily because... • Above all, Stresemann's economic stabilisation through the Dawes Plan meant that... • Consequently, German voters turned away from radical extremists because... • Furthermore, diplomatic triumphs like the Locarno Pact demonstrated that... • In addition, internal party splits and speaking bans hindered momentum... • Therefore, these prosperous "Golden Years" made Nazi propaganda largely irrelevant...

Word Bank: Lean Years • Stresemann • Rentenmark • Dawes Plan • Locarno • Bamberg Conference • 12 seats (1928) • Speaking ban • Moderation

Timeline Mission: Turn to Pages 2–3 (Milestone 2). Sketch the Odeonsplatz clash and Hitler dictating Mein Kampf in Landsberg Prison.

Enquiry 2.3: Did Hitler create the crisis or did the Wall Street Crash create Hitler?

KEY TOPIC 2

Specification Focus: Wall Street Crash and the Great Depression; impact on employment; failure of Weimar coalitions; growth of support for KPD and NSDAP; Goebbels' propaganda.

1. RETRIEVAL RECALL "DO NOW" • ANSWER IN 1–3 WORDS [TARGET: 10/10]		Score: [/ 10]

Q5: How did Brüning pass his unpopular laws after losing his Reichstag majority?	Q6: Which left-wing revolutionary party saw its vote surge alongside the Nazis after 1929?
Q7: Why did wealthy industrialists and middle-class Germans turn to the Nazis after 1929?	Q8: Who was appointed head of Nazi Party propaganda in 1930?
Q9: What memorable campaign slogan appeared on millions of Nazi election posters?	Q10: How many Reichstag seats did the Nazis win in the July 1932 election?

2. CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY [TEXTBOOK §1.1–§2.1]

HISTORICAL TERMINOLOGY

Distinguish between the worldwide economic collapse triggered by the Wall Street Crash (Great Depression) and people supporting the Nazis not from love of Hitler, but from shared hatred of Communism and Weimar chaos (Negative Cohesion):

SOURCE B BA-K Plak 002-019-033 • BUNDESARCHIV • KOBLENZ

“Caption: ‘Our Last Hope: Hitler.’ The poster depicts a crowd of exhausted, emaciated German workers and families standing in a soup kitchen queue, staring up with desperate, pleading eyes toward the towering name of Adolf Hitler.”

From an official nationwide NSDAP election campaign poster published by Joseph Goebbels for the July 1932 Reichstag election.

SOURCE C FZH 1931-H54 • FORSCHUNGSSTELLE • HAMBURG

“Every day more businesses in Hamburg go bankrupt. Red flags march past my shop window singing the Internationale; the Communists openly threaten to seize our private savings and hang shopkeepers when they take power. I do not care for Hitler’s street thugs, but the SA are the only ones standing between my family and a Bolshevik bloodbath. I will vote National Socialist.”

From a private diary entry written by a middle-class hardware store owner in Hamburg, November 1931.

Utility Evaluation Strategy (COP Formula):

- Content: What specific factual details do Sources B & C reveal about the enquiry?
- Origin & Purpose: Why was each source created? Who was the author trying to convince?
- Context: Test both sources against your precise historical own knowledge!

How useful are Sources B and C for an enquiry into the reasons for the dramatic increase in support for the Nazi Party between 1929 and 1932?

You may use in your answer: • The impact of unemployment • Fear of Communism (You must also use information of your own.)

1. SOURCE B EVALUATION (CONTENT & ORIGIN)

[Textbook
§1.1–§1.3]

Evaluate Source B: Very useful for demonstrating how Goebbels ruthlessly exploited economic misery; presented Hitler as a messianic saviour offering "Work and Bread" to 6 million unemployed. However, it is pure propaganda showing intended appeal, not actual voting motives.

2. SOURCE C EVALUATION (CONTENT & ORIGIN)

[Textbook
§2.1–§2.2]

Evaluate Source C: Extremely valuable authentic testimony illustrating "negative cohesion": middle-class Germans voted Nazi not because they liked the SA, but out of sheer terror of a Communist revolution seizing their businesses.

3. COMPARATIVE UTILITY VERDICT

[Textbook §3.1–
§3.2]

Weigh both sources: Highly complementary. Source B reveals the emotional saviour image crafted by Nazi propaganda, while Source C provides the gritty psychological reality of anti-communist fear that pushed voters into Hitler's camp.

Analytical Connectives: Source B is valuable because it illustrates the precise propaganda strategy deployed by Goebbels, namely... • This visual evidence confirms historical knowledge that 6 million were unemployed and... • However, Source B is limited because it represents party propaganda rather than... • In contrast, Source C is exceptionally revealing as a private diary demonstrating... • Together, both sources are immensely useful because they show both the positive appeal of Hitler and the negative fear of Communism...

Word Bank: Source Utility • Content • Provenance • Wall Street Crash • 6 million unemployed • Joseph Goebbels • Negative cohesion • Fear of Communism • KPD

Timeline Mission: Turn to Pages 2–3 (Milestone 4). Sketch Wall Street stock tickers crashing alongside a soup kitchen queue holding "Work and Bread" signs.

Enquiry 2.4: Was Hitler's appointment as Chancellor a democratic triumph or a backstairs conspiracy?

TOPIC 2

Specification Focus: Political developments 1932: elections; roles of Hindenburg, Brüning, von Papen, von Schleicher; appointment of Hitler as Chancellor (30 Jan 1933).

Q4: What happened to the Nazi vote in the November 1932 election?

Q5: Which aristocratic politician replaced Brüning as Chancellor in June 1932?

Q6: Which German army general succeeded Papen as Chancellor in December 1932?

Q7: Why did Papen conspire with Hindenburg to replace Schleicher with Hitler?

Q8: What famous boast did Papen make about controlling Hitler?

Q9: How many non-Nazi conservative ministers were placed in Hitler's cabinet of 11?

Q10: On what historic date was Adolf Hitler officially sworn in as Chancellor of Germany?

2. CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY [TEXTBOOK §1.1–§2.1]

HISTORICAL TERMINOLOGY

Distinguish between the secretive political scheming between Papen, Schleicher, and Hindenburg to install Hitler (Backstairs Intrigue) and Papen's arrogant miscalculation that a conservative cabinet could control Hitler (Cabinet in Chains):

INTERPRETATION 1: FROM A MODERN BIOGRAPHY OF ADOLF HITLER, PUBLISHED 2014

"Hitler became Chancellor because the Nazi Party was the most powerful political force in Germany. Between 1930 and 1932, millions of ordinary Germans voted National Socialist because of mass unemployment, brilliant propaganda, and Hitler's promise of national rebirth. No government could function without the support of the largest party in the Reichstag; Hitler's appointment was the inevitable democratic outcome of mass popular support."

INTERPRETATION 2: FROM A SCHOLARLY STUDY OF WEIMAR'S COLLAPSE, PUBLISHED 2018

"Hitler did not sweep into power on a wave of popular triumph; he was smuggled into the Chancellery through a sordid backstairs conspiracy. In November 1932, the Nazi vote was falling rapidly and the party was bankrupt. Hitler was saved entirely by Franz von Papen and the camarilla around President Hindenburg, who foolishly believed they could hire the Bohemian corporal as a puppet to destroy democracy while keeping real power for themselves."

Score: [/ 20]

How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 that Hitler became Chancellor primarily as a result of political intrigue rather than mass popular support? Explain your answer using both interpretations and your own knowledge.

You may use in your answer:

- The election results of 1932

- The role of Franz von Papen

(You must also use information of your own.)

1. SUPPORT FOR INTERPRETATION 2 (POLITICAL INTRIGUE)

[Textbook
§1.1–§1.3]

Deploy evidence for Interp 2: In Nov 1932 Nazi seats fell from 230 to 196 and party funds ran dry; Hindenburg despises Hitler but is persuaded by Papen's scheme to make Hitler Chancellor with Papen as Vice-Chancellor ("in two months we will have pushed him into a corner").

2. COUNTER-ARGUMENT / INTERPRETATION 1 (MASS SUPPORT)

[Textbook
§2.1–§2.2]

Deploy evidence for Interp 1: Papen could never have negotiated with Hitler if the NSDAP had not won 13.7 million votes in July 1932; mass unemployment (6m) and fear of the KPD created the parliamentary deadlock that destroyed Brüning and Schleicher.

3. SUSTAINED EVALUATIVE JUDGMENT & CRITERIA

[TEXTBOOK
§3.1–§3.2]

Weigh both factors: Popular support provided the indispensable leverage (Hitler was too big to ignore), but political intrigue was the immediate trigger that actually opened the door to the Chancellery on 30 January 1933.

Analytical Connectives: Interpretation 2 offers a compelling argument that political intrigue was decisive because... • Specifically, historical evidence proves that in November 1932 the Nazi vote was... • However, Interpretation 1 correctly highlights that mass popularity was the foundation, as... • Furthermore, without 230 Reichstag seats, Hitler would never have been considered... • Weighing both interpretations, I conclude that while mass electoral support made Hitler a serious candidate, it was Papen's reckless intrigue that actually handed him power on 30 January 1933...

Word Bank: Interpretation • Backstairs intrigue • Franz von Papen • Hindenburg • Kurt von Schleicher • November 1932 decline • 230 seats • Chancellorship

Timeline Mission: Turn to Pages 2–3 (Milestone 6). Sketch President Hindenburg shaking hands with Hitler in morning coat on 30 January 1933.

ARCHIVAL & CONCEPTUAL BLUEPRINT • THE NAZI RISE: ELECTORAL BREAKTHROUGH & POLITICAL INTRIGUE

1. THE ELECTORAL BREAKTHROUGH: FROM FRINGE EXTREMISM TO LARGEST PARTY (1928–1932)

 May 1928 Reichstag Election:
12 seats (2.6% vote). Stresemann's economic prosperity meant fringe extremism failed to gain traction among working or middle classes.

 July 1932 Election (Depression Peak):
230 seats (37.3% vote). The absolute peak of Nazi electoral power: 13.7 million Germans voted NSDAP, making them the undisputed largest party.

 September 1930 Election (Post-Wall Street Crash):
107 seats (18.3% vote). Dramatic breakthrough: mass unemployment (3 million) and coalition collapse propelled Nazis into the second largest party.

 November 1932 Election (Decline & Crisis):
196 seats (33.1% vote). Nazis lost 2 million votes and 34 seats; party funds exhausted. Proved Hitler had to be installed via political intrigue before support slipped away.

2. THE BACKSTAIRS INTRIGUE: THE FATAL CONSPIRATORS OF JANUARY 1933

PAUL VON HINDENBURG 84-year-old Junker Field Marshal and President. Despised Hitler as a "vulgar Bohemian corporal", but was exhausted by parliamentary paralysis and persuaded by his inner circle.

FRANZ VON PAPEN Aristocratic former Chancellor. Conspired against his rival Schleicher; convinced Hindenburg that Hitler could be tamed in a coalition with 8 conservative ministers: "We have framed him in!"

KURT VON SCHLEICHER Army general and Chancellor (Dec 1932 – Jan 1933). Attempted to split the Nazi party by offering Gregor Strasser the Vice-Chancellorship, alienating both Hitler and Hindenburg.

- Nov 1932: Nazi vote slips to 196 seats; party near bankruptcy
- 30 Jan 1933: Hitler appointed Chancellor by President Hindenburg

- Paul von Hindenburg: Imperial Field Marshal and President of Germany (1925–34); reluctantly appointed Hitler Chancellor.
- Franz von Papen: Aristocratic politician who brokered the Jan 1933 deal with Hitler, falsely boasting he could control him.
