LIVING UNIT TIMELINE • PART 1: OUTBREAK, MOBILISATION & THE ATTRITION DEADLOCK (1914–1916)

PAGES 2–3 FACING SPREAD

Timeline Mission: In each lesson, turn back to this double-page spread to illustrate the milestone sketchpad with your visual symbol and key notes.

Chronological Spine • Facing Left

August 1914 Milestone 1: The Rush to the Colours & Lord Kitchener's Appeal — August 1914 • Pals Battalions & Civic Duty — Lesson 1

Following the German invasion of neutral Belgium, Lord Kitchener issues his call for 500,000 volunteers. Over 750,000 enlist in 8 weeks; Hampshire men flock to the Portsmouth Town Hall to form the 14th and 15th "Pompey Pals" Battalions.

Oct–Nov 1914 Milestone 2: First Battle of Ypres & The Arrival of the Indian Corps — October 1914 • Imperial Mobilisation & The BEF — Lesson 3

As the German Schlieffen Plan stalls, the British Expeditionary Force faces annihilation at Ypres. 1.5 million Indian troops deploy to France; Sepoy Khudadad Khan wins the Victoria Cross at Hollebeke, plugging the Allied frontline at catastrophic cost.

May 1915 Milestone 3: The Shell Scandal & Women's Industrial Mobilisation — May 1915 • Total War & Canary Girls — Lesson 4

Acute shortage of high-explosive artillery shells on the Western Front exposes peacetime industrial paralysis. David Lloyd George establishes the Ministry of Munitions; over 1 million women ("Canary Girls") enter projectile factories to manufacture 76% of British shells.

1 July 1916 Milestone 4: The First Day on the Somme & The Attrition Crisis — 1 July 1916 • War of Attrition & Maxim Gun — Lesson 2

Following a seven-day artillery bombardment of 1.5 million shells that fails to cut German barbed wire, British infantry advance into interlocking machine-gun fire. The British Army suffers 57,470 casualties on day one, decimating civilian Pals Battalions.

Timeline Check: Why did the failure of the Schlieffen Plan and the introduction of machine guns force armies into the trenches by winter 1914?

LIVING UNIT TIMELINE • PART 2: CONSCRIPTION, VICTORY, VERSAILLES & REMEMBRANCE (1916–1922)

PAGES 2–3 FACING SPREAD

Timeline Mission: In each lesson, turn back to this double-page spread to illustrate the milestone sketchpad with your visual symbol and key notes.

Chronological Spine • Facing Right

1916–1917 Milestone 5: Conscription, Conscientious Objection & State Powers

March 1916 • Conscription & DORA Autocracy | Lesson 4

As voluntary recruitment dries up after the Somme, Asquith passes the 1916 Military Service Act introducing universal conscription. 16,000 conscientious objectors face military tribunals and hard labour, while DORA expands state control over daily civilian life.

Aug–Nov 1918 Milestone 6: The Hundred Days Offensive & All-Arms Warfare

11 Nov 1918 • All-Arms Combined Warfare | Lesson 2

Following Germany's failed Spring Offensive, Sir Douglas Haig orchestrates the Hundred Days Offensive. Integrating creeping barrages, Mark V tanks, aircraft reconnaissance, and elite Dominion assault corps, Allied forces breach the Hindenburg Line and force the 11 November Armistice.

28 June 1919 Milestone 7: The Hall of Mirrors & The Treaty of Versailles

28 June 1919 • Article 231 & Reparations | Lesson 5

The Allied Big Three (Clemenceau, Lloyd George, Wilson) impose harsh peace terms on the defeated German Republic. Article 231 forces Germany to accept total War Guilt, alongside £6.6 billion in reparations, disarmament (100,000 army, zero tanks), and territorial amputations.

1922 Milestone 8: Village Mourning & The Stubbington War Memorial

1922 • Memorialisation & Lost Generation | Lesson 6

In Stubbington, Hampshire, the local community erects a unique wooden shelter over the village pump on the green. Built by carpenter Arthur Tribbeck and funded by the mother of VAD nurse Nita Madeline King, the shelter commemorates 67 local fallen, including the three Lowry brothers.

DUAL-SOURCE UTILITY

Enquiry 1: How useful are Sources A and B for an enquiry into why British men volunteered to join the army in 1914?

CORE LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Explain the historical context, global geopolitical shifts, and competing perspectives of this enquiry.
- Deploy precise factual evidence to analyse cause, consequence, or second-order significance.
- Formulate an independent, evaluative historical judgement supported by causal reasoning.

TASK 1: 'DO NOW' RETRIEVAL PRACTICE

Score: / 5

Q1: Which three nations formed the Triple Entente in 1907?	Q2: What revolutionary British battleship was launched in 1906, rendering older warships obsolete?	Q3: What was Kaiser Wilhelm II's aggressive foreign policy aiming for a "place in the sun" called?	Q4: Where was Archduke Franz Ferdinand assassinated on 28 June 1914?	Q5: Which 1839 treaty guaranteeing Belgian neutrality did Germany violate, prompting Britain to declare war?

TASK 2: CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY

Historical Literacy

Distinguish between Britain's small professional army of 120,000 regulars in August 1914 (BEF) and Kitchener's civilian volunteer units raised from towns and workmates (Pals Battalions):

TASK 3: THE ENLISTMENT BALANCE SHEET: PUSH FACTORS VS PULL FACTORS (1914)

Balance the negative domestic pressures driving men into uniform against the positive incentives attracting them to join up:

PUSH FACTORS (DOMESTIC PRESSURE & FEAR)	PULL FACTORS (PATRIOTISM & OPPORTUNITY)
Point 1:	Point 1:
Point 2:	Point 2:
Point 3:	Point 3:

✍️ Task 3: Developing Your Argument: Combine your findings into a reasoned historical argument:

Low-Floor Clue: In Hampshire, over 1,000 men from Portsmouth Dockyard joined the Pompey Pals in just two weeks so they would not be separated from their workmates.

★ Scholar's Edge: How does the tragic wipeout of Pals Battalions on 1 July 1916 challenge the idea that voluntary local recruitment was a humane military policy?

TASK 4: HISTORICAL SKILL: DUAL-SOURCE UTILITY • DUAL-SOURCE EVIDENCE

Enquiry: How useful are Sources A and B for an enquiry into why British men volunteered to join the army in 1914?

EDEXCEL PAPER 1 & 3 PREP

SOURCE A: PARLIAMENTARY RECRUITING COMMITTEE POSTER (1915)

"Women of Britain say—'GO!' Is your lad in uniform yet? If not, why not? Won't you send him to defend your honour? There are women who would give their lives to bring their boys back from the front, but they sent them willingly."

Record: IMPERIAL WAR MUSEUM • LONDON • ART.IWM PST 2763

Provenance Clue: Official government propaganda poster designed to use domestic emotional guilt and public shame to compel men into uniform.

SOURCE B: DIARY OF PRIVATE ARTHUR GREEN, PORTSMOUTH DOCKYARD (AUGUST 1914)

"When the call came, four of us from the naval fitting shop marched straight down to the Town Hall to join the Pompey Pals. We feared being called slackers, but mostly we wanted to stick together with our mates. It felt like the greatest adventure of our lives."

Record: HAMPSHIRE RECORD OFFICE • WINCHESTER • 42M78/P12

Provenance Clue: Private personal diary written at the time; reveals genuine peer camaraderie and fear of social disgrace among local workers.

1. CONTENT & DETAIL
Analyse what each source reveals about reasons for enlisting (shame vs patriotism vs peer camaraderie).

2. PROVENANCE & MOTIVE
Evaluate how the origin and purpose of each source (state propaganda vs private diary) affects its reliability.

3. HISTORICAL JUDGEMENT
Reach a reasoned conclusion: which source is more useful for understanding why ordinary men volunteered in 1914?

Sentence Starters & Connectives: Source A is useful for showing that the state used... • However, its utility is limited because as propaganda it... • In contrast, Source B provides authentic insight into... • When cross-referenced with local Portsmouth history... • On balance, Source [A/B] is more valuable for this enquiry because...

✍️ Task 3: Developing Your Argument: Combine your findings into a reasoned historical argument:

Low-Floor Clue: A single German Maxim machine gun fired 500 rounds per minute—the equivalent of an entire rifle company firing simultaneously.

★ Scholar's Edge: Why did historian John Terraine argue that Haig had no alternative to attrition because there was "no open flank in France"?

TASK 4: HISTORICAL SKILL: HISTORICAL INTERPRETATIONS • HISTORIOGRAPHICAL DEBATE

Enquiry: How far do you agree with Interpretation 1 that General Haig was a callous and incompetent commander?

EDEXCEL PAPER 3 PREP

INTERPRETATION 1: ALAN CLARK, THE DONKEYS (1961)

THE TRADITIONAL VIEW: "LIONS LED BY DONKEYS"

"British soldiers were lions led by donkeys. Haig was an unimaginative cavalryman who lived in distant comfort in French châteaux, completely out of touch with the frontline slaughter. On 1 July 1916, his stubborn refusal to change tactics condemned 57,470 men to death or injury on a single morning."

Scholar: Alan Clark (British Military Historian & Politician, 1961)

INTERPRETATION 2: PROFESSOR GARY SHEFFIELD, FORGOTTEN VICTORY (2001)

THE MODERN VIEW: TRAPPED IN A TACTICAL "LEARNING CURVE"

"Haig was neither a butcher nor a bungler. He was trapped in an unprecedented industrial war where defense dominated attack. The British Army underwent a massive 'Learning Curve'. By 1918, Haig had mastered combined-arms warfare—using tanks, creeping barrages, and aircraft to smash the German Army."

Scholar: Prof. Gary Sheffield (Modern Military Historian, 2001)

1. INTERPRETATION 1 ARGUMENT

Explain Clark's view: detached châteaux generals, cavalry obsession, and catastrophic Somme casualties.

2. INTERPRETATION 2 ARGUMENT

Explain Sheffield's view: lack of radio technology, relieving Verdun, and the tactical "learning curve".

3. SUSTAINED HISTORICAL VERDICT

Evaluate which interpretation is more convincing: was Haig an incompetent "donkey" or a modernizing general?

Sentence Starters & Connectives: Interpretation 1 argues that Haig was... Evidence supporting this criticism includes... • In sharp contrast, Interpretation 2 argues that Haig... This is supported by... • Weighing both interpretations against historical evidence, I conclude that...

Low-Floor Clue: Notice that without Indian troops in autumn 1914, the German army would likely have broken through to the Channel ports.

★ Scholar's Edge: How did the Imperial War Graves Commission's 1923 policy systematically treat white soldiers to individual headstones while African dead received mass unmarked cairns?

TASK 4: HISTORICAL SKILL: HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE • EXTENDED WRITING

Enquiry: Why were the military contributions of 4 million colonial soldiers and labourers marginalized in British memory?

INDEPENDENT ARGUMENT

1. VITAL IMPERIAL MOBILISATION

2. RACIAL DISCRIMINATION & CENSORSHIP

Explain the racial hierarchy: restricting non-white troops from combat in Europe, censoring sepoy letters, isolating wounded Indians behind gates at Brighton, and denying equal officer ranks.

3. HISTORIOGRAPHICAL EVALUATION

Formulate your sustained thesis: why did postwar British commemoration erase non-white troops to create a white national myth of the "British Tommy", and why must this narrative be rewritten?

Sentence Starters & Connectives: The decisive contribution of the British Empire is demonstrated by... • Furthermore, without the Indian Corps in 1914... • In direct contrast to this sacrifice, colonial troops experienced... • Consequently, postwar commemoration... • In conclusion, this marginalisation occurred because...

TASK 2: CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY

Historical Literacy

Write one analytical sentence connecting the sweeping government powers granted under DORA to the industrial mobilisation of female Munitionettes:

TASK 3: THE TOTAL WAR LEDGER: STATE EXPANSION VS FEMALE EMANCIPATION

Balance the repressive growth of state intervention against the progressive opportunities gained by women on the Home Front:

STATE COERCION & CIVIL CONTROL	WOMEN'S MOBILISATION & FREEDOM
Point 1:	Point 1:
Point 2:	Point 2:
Point 3:	Point 3:

✍️ Task 3: Developing Your Argument: Combine your findings into a reasoned historical argument:

Low-Floor Clue: Before 1914, most working-class women were confined to domestic service as maids or laundry workers.

★ Scholar's Edge: Did the 1918 Act grant women the vote because of their war work, or because politicians feared a pre-war Suffragette resurgence if they were excluded?

TASK 4: HISTORICAL SKILL: CHANGE & CONTINUITY • EXTENDED WRITING

Enquiry: How far did the First World War transform the role of the British state and daily life on the Home Front?

INDEPENDENT ARGUMENT

TASK 4: HISTORICAL SKILL: CAUSATION & CONSEQUENCE • EXTENDED WRITING

Enquiry: Was the Treaty of Versailles a justified peace or a fatally flawed compromise?

INDEPENDENT ARGUMENT

1. ALLIED GRIEVANCES & CLAIMS

Explain Allied grievances: French devastation (1.4 million dead, industrial north ruined), Belgian occupation, the brutal German Treaty of Brest-Litovsk, and Article 231 (War Guilt).

3. SUSTAINED HISTORICAL VERDICT

Formulate your judgment: was Versailles an unjust "Carthaginian peace" making WWII inevitable, or a reasonable compromise that failed only because the Allies refused to enforce it?
