ROOT CAUSES & IMPERIAL BETRAYAL

Imperial Contradictions: Sykes-Picot Agreement & The Balfour Declaration

TRIGGER:

ACTION:

CONSEQUENCE:

Britain sought wartime alliances, promising independence to Arab leaders (McMahon-Hussein) while secretly negotiating partition with France.

Foreign Secretary Arthur Balfour committed Britain to supporting a "national home for the Jewish people" in Palestine without prejudicing existing civil rights.

Created an irreconcilable imperial conflict between Arab national self-determination and growing Jewish Zionist immigration under the League of Nations Mandate.

JEWISH INSURGENCY & BRITISH EXHAUSTION

The Bombing of the King David Hotel, Jerusalem

TRIGGER:

ACTION:

CONSEQUENCE:

British restrictions on post-Holocaust Jewish immigration and the arrest of Zionist leaders (Operation Agatha).

Militants from the Irgun (led by Menachem Begin) detonated milk churns packed with explosives in the basement, killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish staff.

Shattered British political will to govern Palestine, leading directly to Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin handing the Mandate to the United Nations in February 1947.

INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE & MORAL COLLAPSE

The SS Exodus & The Sergeants Affair

TRIGGER:

ACTION:

CONSEQUENCE:

The British Royal Navy blockaded Palestine, forcing 4,500 Holocaust survivors aboard the SS Exodus back to detention camps in post-war Germany.

Irgun militants abducted and hanged two British intelligence sergeants (Paice and Martin) in retaliation for British executions of Irgun fighters.

Triggered anti-Jewish riots across British cities and convinced British public opinion that staying in Palestine was morally untenable and too costly.

UN Resolution 181: The Partition Plan

TRIGGER:

ACTION:

CONSEQUENCE:

UNSCOP investigated Palestine and concluded that joint Jewish-Arab power-sharing within a single state was impossible.

The UN General Assembly voted to partition Palestine into independent Arab and Jewish states, placing Jerusalem under international UN trusteeship.

Jewish Agency accepted partition; Arab Higher Committee and Arab League rejected it outright, immediately triggering civil war between Jewish and Arab militias.
