SECTION C: HIGH-SCORING EXEMPLAR RESPONSES

Official Pearson Edexcel Level 3 continuous prose exemplars with examiner annotations.

GRADE 8/9 MODELS: Q1 & Q3

QUESTION 1: CONSEQUENCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 2 (4/4)

Explain one consequence of the Treaty of Washington (1979) for Egyptian relations with other Arab states.

One consequence of the Treaty of Washington (1979) was that Egypt was politically and economically ostracized by the rest of the Arab world. Signed on 26 March 1979 by Anwar Sadat and Menachem Begin, the bilateral treaty made Egypt the first Arab nation to formally recognize Israel in exchange for the return of the Sinai Peninsula. Arab League nations viewed this as a treacherous betrayal of the Palestinian cause, voting immediately to suspend Egypt from the Arab League, move the League's headquarters from Cairo to Tunis, and sever diplomatic ties. This regional isolation shattered pan-Arab diplomatic solidarity and fueled domestic Islamist fury inside Egypt, leading directly to Sadat's assassination in October 1981.

Examiner Annotation: Level 2 (4 Marks): Direct point on Arab ostracization; specific evidence (26 March 1979, Arab League suspension, Tunis move, Sadat assassination); causal explanation of why this severed pan-Arab unity.

QUESTION 3: IMPORTANCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 3 (8/8)

Explain the importance of the Oslo Accords (1993) for the setting up of the Palestinian National Authority.

The Oslo Accords (Declaration of Principles) were important because they established the legal and administrative framework for formal Palestinian self-government for the first time. Signed on 13 September 1993 following secret Norwegian backchannel talks, the agreement mandated that Israel would withdraw its military forces from the Gaza Strip and the West Bank town of Jericho, transferring civil administration to an interim Palestinian authority. This breakthrough transformed the PLO from an exiled guerrilla organization into an internationally recognized civilian government, creating the Palestinian National Authority (PNA) in May 1994.

Furthermore, the Oslo Accords were important because they enabled Yasser Arafat and the exiled PLO leadership to return to Palestine to govern directly. In July 1994, Arafat returned to Gaza after 27 years in exile to head the newly established PNA, creating an elected Palestinian Legislative Council and a dedicated Palestinian civil police force. Although the accords controversially deferred permanent status issues (borders, Jerusalem, refugees), the creation of the PNA permanently altered Middle Eastern politics by granting Palestinians direct administrative authority over their major population centres.

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Direct focus on setting up the PNA; precise facts (13 Sept 1993, Jericho and Gaza withdrawal, July 1994 return, police force); clear evaluation of immediate governance vs deferred final status issues.

TOP 3 FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS FOR KEY TOPIC 3

Camp David (1978) vs Treaty of Washington (1979):

Do not confuse the Camp David Accords (September 1978 - a framework negotiated with Jimmy Carter) with the formal Treaty of Washington (March 1979 - the official bilateral peace treaty signed on the White House lawn).

Oslo Accords: Territorial Breakdown:

Oslo II (1995) did NOT give Palestinians total control of the West Bank. It divided the land into Area A (full Palestinian control, ~3%), Area B (joint security, ~24%), and Area C (full Israeli security and civil control, ~73%).

Importance Questions: Answer the Prompt Outcome:

In Edexcel Importance questions, you MUST explain why an event was important FOR THE SPECIFIC PROMPT (e.g. importance of Arafat's UN speech FOR PLO status), rather than writing general biography about Yasser Arafat.
