Who is this leader, and what organisation did he take over in 1969?

- ☐ A Yasser Arafat. He became the Chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO).
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

112. Explain how disputes over water resources between Israel and Syria in the mid-1960s contributed to rising regional tensions.

- ☐ A Israel completed its National Water Carrier to divert water from the Sea of Galilee. In response, Arab states drafted the Headwater Diversion Plan to divert the Dan and Banias rivers. This led to cross-border skirmishes where Israeli tanks and artillery fired on Syrian workers to destroy their heavy machinery.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

113. What was the Samu Raid of November 1966, and how did it affect King Hussein of Jordan's position?

- ☐ A The Samu Raid was a massive Israeli reprisal attack in the West Bank after a Fatah landmine killed three Israeli policemen. Over 600 IDF troops entered the village of Samu, destroying dozens of homes and clashing with the Jordanian military, leaving 15 Jordanian soldiers dead. It humiliated King Hussein and prompted him to order national mobilization.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

114. What major air battle occurred on 7 April 1967, and how did it affect Syrian military morale?

- ☐ A Syrian artillery on the Golan Heights fired on Israeli tractors in the demilitarized zone, leading to a massive aerial dogfight over Damascus in which the Israeli air force shot down six Syrian Soviet-built MiG-21 jet fighters. This humiliated Syria and increased the pressure to retaliate.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

115. How did the Soviet Union act as a catalyst for the May 1967 crisis?

- ☐ A On 13 May 1967, the USSR gave Egyptian President Nasser a false intelligence report claiming Israel was massing ten brigades on the Syrian border for an imminent invasion. This placed Nasser under immense pressure to act to honor his defense pact with Syria.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

116. Detail three specific actions taken by Gamal Abdel Nasser in May 1967 that Israel considered a direct casus belli (act of war).

- ☐ A 1. Mobilizing his army into the demilitarized Sinai Peninsula. 2. Demanding the immediate withdrawal of UN peacekeepers (UNEF) from the border. 3. Closing the Straits of Tiran to Israeli and Israel-bound shipping, choking Israel's southern port of Eilat.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

117. What was Operation Focus, launched on 5 June 1967, and why was it so critical to the outcome of the war?

- ☐ A It was a pre-emptive Israeli air strike that flew low to evade Egyptian radar, catching the Egyptian air force on the ground. Within three hours, Israel destroyed 309 of Egypt's 340 combat aircraft on the tarmac, securing absolute air superiority, which allowed Israeli ground forces to advance without fear of aerial attack.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

118. List the territories captured by Israel during the Six Day War and identify the nation from which each was taken.

- ☐ A Sinai Peninsula and the Gaza Strip from Egypt. The West Bank and East Jerusalem from Jordan. The Golan Heights from Syria.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

119. Write an analytical sentence linking the May 1967 Crisis to the ultimate outcome of the Six Day War.

- ☐ A Because Nasser closed the Straits of Tiran and signed a mutual defense pact with Jordan in May 1967, Israel launched a pre-emptive air strike on 5 June 1967 that destroyed Arab air capabilities on the ground, enabling a lightning ground campaign that expanded Israeli territory to three times its pre-war size.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

120. Define: UN Resolution 242

- ☐ A A 1967 resolution that called for 'land for peace' but was hindered by translation loopholes.

- ☐ (B) Anwar Sadat
- ☐ (C) Yasser Arafat
- ☐ (D) King Farouk

132. Why was the initial Arab attack on 6 October 1973 so successful?

- ☐ (A) It was the holiest day of the Jewish calendar (Yom Kippur) and Israel was caught by surprise
- ☐ (B) Israel had dismantled its entire military the week before
- ☐ (C) The US actively jammed Israeli radar systems
- ☐ (D) Egypt used experimental nuclear weapons

133. How did the Yom Kippur War ultimately end militarily?

- (A) Egypt captured Tel Aviv and forced an Israeli surrender
- (B) Israel recovered, crossed the Suez Canal, and encircled the Egyptian Third Army
- (C) The UN stepped in and forced Israel to immediately return the Sinai
- (D) Syria successfully held the Golan Heights permanently

134. What powerful economic weapon did Arab nations use during the 1973 war?

- (A) They bought up all Israeli currency to cause hyperinflation
- (B) They placed an oil embargo on countries that supported Israel, causing a global energy crisis
- (C) They refused to allow Western ships to use the Suez Canal for a decade
- (D) They hacked into the US banking system

135. What was the 'Bar Lev Line'?

- (A) A chain of massive Israeli sand fortifications along the Suez Canal
- (B) A secret diplomatic backchannel between Israel and Egypt
- (C) The border drawn by the UN in 1947
- (D) A new type of advanced fighter jet used by Israel

136. How did the Yom Kippur War change the psychological dynamic between Israel and Egypt?

- (A) It convinced Egypt that peace was absolutely impossible
- (B) It shattered Israel's myth of invincibility and restored Arab pride, making negotiations possible
- (C) It caused the complete collapse of the Egyptian military command
- (D) It led to Israel abandoning the entire Sinai immediately without a treaty

137. What major United Nations Security Council Resolution was passed on 22 November 1967 to establish the guiding principles of a 'land for peace' formula?

- ☐ A UN Resolution 242.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C

- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

141. What was the immediate result of the Dawson's Field hijackings of September 1970 for the PLO's position in Jordan?

- ☐ A The hijackings severely embarrassed King Hussein of Jordan, prompting him to order his army to crush and forcibly expel the PLO from the country during 'Black September'.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

142. To which country did the PLO relocate its central headquarters after its expulsion from Jordan in 1970–71?

- ☐ A Lebanon.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

143. Describe the events of the Munich Olympics of September 1972 and state how Israel's Prime Minister Golda Meir responded.

- ☐ A The 'Black September' group took nine Israeli athletes hostage (killing two immediately), resulting in the deaths of all 11 during a failed rescue attempt. In response, Prime Minister Meir launched 'Operation Wrath of God' to assassinate the planners globally.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

144. How did Israel's capture of the Golan Heights, the West Bank, the Gaza Strip, and the Sinai Peninsula in 1967 initially improve its military security?

- ☐ A These territories acted as strategic military buffer zones: keeping Egyptian forces far from the heartland, creating a defensible border along the Jordan, and preventing Syrian shelling of Galilee.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

145. Why did the PLO reject UN Resolution 242?

- ☐ (A) Because it treated the Palestinian population merely as a 'refugee problem' rather than a nation with a right to self-determination.
- ☐ (B) Option B
- ☐ (C) Option C
- ☐ (D) Option D

146. Write an analytical sentence linking the outcome of the Six Day War to the rise of international Palestinian terrorism.

- ☐ (A) Because the devastating defeat of Arab armies in 1967 proved they could not destroy Israel, disillusioned Palestinian nationalists turned to grassroots armed groups like the PFLP, which launched high-profile terror attacks to force the issue onto the global stage.
- ☐ (B) Option B
- ☐ (C) Option C
- ☐ (D) Option D

147. Define: War of Attrition

- ☐ A The War of Attrition. The Soviet Union (USSR) provided the advisors and missiles.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

170. Why did Anwar Sadat make the dramatic decision to expel 15,000 Soviet military advisors from Egypt in July 1972?

- ☐ A He was frustrated by Soviet reluctance to supply offensive weaponry and calculated that expelling them would please the United States, hoping Washington would then pressure Israel into returning the Sinai Peninsula.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

171. Explain how the US military airlift, known as Operation Nickel Grass, influenced the course of the Yom Kippur War.

- ☐ A It replaced Israel's heavy initial losses of tanks, jets, and ammunition. This vital logistical support allowed the IDF to stabilize their defense lines, launch a counter-offensive, and encircle Egypt's Third Army.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

172. What were the two primary targets of Egypt's maritime blockade established in the years immediately following the 1949 armistice?
