Instructions: As you study each enquiry lesson, complete the timeline missions by sketching and annotating in the corresponding Key Topic boxes below.

NOV 1917 • The Balfour Declaration & Contradictory British Promises

Key Topic 1.1

British Foreign Secretary Arthur Balfour writes to Lord Rothschild promising British support for the establishment of a "national home for the Jewish people" in Palestine. This directly contradicts Britain's 1915 pledge to Sharif Hussein of Mecca and the secret 1916 Sykes-Picot Agreement dividing the Middle East with France.

JULY 1946 • The Bombing of the King David Hotel, Jerusalem

Key Topic 1.2

Disguised as milkmen, militants from the Zionist paramilitary group Irgun, led by Menachem Begin, detonate 350kg of explosives in the basement of the King David Hotel. The blast collapses the entire south-west wing housing British military headquarters, killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish staff.

NOV 1947 • UN Resolution 181 (The Palestine Partition Plan)

Key Topic 1.3

The United Nations General Assembly votes 33 to 13 to terminate the British Mandate and partition Palestine into separate Arab and Jewish states, with Jerusalem placed under international trusteeship (Corpus Separatum). The Jewish Agency accepts; all Arab nations reject the plan, triggering civil war.

LIVING TIMELINE • PART 2: STATEHOOD, THE NAKBA & THE SUEZ CRISIS (1948–1956)

Instructions: Complete sketches and dual-coding annotations for the war of independence, the displacement of Palestinians, and the 1956 Suez Crisis.

MAY 1948 • Declaration of Independence & The 1948–49 Arab-Israeli War

Key Topic 1.3

On 14 May 1948, David Ben-Gurion proclaims the State of Israel as British forces complete their evacuation. The next day, five Arab states (Egypt, Transjordan, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon) invade. Israel survives initial assaults, re-arms during the June UN truce via Czechoslovakia, and signs armistices along the 1949 Green Line.

1948–1950 • The Palestinian Refugee Crisis (Al-Nakba) & Law of Return

Key Topic 1.4

Approximately 700,000 Palestinian Arabs are displaced into permanent exile (Al-Nakba), supported by the newly formed UNRWA in Gaza, the West Bank, Lebanon, and Syria. Simultaneously, Israel passes the 1950 Law of Return, absorbing over 680,000 Holocaust survivors and Mizrahi Jewish refugees from Arab lands.

OCT–NOV 1956 • The Suez Crisis & The Protocol of Sèvres

Key Topic 1.5

Following Nasser's nationalisation of the Suez Canal, Britain, France, and Israel secretly sign the Protocol of Sèvres. Israel invades the Sinai on 29 October; Britain and France intervene to "separate the combatants" and seize the canal. US financial ultimatums force a humiliating Anglo-French withdrawal, leaving UNEF peacekeepers in Sinai.

Why did conflicting British wartime promises make conflict in Palestine inevitable?

Key Topic 1.1: Imperial Origins, Conflicting Promises & Mandate Tensions (1915–1945)

Key Specification Focus: Conflicting interests and demands of Jews and Arabs within the British Mandate; the McMahon-Hussein Correspondence (1915), the secret Sykes-Picot Agreement (1916), the Balfour Declaration (1917), and the 1939 British White Paper.

• 5-STAGE CHRONOLOGICAL DOMINO CHAIN (KEY CAUSAL TURNING POINTS)

CAUSAL REASONING • 5 STAGES

STAGE 1 1915–1916 THE WARTIME PROMISE • BRITAIN & ARAB LEADERS

1. The McMahon-Hussein Correspondence

Action: British High Commissioner McMahon exchanges letters with Arab leader Sherif Hussein, promising British support for an independent post-war Arab state in exchange for an Arab revolt against the Ottoman Empire.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Britain urgently needed Arab guerrilla forces to tie down Ottoman troops during the First World War and protect the Suez Canal.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Arab forces launched the revolt believing they were fighting for national independence, but Britain deliberately left the future borders of Palestine vague.

↓ While promising independence to Arab leaders, Britain secretly made a conflicting partition deal with its European ally... ↓

STAGE 2 May 1916 IMPERIAL PARTITION • BRITAIN & FRANCE

2. The Secret Sykes-Picot Agreement

Action: British and French diplomats secretly agree to divide the Ottoman Arab lands into British and French zones of colonial control.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Britain and France wanted to secure Middle Eastern oil supplies, trading ports, and strategic transit routes to British India.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Directly broke Britain's promise of Arab independence; when leaked in 1917, it convinced Arab leaders that European powers could not be trusted.

↓ Britain then issued a third, fateful pledge to win international wartime support... ↓

STAGE 3 November 1917 THE CONFLICTING PLEDGE • THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT

3. The Balfour Declaration

Action: British Foreign Secretary Arthur Balfour writes an official letter stating Britain's support for "a national home for the Jewish people" in Palestine.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Britain sought to win wartime diplomatic sympathy and financial backing from Jewish communities in the USA and Russia.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Created a deep contradiction: promising to help build a Jewish homeland while also pledging not to harm the rights of the existing Arab majority.

↓ Following Allied victory, Britain was given international authority to govern Palestine and manage these rival promises... ↓

STAGE 4 1920–1936 POPULATION SHIFT • BRITISH AUTHORITIES & JEWISH IMMIGRANTS

4. The British Mandate & Rising Immigration

Action: Britain rules Palestine under a League of Nations mandate; Jewish immigration rises steadily, increasing the Jewish share of the population from 11% to nearly 30% by 1936.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Jewish immigrants fled rising anti-Semitism and Nazi persecution in Europe, purchasing land through the Jewish National Fund to build farms and towns.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Palestinian Arab tenant farmers lost access to farmland, creating severe economic hardship and growing hostility between both communities.

↓ Simmering Arab anger boiled over into a full-scale armed rebellion against British rule... ↓

STAGE 5 1936–1939 THE IMMIGRATION CAP • PALESTINIAN ARABS & BRITISH GOVERNMENT

5. The Arab Revolt & The 1939 White Paper

Action: Palestinian Arabs launch a three-year armed rebellion; Britain crushes the uprising with troops, but then issues the 1939 White Paper strictly capping Jewish immigration.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): With the Second World War approaching, Britain needed to appease Arab opinion to keep Middle Eastern oil supplies and trade routes secure.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Limited Jewish immigration to 75,000 over five years just as the Holocaust began, leaving both Jews and Arabs feeling betrayed and turning both sides against Britain.

Why did Britain abandon its Mandate in Palestine and hand the problem to the UN?

Key Topic 1.2: The Collapse of the British Mandate & UN Partition (1945–1947)

Key Specification Focus: Conflicting interests after World War Two; Jewish insurgency (Irgun and Lehi); the bombing of the King David Hotel (July 1946); British economic and military exhaustion; the SS Exodus affair (1947); and UNSCOP recommendations.

1. Post-War Holocaust Survivors & The Insurgency

Action: Armed Jewish paramilitary groups (Haganah and Irgun) launch guerrilla attacks and sabotage raids against British military bases and railways in Palestine.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Britain maintained its strict immigration cap of 1,500 people per month, turning away ships carrying European Holocaust survivors who had nowhere else to go.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Made Palestine dangerous and financially crippling for Britain to govern, tying down 100,000 British soldiers in constant anti-guerrilla operations.

↓ The guerrilla campaign escalated into a devastating attack on the heart of British military administration... ↓

STAGE 2 22 July 1946 THE DECISIVE ATTACK • THE IRGUN (MENACHEM BEGIN)

2. The King David Hotel Bombing

Action: The Irgun blows up the British administrative and military headquarters at the King David Hotel in Jerusalem, killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish staff.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): The Irgun, led by Menachem Begin, wanted to destroy British military intelligence files and force Britain to abandon control of Palestine.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Deeply shocked the British public and government, destroying British domestic political will to keep soldiers stationed in Palestine.

↓ Exhausted by casualties, financial debt, and public outcry, the British government decided to walk away from Palestine... ↓

STAGE 3 February 1947 THE UN REFERRAL • BRITISH GOVERNMENT & THE UN

3. Britain Hands Palestine to the United Nations

Action: British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin announces that Britain will surrender its mandate and hand full responsibility for Palestine to the United Nations.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Britain was near bankruptcy after the Second World War, facing severe fuel rationing at home, and could not find an agreement acceptable to both Arabs and Jews.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): The UN established a special fact-finding committee (UNSCOP) to tour Palestine and produce an international partition plan.

↓ The international crisis escalated when British warships intercepted a ship of displaced Holocaust survivors... ↓

STAGE 4 July 1947 PUBLIC RELATIONS DISASTER • BRITISH NAVY & HOLOCAUST REFUGEES

4. The SS Exodus Affair & Global Outcry

Action: British warships intercept the SS Exodus carrying 4,500 Holocaust survivors, forcibly returning the refugees to displaced persons camps in Germany.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Britain was determined to enforce its strict naval blockade against illegal Jewish immigration into Mandatory Palestine.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Created an international media scandal that devastated British moral prestige, turning US President Truman and global public opinion decisively against the Mandate.

↓ UNSCOP completed its investigations and proposed an immediate end to British rule and the division of the country... ↓

STAGE 5 29 November 1947 THE DIVISION OF PALESTINE • UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY

5. UN Resolution 181 (The Partition Plan)

Action: The UN votes to partition Palestine into two separate states: a Jewish state (55% of the land) and an Arab state (44%), with Jerusalem placed under international control.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): The UN concluded that the two communities had completely incompatible national goals and could not live peacefully under one government.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Jewish leaders accepted the plan as international recognition of their statehood, while Arab leaders rejected it as unfair, sparking immediate civil war across Palestine.

• CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY & HISTORICAL DISTINCTION

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): The Israeli government needed modern heavy equipment to counter Arab superiority in tanks, artillery, and British-trained officers.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Decisively reversed the military balance, allowing the reorganised IDF to launch massive counter-offensives (Operation Dani & Operation Yoav) when fighting resumed.

↓ Crushing Israeli military victories forced Arab states to accept separate armistice negotiations... ↓

STAGE 5 1949 THE REDRAWN BORDERS • UN, ISRAEL, EGYPT, JORDAN, SYRIA, LEBANON

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Israel's Jewish population doubled from 650,000 to 1.4 million by 1952, creating severe austerity and tent cities (ma'abarot), but securing national workforce and defense.

↓ To defend its expanding population, Israel consolidated its national armed forces and secured foreign backing... ↓

STAGE 4 1950–1953 STATE SECURITY • IDF & THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

4. Consolidation of the IDF & US Economic Backing

Action: Israel establishes mandatory universal military conscription into the IDF, while receiving over $200 million in US government grants and loans.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Surrounded by hostile Arab states that refused to recognise its existence, Israel required a permanent citizen-army backed by superpower capital.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Transformed Israel into a formidable regional military power with fortified border settlements (kibbutzim) guarding the fragile Green Line frontiers.

↓ Frustrated refugees began launching guerrilla raids back across the armistice demarcation lines... ↓

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Refugees sought to return to farmland or strike Israel, while Israeli leaders adopted a doctrine of overwhelming retaliation to enforce border deterrence.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Created an escalating spiral of border clashes and civilian casualties that pushed Israel and Egypt directly toward the 1955 Gaza Raid and 1956 Suez Crisis.

• CORE DISCIPLINARY VOCABULARY & HISTORICAL DISTINCTION

STAGE 4 22–24 October 1956 THE COLLUSION • BRITAIN, FRANCE & ISRAEL

4. The Secret Protocol of Sèvres & Sinai Invasion

Action: Britain, France, and Israel secretly sign the Protocol of Sèvres; Israel invades Sinai on 29 October; Britain and France intervene to "separate the combatants" and seize Port Said.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Britain and France needed a false peacekeeping pretext to occupy the canal, while Israel sought to eliminate Fedayeen bases and open the Straits of Tiran.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Mosque speakers rallied Egyptian resistance, while Nasser ordered ships sunk in the canal, completely blocking international maritime trade.

STAGE 5 Nov 1956 – Mar 1957 IMPERIAL HUMILIATION • US PRESIDENT EISENHOWER & THE UN

5. US Ultimatum, Imperial Retreat & UNEF Deployment

Action: US President Eisenhower threatens to crash the British pound and deny oil supplies; Britain and France withdraw; UN Emergency Force (UNEF) peacekeepers deploy to Sinai.

"BECAUSE" (MOTIVE): Eisenhower was furious at allies launching an unprovoked colonial war without US consent, distracting from the simultaneous Soviet invasion of Hungary.

"THEREFORE" (CONSEQUENCE): Marked the definitive end of Britain and France as global imperial superpowers; Nasser emerged as the undisputed hero of Arab nationalism.

TERMINOLOGY

Explain the crucial historical difference between Nationalisation and Demilitarisation. How did Nasser's nationalisation of the Suez Canal in July 1956 lead directly to the demilitarisation of the Sinai Peninsula monitored by UN peacekeepers (UNEF) in 1957?

[4 MARKS • 5 MINS]

Explain one consequence of the Israeli raid on Gaza (February 1955).

PFC Guidance: Explain how the death of 37 Egyptian soldiers shattered Nasser's illusion of military strength, prompting him to seek Soviet weapons through the 1955 Czech arms deal.

Sensei Stems: One consequence of the Israeli raid on Gaza was Nasser's decision to rearm Egypt with Soviet weapons. In particular, Israeli paratroopers killed 37 Egyptian soldiers, which humiliated Nasser and proved Egyptian weakness. Consequently, Nasser turned to the Soviet bloc and signed the September 1955 Czech arms deal...

Question 2: Narrative Account [8 marks • 12 mins]

EXTENDED WRITING ASSESSMENT • 8 MARKS

Write a narrative account analysing the events of the 1956 Suez Crisis from the nationalisation of the canal to the withdrawal of Anglo-French forces. [8 marks]

You may use the following in your answer: • President Nasser nationalises the Suez Canal (26 July 1956) • The secret Protocol of Sèvres and Israeli invasion of Sinai (October 1956) • You must also use information of your own.

1. PHASE 1: CATALYST & NATIONALISATION Explain US cancellation of Aswan Dam loans, prompting Nasser to nationalise the Suez Canal on 26 July 1956 to fund the dam.	2. PHASE 2: SECRET SÈVRES CONSPIRACY Detail the secret Protocol of Sèvres where Israel invaded Sinai, providing the pretext for Anglo-French paratrooper landings at Port Said.	3. PHASE 3: SUPERPOWER ULTIMATUM Explain Eisenhower's financial threat to collapse sterling, forcing humiliating Anglo-French retreat and deploying UNEF.

CAMPAIGN ARCHIVE

Operation Kadesh, the secret Protocol of Sèvres collusion, and the Anglo-French Port Said landings:

- Protocol of Sèvres: Secret collusion between Britain, France, and Israel to seize the canal and overthrow President Nasser.
- 100-Hour Blitzkrieg: Moshe Dayan's IDF swept across Sinai in 100 hours; 202nd Paratroopers dropped at Mitla Pass; took Sharm el-Sheikh.
- Superpower Intervention: US President Eisenhower forced Allied withdrawal via financial pressure; UNEF deployed to Sinai.

The armistice boundaries of 1949 created extreme strategic vulnerability: Israel's coastal waist near Tel Aviv was only 9 miles wide, while over 700,000 displaced Palestinians were confined to crowded refugee enclaves in Gaza and the West Bank without sovereignty. Simultaneously, critical maritime waterways—the Suez Canal and the Straits of Tiran at Sharm el-Sheikh—became geopolitical flashpoints. Nasser's blockade of Israeli shipping directly precipitated the 1956 invasion, demonstrating how geography and maritime access dictated the rhythm of regional warfare.

- Strategic Supremacy: How did military factors overpower political agreements?

3. ANNOTATED GRADE 9 MODEL ANSWER • Q3: EXPLAIN IMPORTANCE [8 MARKS]

EXAMINER MARKS: 8/8 (BAND 4)

Question: Explain the importance of the bombing of the King David Hotel (July 1946) for the British decision to withdraw from Palestine.

Aspect 1 (Military & Administrative Destruction): The bombing of the King David Hotel on 22 July 1946 was of paramount importance because it directly crippled British military and civil administration in Mandatory Palestine. Militants from Menachem Begin's Irgun smuggled 350kg of explosives into the basement disguised as milk churns, detonating the entire south-west wing and killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish staff. Crucially, this eradicated the central archives, intelligence registries, and senior command infrastructure of the British Secretariat. Consequently, the British army was forced into defensive, fortified enclaves ("Bevingrads"), demonstrating that Britain could no longer maintain basic law and order against determined Jewish insurgent militias.

Aspect 2 (Domestic Political & Financial Exhaustion): Furthermore, the bombing was decisively important in shattering British political resolve at home. Prime Minister Clement Attlee's postwar Labour government was financially bankrupt, rationing bread, and struggling under £3 billion of wartime debt while deploying 100,000 soldiers to Palestine. The public spectacle of British soldiers dying in a thankless imperial conflict triggered ferocious parliamentary and media backlash, crystallised by the execution of two British intelligence sergeants in retaliation for Irgun hangings in 1947. In direct reaction to this unsustainable financial drain and domestic fury, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin announced in February 1947 that Britain would abandon the Mandate and surrender the entire problem to the United Nations without enforcing a partition.

• Detailed historical facts: 22 July 1946, 350kg TNT, 91 deaths, Menachem Begin, 100,000 troops.

• Analytical focus: Direct link to Attlee's February 1947 UN surrender.
