My Reflections: Day 3: Saturday 3rd October 2026

Private T. J. Franklin

Local Hero

Private T. J. Franklin

Service Number: 8560
Regiment: 1st Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment
Born: Alverstoke, Hampshire, in about 1893.

Local Connection: He was the son of George Franklin (an Army Pensioner and farm labourer) and Mary Ann Jane Franklin. The family lived at Chark Cottage in Stubbington, and later moved to Meadow Cottage, Chark, Lee-on-the-Solent. By 1911, Thomas was serving in Wellington Lines, Aldershot.

Military Service & Fate: Enlisted at Gosport. He was deployed to the Western Front in August 1914, earning the 1914 Star. He was killed in action on 29th April 1915 during the Second Battle of Ypres. His battalion was holding an exposed section of the line on the Frezenberg Ridge (east of St Julien) to cover an Allied withdrawal, enduring intense German shelling and the first ever military poison gas attacks.

Biographical information courtesy of the Stubbington and Hill Head History Society.

Time	Activity / Location	Details
Home	Stubbington Connection	Lived at Meadow Cottage, Chark
Memorial	Stubbington War Memorial	Commemorated in the village center.
Resting Place	Menin Gate, Ypres	Killed 29th April 1915 holding an exposed line on the Frezenberg Ridge.

Private W. Ayling

Local Hero

Private W. Ayling

Service Number: 9330

Rank: Private (commemorated on the Holy Rood Memorial Tablet as a Lance Corporal, though official war records register him as a Private).

Regiment: 1st Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment

Born: About 1895 in Hindhead, Surrey.

Local Connection: He was the second son of Horace Ayling (a head cowman) and Annie Ayling. The family moved to Stubbington around 1907, residing in a crowded 13-person household in Stubbington Lane, where William worked as a local baker boy.

Military Service & Fate: Enlisted at Winchester. He crossed to France in August 1914, earning the 1914 Star. He was killed by shell fire on 9th July 1915 (only a few months after his battalion comrade, Private Franklin). His company was heavily shelled and hit with trench mortars during an action to relieve captured enemy trenches north of Ypres.

Memorial Site: Commemorated on the Ypres (Menin Gate) Memorial, Belgium (no known grave).

Biographical information courtesy of the Stubbington and Hill Head History Society.

Time	Activity / Location	Details
Home	Stubbington Connection	Lived in Stubbington Lane; worked as a Baker Boy
Memorial	Stubbington War Memorial	Commemorated in the village center.
Resting Place	Menin Gate, Ypres	Killed 9th July 1915 during heavy trench mortar bombardment.

Private S. Muckett

Local Hero

Private S. Muckett

Service Number: 12977
Rank: Private (listed as a Corporal on the Holy Rood Memorial, but registered as a Private in official war records).
Regiment: 15th (Service) Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment
Born: 26th December 1895 at Titchfield.

Local Connection: He was the son of William Muckett (a farm labourer) and Elizabeth Muckett. They lived at Pound Knap, Crofton, and Brown's Farm, Stubbington, where Sydney worked as a grocer's errand boy, before relocating to Melville Gate, Stubbington. His sister Louisa Annie and brother Frank both married into the local Rye family.

Military Service & Fate: Enlisted at Fareham in 1914. He was killed in action, aged 21, on 20th September 1917 during the Battle of Menin Road Ridge. His battalion went over the top south of Ypres, advancing rapidly under fire to clear a German strongpoint at Java Avenue.

Memorial Site: Commemorated on the Tyne Cot Memorial, Belgium (no known grave).

Biographical information courtesy of the Stubbington and Hill Head History Society.

Time	Activity / Location	Details
Home	Stubbington Connection	Lived at Brown's Farm; worked as a Grocer's Errand Boy

Resting Place	Tyne Cot British Cemetery	Killed 20th September 1917 during the Battle of Menin Road Ridge.

Private A. Rye

Local Hero

Private A. Rye

Service Number: 22926
Regiment: 14th Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment
Born: 1897 at Forest Side, Sussex.

Local Connection: He was the youngest child of Charles Rye (a farm labourer) and Jane Rye. The family lived at Stroud Green, Stubbington. By 1911, Arthur was living at Lower Crabthorne, Hill Head, working as a local nurseryman. His sister Alice married Frank Muckett (brother of Private Sydney Muckett).

Military Service & Fate: Enlisted at Fareham. He was killed in action, aged 21, on 26th September 1917—only nine days after his brother-in-law's brother, Sydney Muckett, was killed. His battalion attacked near the Menin Road, advancing through Tower Hamlets under heavy mist to consolidate their objectives.

Memorial Site: Commemorated on the Tyne Cot Memorial, Belgium, on the exact same panels as Sydney Muckett (neither body was ever recovered).

Biographical information courtesy of the Stubbington and Hill Head History Society.

Lance Corporal A. Ward

Local Hero

Lance Corporal A. Ward

Service Number: 17568
Regiment: 15th (Hampshire Yeomanry) Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment
Born: 1896 in Alverstoke.

Local Connection: He was the son of Hugh Ward (a Royal Navy Coastguard and yacht steward) and Bertha Kathleen Ward. The family lived at 6 Coastguard Cottages, Hill Head, and later Balmoral, Gosport Road, Lee-on-the-Solent. His younger brother, Horace Vivian Ward, was also killed in action.

Military Service & Fate: Enlisted in Portsmouth. He fought on the Western Front, in Italy, and returned to France in March 1918. He was killed in action, aged 23, on 14th October 1918—less than a month before the Armistice. During the final Allied advance from Gheluwe towards Courtrai, Belgium, his battalion advanced through thick mist under a harassing barrage to overcome German pillboxes.

Memorial Site: Commemorated on the Tyne Cot Memorial, Belgium (no known grave).

Biographical information courtesy of the Stubbington and Hill Head History Society.

The Final Teacher Challenge

Reflection & Synthesis

Your Final Challenge

As we conclude our journey through the Ypres Salient, it is time to bring the stories of the fallen back home. Your final challenge is to choose one of the local heroes we investigated and write a short memorial speech that could be read aloud at the Stubbington War Memorial on Remembrance Sunday.

Your speech must:

- State who they were and where they lived.
- Describe the conditions they faced on the battlefield.
- Explain why their sacrifice, and the sacrifice of their generation, must never be forgotten.
