L1: How was the German Empire created in 1871?

IAN REICH
-1918

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Understand how Otto von Bismarck used 'blood and iron' to unify the German states.
- ☐ Analyze the geographical impact of the new German Empire on the balance of power in Europe.

Source A: A map from 1871 showing the newly created German Empire compared to modern Germany.

This map illustrates the dramatic shift in European borders following the Franco-Prussian War in 1871. By uniting various independent German states into a single, massive German Empire under Prussian leadership, Otto von Bismarck completely altered the balance of power in Europe. This sudden creation of a massive, heavily armed, and highly industrialized powerhouse in the center of Europe deeply terrified its neighbors, setting the stage for future conflict.

Q1. Look at the A4 map provided. Why might the geographical location of the new German Empire cause fear for both Germany and its neighbors?

Vocabulary Check

Write a short paragraph using at least FOUR of the vocabulary words below correctly.

Chancellor | Blood and Iron

Q2. Interpreting 'Blood and Iron'. In your own words, explain what Otto von Bismarck meant when he said Germany would be united by 'blood and iron'. How did Prussia use its industrial and military power to prove Bismarck's speech right between 1864 and 1871? [p. 4]

Q3. The Steps to Unification. Create a three-step staircase diagram in your book to show how Bismarck built the German Empire. For each step, write down: 1. The name of the country Prussia defeated. 2. The year of the war. 3. How this war helped Prussia achieve its ultimate goal of unification. [p. 5]

Q5. Explain why Bismarck's policy of 'Blood and Iron' was successful in uniting Germany.

Lesson Consolidation

Reflect on today's learning and answer your teacher's final challenge.

L2: How did the Franco-Prussian War create a lasting legacy of hatred?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the penalties forced upon France in 1871.
- ☐ Explain how the Ems Telegram sparked the Franco-Prussian War.
- ☐ Evaluate the long-term impact on European relations.

Source A : A painting by Anton von Werner from 1885 showing the Proclamation of the German Empire at Versailles.

This painting depicts the official birth of the unified German Empire inside the Hall of Mirrors at the Palace of Versailles in 1871. France was defeated and forced to host this ceremony in its own royal palace. This created a deep, lasting feeling of humiliation and anger in France, leading to a desire for revenge (revanche) that would eventually help spark WWI.

Q1. What are the two opposing figures doing in this 1871 painting by Anton von Werner, and why is this event significant?

Vocabulary Check

Write a historically accurate sentence connecting two terms from the glossary box below.

Chancellor | Blood and Iron

Your Sentence:

Q3. To what extent did the maps of central Europe fundamentally change prior to 1871? Use the term "North German Confederation" in your answer. [p. 8]

Q4. Describe the diplomatic trick Chancellor Otto von Bismarck used to manufacture a war with France in 1870. [p. 8]

Q5. Identify two distinct military advantages that allowed the Prussian-led German army to quickly defeat the conventional French forces. [p. 8]

Q6. List the three severe penalties forced upon France by the victorious German Empire in the 1871 peace treaty. [p. 8]

Q7. Explain why the loss of Alsace-Lorraine and the ceremony at Versailles created a long-term "nightmare" for European peace. [p. 9]

Q8. Explain why the Franco-Prussian War created a lasting legacy of hatred between France and Germany.

Pair & Share Activity

Prompt: Of the three penalties forced upon France in the 1871 treaty (loss of land, 5 billion franc fine, German occupation), which do you think caused the most bitter resentment, and why?

Think: Jot down your choice and one strong reason to support it.

Your Notes:

Writing Practice

Q9. Evaluate how the change in leadership from Bismarck to Kaiser Wilhelm II fundamentally altered Germany's strategic position in Europe.

[illegible]

Q10. How useful are Sources A and B for an enquiry into the reasons for French hatred of Germany after 1871?

"We must never forget the humiliation of 1871. The German Empire was proclaimed in our own Palace of Versailles, tearing away the bleeding wounds of Alsace and Lorraine. They have stolen our iron and our factories, and forced us to pay a crushing ransom of 5 billion francs. Every French child must grow up with one single thought: to rebuild our army and take back what was stolen from the motherland."

Source A: Adapted from a French school textbook, published in Paris, 1885.

"France will never forgive us for taking Alsace-Lorraine. The peace we have forced upon them has left a bitter resentment that will not fade. We must accept that a French war of revenge is a certainty in the future. Therefore, our entire diplomatic focus must be to ensure she never finds an ally to help her take it back. As long as France remains diplomatically isolated, particularly from Russia, Germany will remain secure."

Source B: Adapted from a private letter written by German Chancellor Otto von Bismarck to a fellow diplomat, 1872.

L3: To what extent did the 'Scramble for Africa' increase tension in Europe?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the main European colonial powers and their territories.
- ☐ Explain how Kaiser Wilhelm II's 'Place in the Sun' policy threatened Britain.
- ☐ Evaluate the impact of the Moroccan Crises on the Entente Cordiale.

Source A : A political cartoon by John Tenniel from 1885 showing German Chancellor Otto von Bismarck as a greedy boy.

This British cartoon satirizes Germany's Chancellor Otto von Bismarck as a "greedy boy" grabbing slices of a pudding that represents colonial territories in Africa and New Guinea. This reflects British anxiety and suspicion about Germany's aggressive efforts to build a global empire, which threatened Britain's status as the world's leading power.

L4: Why did a battleship building contest destroy Anglo-German relations?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the significance of the HMS Dreadnought.
- ☐ Explain the concept of the Two-Power Standard and Risk Theory.
- ☐ Analyze how naval competition fed mutual suspicion.

Source A : An official technical blueprint from 1906 showing the revolutionary design of HMS Dreadnought.

This is a technical naval diagram of HMS Dreadnought, a revolutionary British battleship launched in 1906. It was so fast and heavily armed that it instantly made all existing warships in the world obsolete (useless). This triggered a frantic naval arms race between Britain and Germany, as both countries rushed to build as many Dreadnoughts as possible.

Q1. This blueprint represents the HMS Dreadnought. Why would this ship make all other navies obsolete?

Vocabulary Check

Fill in the blanks using the vocabulary words below.

Dreadnought | Arms Race | Two-Power Standard | Naval Supremacy

Britain's traditional _____ was challenged when Germany began a rapid naval buildup. This sparked a fierce _____ between the two nations. Britain relied on the _____ to maintain a massive fleet, but the invention of the heavily-armed _____ battleship reset the competition.

Q3. Describe the 'Two-Power Standard' and explain why Great Britain adhered to this strict naval policy. [p. 18]

Q4. Detail what the German Navy Laws of 1898 and 1900 explicitly ordered the German industrial shipyards to construct. [p. 19]

Q5. Explain how Admiral Tirpitz used the Navy League to manufacture civilian support and patriotism for Germany's expanding fleet. [p. 19]

Q6. Explain why maintaining a massive navy was a matter of survival for Great Britain, but was viewed as a matter of status and power for Germany. [p. 19]

Q7. Identify three specific technological features of HMS Dreadnought that made it superior to all previous warships. [p. 19]

Q8. Explain how the launching of HMS Dreadnought in 1906 represented an industrial turning point in the naval arms race, rather than maintaining the status quo. [p. 20]

Q9. Explain why the naval race between Britain and Germany damaged their relations.

Pair & Share Activity

Prompt: Who do you think was more to blame for the naval arms race: Germany for building a fleet they didn't strictly need, or Britain for refusing to share control of the seas?

Think: Decide who is more to blame and write down your main reason.

L5: Did the Alliance System protect Europe or guarantee a global war?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the members of the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente.
- ☐ Explain why countries felt the need to form secret defensive treaties.
- ☐ Evaluate how the alliance system could drag all of Europe into a regional conflict.

Source A : An American political cartoon from July 1914 showing the chain reaction of the European alliance system.

This cartoon vividly illustrates the terrifying domino effect of the European alliance system. Following the assassination in Sarajevo, the rigid network of treaties dragged all the major powers into war. Serbia is threatened by Austria-Hungary, who is threatened by Russia, who is threatened by Germany, and so on. The alliances, which were theoretically designed to prevent war by acting as a deterrent, instead acted as tripwires that guaranteed a localized dispute would instantly explode into a continent-wide conflict.

Q1. Study the intertwined hands and figures in this cartoon. What does it suggest about how a local conflict might spread?

Do Now Activity

THE BALKANS: 1914 (Simplified)

The map illustrates the Balkan region in 1914. The Ottoman Empire is shown in dark blue, occupying the southeastern part of the region. Serbia is highlighted in red, situated in the center. Austria-Hungary is colored orange, covering the northern and central parts. Other countries like Italy, Greece, Bulgaria, Romania, and the Russian Empire are shown in various shades of gray and light blue. The map also includes labels for the Adriatic Sea, Ionian Sea, Aegean Sea, Black Sea, and Constantinople. A legend in the bottom left corner identifies the colors: orange for Austria-Hungary, red for Serbia, and dark blue for the Ottoman Empire.

"Serbia is a viper that must be crushed. If we do not destroy them now, our empire will be torn apart by Slavic nationalism."
