STAFF SUPERVISORY PROTOCOL

Pupil count required at every coach departure and cemetery entrance. Dr Kirkup and Mrs Lushey lead sweep duties. In case of separation, designated pupil assembly point is the coach parking bay.

TOUR LEADER TALKING POINTS: THE LOWRY BROTHERS

Local Connection: Three sons of Arthur and Eleanor Lowry attended Stubbington House School. All three held commissions; their sacrifice spans Frezenberg, Passchendaele, and the interwar years.

Pedagogical Goal: Connect grand tactical movements to individual boys who walked our local paths. Point out that William has no grave, Cyril lies at Tyne Cot, and Eric lived with lifelong trauma.

Capt. William Lowry

2nd Bn, King's Own (Royal Lancaster)

Killed leading his company on Frezenberg Ridge, Second Ypres, 8 May 1915, aged 26.

Body never found in the pulverised crater field. Commemorated on Menin Gate Panel 12.

 Menin Gate (Panel 12)

Capt. Cyril Lowry

4th Bn, North Staffordshire Regt

Mortally wounded commanding front trenches at Zonnebeke, Passchendaele, 26 Sept 1917, aged 22.

Buried in Tyne Cot Cemetery. Staff to guide pupils to Plot LXII. D. 12.

 Tyne Cot (Plot LXII. D. 12)

Lt. Col. Eric Lowry

2nd Bn, Prince of Wales's Volunteers

Wounded twice; awarded Distinguished Service Order (DSO). Survived the war.

Continued serving in the regular army; bore the psychological burden of losing both brothers.

 Survived: DSO & MiD

Staff Action Points at Tyne Cot

1. Lead pupils from the main entrance along the central grass avenue directly to Plot LXII.
2. Gather students around Cyril's stone; allow a nominated cadet to read the family's memorial Latin inscription.
3. Emphasise that Eleanor Lowry lost two sons within two years in this same Flemish mud.

THE SIX VILLAGE FALLEN & BOY SOLDIERS

Staff Plot Guides & Case Study: Private Valentine Strudwick

STUBBINGTON FALLEN

Holy Rood Parish

The Holy Rood Memorial Roll

SOLDIER	REGIMENT / UNIT	SALIENT LOCATION

Cpl. Harry Freemantle	Royal Marine Artillery	Dunkirk / Ypres Coast

The Memorial Tablet inside Holy Rood Church, Stubbington.

Staff Note: Distribute local fallen cards to student pairs during coach journey from Boezinge. Each pair will locate their assigned soldier's panel on site.

TOUR LEADER TALKING POINTS: BOY SOLDIER VALENTINE STRUDWICK

Location: Essex Farm Cemetery, Plot I. U. 8 (facing canal bank).

The Story: Enlisted at 14 claiming he was 19; killed in action on 14 January 1916 aged 15 years and 11 months.

Teaching Cue: Ask students to stand around the grave. Compare Valentine's age to their own year group. Note the continuous flow of poppy tributes laid by visiting schools from across Britain.

Mother's Epitaph: "Not Gone From Memory, Not Gone From Love, But Gone To Our Father's Home Above."

Use this epitaph to discuss the profound human cost borne by working-class families who lost adolescent boys before they had ever reached adult life.

CWGC Portland Stone Headstone Dimensions: 81cm x 38cm x 7.5cm.

TOUR LEADER BRIEFING: HEADSTONE ANATOMY

1. Badge: Regimental heraldry; equality across officer and private.
2. Text: Service number, rank, name, honours, regiment.
3. Cross / Emblem: Latin Cross, Star of David, or left blank.
4. Age & Date: Average age in the Salient was 24.
5. Personal Inscription: Family-paid line (max 66 characters).
Highlight to pupils how diverse these are: religious, stoic, or heartbroken.

Unknowns: Kipling's phrase: "A Soldier of the Great War — Known Unto God."

TOUR LEADER SCRIPT: TOPOGRAPHY OF THE SALIENT

The Ridge: Stand with students looking east from Ypres. The land rises barely 45 metres towards Passchendaele, but in flat Flanders, that low ridge commanded complete artillery domination.

Converging Arcs: German batteries positioned along the arc could shell British rear areas from three directions. Reinforcements had to march into the bulge under continuous observation.

STAFF MANAGEMENT AT CEMETERIES

Remind students that these are active cemeteries. No running, no sitting on headstones, no shouting. Set a calm, contemplative tone upon disembarking the coach.

🔪 STOP 1 TOUR SCRIPT: ESSEX FARM ADS

Where We Stand: Concrete bunkers built into the Yser canal bank. An Advanced Dressing Station where Canadian surgeons triaged thousands during Second Ypres.

Alexis Helmer: On 2 May 1915, McCrae's 22-year-old friend was blown to pieces by an 8-inch shell. McCrae performed the burial by lantern light; next morning he sat on the ambulance step and composed In Flanders Fields.

Concrete dressing station bunkers dug into the canal embankment.

🔪 STOP 2 TOUR SCRIPT: YORKSHIRE TRENCH

Discovery: Unearthed in 1992 by amateur archaeologists ("The Diggers") in an industrial zone.

What to Notice: The wooden A-frames, fire-bays, deep dugout entrance (holding 200 men), and the shallow water table.

In Flanders Fields

Lt. Col. John McCrae (1872–1918) • Canadian AMC

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.*

🎯 TEACHER FIELD TASK AT ESSEX FARM

Prompt a designated student to read stanzas 1 and 2 of In Flanders Fields standing directly outside Bunker 4. Then lead the group to Plot I. U. 8 to observe Valentine Strudwick's headstone.

🔪 STOP 3 TOUR SCRIPT: LANGEMARCK & THE STUDENT MYTH

The Myth of Langemarck: In November 1914, German propaganda claimed raw student regiments charged singing "Deutschland über alles". In reality, poorly trained youths were mown down by experienced British rifle fire.

Kameradengrab (Comrades' Grave): 24,917 men buried in a single mass grave behind the oak gatehouse.

Contrast with CWGC: Dark German granite, low flat markers, somber oak canopy—capturing defeat, national mourning, and heavy grief compared to British radiant Portland stone.

When You See Millions of the Mouthless Dead

Charles Sorley (1895–1915) • Capt., 7th Suffolks

*When you see millions of the mouthless dead
Across your dreams in pale battalions go,
Say not soft things as other men have said,
That you'll remember. For you need not so.
Give them not praise. For, deaf, how should they know
It is not curses heaped on each gashed head?
Nor tears. Their blind eyes see not your tears flow.
Nor honour. It is easy to be dead.*

Pedagogical Cue: Emil Krieger Statues

Gather students at the rear boundary facing Emil Krieger's four mourning bronze figures. Note how they huddle together without martial glory or triumphalism.

Key Question: Why did the German state choose dark basalt over white limestone?

LOGISTICAL TRANSFER TO MESEN

Depart Langemarck at 17:30. Coach journey south to Peace Village Hostel in Mesen takes approx. 35 mins. Prepare pupils for room check-in and evening meal.

DAY 2 FIELD STUDY • GAS WARFARE & UNDERGROUND MINES

Stops 4 & 5 • Vancouver Corner & Hooze Crater • Tour Scripts

MENIN ROAD
Gas & Mine Warfare

STOP 4 TOUR SCRIPT: VANCOUVER CORNER

22 April 1915: The first lethal use of poison gas in history. 168 tons of chlorine released by German forces against French Algerian troops.

The Canadian Stand: Canadian troops held the gap for days by urinating on handkerchiefs to neutralise chlorine. Commemorated by the magnificent Brooding Soldier monument.

STOP 5 TOUR SCRIPT: HOOGE CRATER

Underground War: Tunnelling companies dug deep into blue Flemish clay to detonate ammonal charges beneath German trenches.

The Hooze Crater: Detonated on 19 July 1915 (1,700lb ammonal), creating a 120ft wide crater. First German flamethrower attack occurred here 11 days later.

Break of Day in the Trenches

Isaac Rosenberg (1890–1918) • Private, King's Own

*The darkness crumbles away.
It is the same old druid Time as ever,
Only a live thing leaps on my hand,
A queer, sardonic rat,
As I pull the parapet's poppy
To stick behind my ear.
Droll rat, they would shoot you if they knew
Your cosmopolitan sympathies...*

Hooze Crater site: Preserved mine craters and trench warfare lines.

LUNCH BREAK DIRECTIVES AT HOOGE

Eat packed lunches at the Hooze Crater Museum picnic area. Restroom break. Coach boards at 13:00 sharp for Tyne Cot Cemetery.

🔪 STOP 6 TOUR SCRIPT: THE SCALE OF TYNE COT

The Scale: Largest British war cemetery in the world. 11,961 burials (8,369 unidentified). Sir Herbert Baker built the Cross of Sacrifice directly atop a captured German machine gun bunker.

The Memorial Wall: 34,984 names of soldiers missing after 16 August 1917.

Pilgrimage: Guide pupils to Capt. Cyril Lowry (Plot LXII. D. 12) and Hampshire Regiment panels.

Cross of Sacrifice standing atop captured German bunker.

For the Fallen

Laurence Binyon (1869–1943) • British Museum

*With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea...
They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

Staff Coordination: Lowry Memorial

After Binyon recitation at the Cross of Sacrifice, lead pupils to Plot LXII. D. 12. Have student lay Meoncross wreath marker at Captain Cyril Lowry's stone.

Allow 25 mins personal reflective walk across the rows.

NEXT STOP: RAMPARTS CEMETERY & MENIN GATE

Board coach at 15:45. Drive to Ypres Lille Gate for Stop 7 (Ramparts Cemetery) and prepare for evening Last Post Ceremony at Menin Gate.

STOP 8 TOUR SCRIPT: THE MENIN GATE

54,395 Names: Inscribed with soldiers missing in the Salient prior to 16 August 1917. Designed by Sir Reginald Blomfield.

The Last Post Ceremony: Held every night at 20:00 without fail (except during WWII occupation). Buglers of the volunteer fire brigade sound the salute.

The Menin Gate Memorial: Inaugurated July 1927.

On Passing the New Menin Gate

Siegfried Sassoon (1886–1967) • Capt., Royal Welch Fusiliers

*Who will remember, passing through this Gate,
The unheroic Dead who fed the guns?
Who shall absolve the foulness of their fate,—
Those doomed, conscripted, unvictorious ones?...
Well might the Dead who struggled in the slime
Rise and deride this sepulchre of crime.*

Staff Wreath-Laying Protocol

19:30: Secure prime position on northern walkway under the arch.

19:50: Designated Meoncross wreath bearers escorted by staff to ceremonial marshalling area.

20:00: Last Post sounded; two-minute silence; official wreath laying.

Staff Lead: Mr Ben Lovett & Mr James Garrett

EVENING RETURN TO PEACE VILLAGE

Depart Menin Gate at 20:45. Arrive hostel 21:15. Evening drinks/cookies. Curfew and phone collection in corridor at 22:00 sharp.

The Cloth Hall, Ypres (1919): Watercolour by Scottish war artist Emily Murray Paterson RSW (1855–1934), painted on-site amidst the ruins after the Armistice (Imperial War Museum collection).

🔑 STOP 9 TOUR SCRIPT: THE REBIRTH OF YPRES

Total Destruction: By 1918, Ypres was rubble; Winston Churchill wanted the ruins left untouched as a sacred memorial. Instead, citizens rebuilt stone-for-stone.

The Lakenhalle: Built in 1304; rebuilt over 40 years. Inside is the In Flanders Fields Museum.

Talbot House Façade, Poperinge: The exterior façade on Gasthuisstraat, opened in December 1915 by Rev. Philip 'Tubby' Clayton as an unranked sanctuary for all soldiers behind the lines.

🔑 STOP 10 TOUR SCRIPT: TALBOT HOUSE (TOC H)

The Haven Behind the Lines: In Dec 1915, Army Chaplain Rev. Philip 'Tubby' Clayton opened this house in Poperinge as an alternative to pubs and brothels.

"Abandon all rank that enter here": Officers and privates drank tea from the same mugs and played the same piano.

The Upper Room: Climb the creaking stairs to the hop-loft chapel. A carpenter's bench served as the altar.

The Soldier

Rupert Brooke (1887–1915) · Sub-Lieutenant, Royal Naval Division

*If I should die, think only this of me:
That there's some corner of a foreign field
That is for ever England. There shall be
In that rich earth a richer dust concealed;
A dust whom England bore, shaped, made aware,
Gave, once, her flowers to love, her ways to roam;
A body of England's, breathing English air,
Washed by the rivers, blest by suns of home.*
