LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Understand how Otto von Bismarck used 'blood and iron' to unify the German states.
- ☐ Analyze the geographical impact of the new German Empire on the balance of power in Europe.

- ☐ Understand how Otto von Bismarck used 'blood and iron' to unify the German states.
 - ☐ Analyze the geographical impact of the new German Empire on the balance of power in Europe.

Source A : Map of the German Empire vs Modern Germany

Q1. Look at the A4 map provided. Why might the geographical location of the new German Empire cause fear for both Germany and its neighbors?

Q2. Interpreting 'Blood and Iron'. In your own words, explain what Otto von Bismarck meant when he said Germany would be united by 'blood and iron'. How did Prussia use its industrial and military power to prove Bismarck's speech right between 1864 and 1871?

[illegible]

Q3. The Steps to Unification. Create a three-step staircase diagram in your book to show how Bismarck built the German Empire. For each step, write down: 1. The name of the country Prussia defeated. 2. The year of the war. 3. How this war helped Prussia achieve its ultimate goal of unification.

Q4. undefined

L2: How did the Franco-Prussian War create a lasting legacy of hatred?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the penalties forced upon France in 1871.
- ☐ Explain how the Ems Telegram sparked the Franco-Prussian War.
- ☐ Evaluate the long-term impact on European relations.

Source A : Anton von Werner, 'The Proclamation of the German Empire at Versailles', painted in 1885.

What is this source showing? This painting depicts the official birth of the unified German Empire inside the Hall of Mirrors at the Palace of Versailles in 1871. France was defeated and forced to host this ceremony in its own royal palace. This created a deep, lasting feeling of humiliation and anger in France, leading to a desire for revenge (revanche) that would eventually help spark WWI.*

Q1. What are the two opposing figures doing in this 1871 painting by Anton von Werner, and why is this event significant?

1. Looking at this long-term timeline, which factor do you think was the most dangerous necessary cause of the war?

Vocabulary Check

Write a historically accurate sentence connecting two terms from the glossary box below.

Alsace-Lorraine | Ems Telegram | Reparations | Siege

Your Sentence:

Q3. To what extent did the maps of central Europe fundamentally change prior to 1871? Use the term "North German Confederation" in your answer.

Q4. Describe the diplomatic trick Chancellor Otto von Bismarck used to manufacture a war with France in 1870.

Q5. Identify two distinct military advantages that allowed the Prussian-led German army to quickly defeat the conventional French forces.

Q6. List the three severe penalties forced upon France by the victorious German Empire in the 1871 peace treaty.

Q7. Explain why the loss of Alsace-Lorraine and the ceremony at Versailles created a long-term "nightmare" for European peace.

Pair & Share Activity

Prompt: Of the three penalties forced upon France in the 1871 treaty (loss of land, 5 billion franc fine, German occupation), which do you think caused the most bitter resentment, and why?

Think: Jot down your choice and one strong reason to support it.

Your Notes:

Writing Practice

Q8. Evaluate how the change in leadership from Bismarck to Kaiser Wilhelm II fundamentally altered Germany's strategic position in Europe.

the reasons for French hatred of Germany after 1871

"We must never forget the humiliation of 1871. The German Empire was proclaimed in our own Palace of Versailles, tearing away the bleeding wounds of Alsace and Lorraine. They have stolen our iron and our factories, and forced us to pay a crushing ransom of 5 billion francs. Every French child must grow up with one single thought: to rebuild our army and take back what was stolen from the motherland."

Source A: Adapted from a French school textbook, published in Paris, 1885.

"France will never forgive us for taking Alsace-Lorraine. The peace we have forced upon them has left a bitter resentment that will not fade. We must accept that a French war of revenge is a certainty in the future. Therefore, our entire diplomatic focus must be to ensure she never finds an ally to help her take it back. As long as France remains diplomatically isolated, particularly from Russia, Germany will remain secure."

Source B: Adapted from a private letter written by German Chancellor Otto von Bismarck to a fellow diplomat, 1872.

L3: To what extent did the 'Scramble for Africa' increase tension in Europe?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the main European colonial powers and their territories.
- ☐ Explain how Kaiser Wilhelm II's 'Place in the Sun' policy threatened Britain.
- ☐ Evaluate the impact of the Moroccan Crises on the Entente Cordiale.

Source A : John Tenniel, 'The Greedy Boy', a British political cartoon published in Punch Magazine, 1885.

What is this source showing? This British cartoon satirizes Germany's Chancellor Otto von Bismarck as a "greedy boy" grabbing slices of a pudding that represents colonial territories in Africa and New Guinea. This reflects British anxiety and suspicion about Germany's aggressive efforts to build a global empire, which threatened Britain's status as the world's leading power.

Vocabulary Check

Write a clear definition and a historically accurate sentence for the term: Imperialism

Q3. Explain two distinct economic reasons why possessing overseas colonies was vital to the industrial growth of a Great Power.

Q4. Why did French politicians feel it was absolutely vital to maintain a firm hold on their remaining global colonies after 1871?

Q5. Explain how Germany's sudden desire to build a naval fleet to protect its new colonies acted as a cause of friction with Great Britain.

Q6. What specific geographical territory did Foreign Secretary Bernhard von Bülow target when he demanded a "place in the sun" for Germany? (P3 & P4)

Pair & Share Activity

Prompt: If you were a British politician in 1897, would you view Kaiser Wilhelm's 'Place in the Sun' speech as a direct threat, or just a young leader showing off? Why?

Think: Jot down your view and one piece of evidence.

L4: Why did a battleship building contest destroy Anglo-German relations?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the significance of the HMS Dreadnought.
- ☐ Explain the concept of the Two-Power Standard and Risk Theory.
- ☐ Analyze how naval competition fed mutual suspicion.

Source A : Official technical blueprint showing the design and armament of HMS Dreadnought, published in 1906.

What is this source showing? This is a technical naval diagram of HMS Dreadnought, a revolutionary British battleship launched in 1906. It was so fast and heavily armed that it instantly made all existing warships in the world obsolete (useless). This triggered a frantic naval arms race between Britain and Germany, as both countries rushed to build as many Dreadnoughts as possible.

Q1. This blueprint represents the HMS Dreadnought. Why would this ship make all other navies obsolete?

Vocabulary Check

Fill in the blanks using the vocabulary words below.

Dreadnought | Arms Race | Two-Power Standard | Naval Supremacy

Britain's traditional _____ was challenged when Germany began a rapid naval buildup. This sparked a fierce _____ between the two nations. Britain relied on the _____ to maintain a massive fleet, but the invention of the heavily-armed _____ battleship reset the competition.

Q3. Describe the 'Two-Power Standard' and explain why Great Britain adhered to this strict naval policy.

Q4. Detail what the German Navy Laws of 1898 and 1900 explicitly ordered the German industrial shipyards to construct.

Q5. Explain how Admiral Tirpitz used the Navy League to manufacture civilian support and patriotism for Germany's expanding fleet.

Q6. Explain why maintaining a massive navy was a matter of survival for Great Britain, but was viewed as a matter of status and power for Germany. (P1 & P2)

Q7. Identify three specific technological features of HMS Dreadnought that made it superior to all previous warships.

Q8. Explain how the launching of HMS Dreadnought in 1906 represented an industrial turning point in the naval arms race, rather than maintaining the status quo. (P4 & P8)

Pair & Share Activity

Prompt: Who do you think was more to blame for the naval arms race: Germany for building a fleet they didn't strictly need, or Britain for refusing to share control of the seas?

Think: Decide who is more to blame and write down your main reason.

L5: Did the Alliance System protect Europe or guarantee a global war?

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the members of the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente.
- ☐ Explain why countries felt the need to form secret defensive treaties.
- ☐ Evaluate how the alliance system could drag all of Europe into a regional conflict.

Source A : 'The Chain of Friendship', an American cartoon published in the Brooklyn Eagle, July 1914.

What is this source showing? This cartoon shows how the complex web of alliances dragged all the European powers into war. Serbia is threatened by Austria, who is threatened by Russia, who is threatened by Germany, and so on.

Q1. Study the intertwined hands and figures in this map. What does it suggest about how a local conflict might spread?

Triple Entente | Triple Alliance | Reinsurance Treaty | Encirclement

Your Sentence:

Q2. Enquiry: Look at the geographical position of Germany and Austria-Hungary. Why would they feel encircled by the Triple Entente?

Q4. Identify the specific member countries that made up the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente by 1907.

Q5. Explain the diplomatic logic of how the alliance system was theoretically supposed to keep European nations safe from a outbreak of war.

Q6. According to Germany's military leaders, explain why a European war was considered "inevitable and necessary" rather than avoidable.

Q7. Detail how the massive expansion of steel production and railway tracks across Europe altered the speed and scale of army mobilization.

Q8. Explain how the transformation of Europe into two "armed camps" by 1914 represented a dangerous change in international relations compared to the traditional balance of power.

Pair & Share Activity

Prompt: Imagine you are an ordinary Serbian citizen in 1908. Why would Austria-Hungary's aggressive takeover of Bosnia make you feel personally threatened?

Think: Write down how you would feel and why.

THE BALKANS: 1914 (Simplified)

This map illustrates the political landscape of the Balkans in 1914. The legend identifies three main entities: Austria-Hungary (orange), Serbia (red), and the Ottoman Empire (dark blue). The map shows Serbia's expansion into territories previously held by the Ottoman Empire, specifically in the region of Kosovo and Macedonia. Other countries shown include Romania, Bulgaria, Greece, Albania, Italy, and Russia. The Black Sea, Adriatic Sea, and Aegean Sea are also labeled. The city of Constantinople is marked on the Ottoman Empire's coast.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Identify the events of 28 June 1914.
- ☐ Explain how the assassination triggered the alliance system.
- ☐ Analyze whether the resulting war was inevitable or accidental.

Source A : Leonard Raven-Hill, 'The Boiling Point', a British political cartoon published in Punch Magazine, 1912.

What is this source showing? This famous cartoon represents the Balkans region as a boiling pot of ethnic and nationalistic tensions. The leaders of the European Great Powers (Britain, Germany, France, Russia, Austria-Hungary) are shown sitting on the lid, struggling to prevent the pot from exploding into a major European war.

Q1. Look at the men sitting on the 'Balkan Troubles' pot. What are they desperately trying to prevent?
