LIVING TIMELINE • PART 1: IMPERIAL PLEDGES, INSURGENCY & PARTITION (1917–1947)

Instructions: As you study each enquiry lesson, complete the timeline missions by sketching and annotating in the corresponding Key Topic boxes below.

NOV 1917 • The Balfour Declaration & Contradictory British Promises

Key Topic 1.1

British Foreign Secretary Arthur Balfour writes to Lord Rothschild promising British support for the establishment of a "national home for the Jewish people" in Palestine. This directly contradicts Britain's 1915 pledge to Sharif Hussein of Mecca and the secret 1916 Sykes-Picot Agreement dividing the Middle East with France.

JULY 1946 • The Bombing of the King David Hotel, Jerusalem

Key Topic 1.2

Disguised as milkmen, militants from the Zionist paramilitary group Irgun, led by Menachem Begin, detonate 350kg of explosives in the basement of the King David Hotel. The blast collapses the entire south-west wing housing British military headquarters, killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish staff.

NOV 1947 • UN Resolution 181 (The Palestine Partition Plan)

Key Topic 1.3

The United Nations General Assembly votes 33 to 13 to terminate the British Mandate and partition Palestine into separate Arab and Jewish states, with Jerusalem placed under international trusteeship (Corpus Separatum). The Jewish Agency accepts; all Arab nations reject the plan, triggering civil war.

LIVING TIMELINE • PART 2: STATEHOOD, THE NAKBA & THE SUEZ CRISIS (1948–1956)

Instructions: Complete sketches and dual-coding annotations for the war of independence, the displacement of Palestinians, and the 1956 Suez Crisis.

MAY 1948 • Declaration of Independence & The 1948–49 Arab-Israeli War

Key Topic 1.3

On 14 May 1948, David Ben-Gurion proclaims the State of Israel as British forces complete their evacuation. The next day, five Arab states (Egypt, Transjordan, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon) invade. Israel survives initial assaults, re-arms during the June UN truce via Czechoslovakia, and signs armistices along the 1949 Green Line.

1948–1950 • The Palestinian Refugee Crisis (Al-Nakba) & Law of Return

Key Topic 1.4

Approximately 700,000 Palestinian Arabs are displaced into permanent exile (Al-Nakba), supported by the newly formed UNRWA in Gaza, the West Bank, Lebanon, and Syria. Simultaneously, Israel passes the 1950 Law of Return, absorbing over 680,000 Holocaust survivors and Mizrahi Jewish refugees from Arab lands.

OCT–NOV 1956 • The Suez Crisis & The Protocol of Sèvres

Key Topic 1.5

Following Nasser's nationalisation of the Suez Canal, Britain, France, and Israel secretly sign the Protocol of Sèvres. Israel invades the Sinai on 29 October; Britain and France intervene to "separate the combatants" and seize the canal. US financial ultimatums force a humiliating Anglo-French withdrawal, leaving UNEF peacekeepers in Sinai.

Why did conflicting British wartime promises make conflict in Palestine inevitable?

Key Topic 1.1: Imperial Origins, Conflicting Promises & Mandate Tensions (1915–1945)

Key Specification Focus: Conflicting interests and demands of Jews and Arabs within the British Mandate; the McMahon-Hussein Correspondence (1915), the secret Sykes-Picot Agreement (1916), the Balfour Declaration (1917), and the 1939 British White Paper.

4. Which ancient city is holy to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, and claimed by both peoples?

5. Which collapsing empire ruled the Middle East for over 400 years until its defeat in World War One?

6. What international organisation, established in 1919, granted Britain the Mandate for Palestine?

7. What political movement, founded by Theodor Herzl in 1897, campaigned for a Jewish national homeland?

8. What political ideology sought self-determination and political independence for Arab populations?

9. What secret 1916 agreement between Britain and France used straight lines to carve up the Middle East?

10. What 1939 British government policy paper severely restricted Jewish immigration into Palestine to 75,000 over five years?

• KEY VOCABULARY

HISTORICAL TERMINOLOGY

Explain the fundamental historical distinction between Zionism and Arab Nationalism. Why did both movements consider the land of Palestine their rightful national territory, and why did this make peaceful compromise under the British Mandate nearly impossible?

• QUESTION 1(A): EXPLAIN ONE CONSEQUENCE [4 MARKS]

[4 MARKS • 5 MINS]

Explain one consequence of the Balfour Declaration (November 1917).

PFC Guidance: Identify a clear consequence (e.g. Arab sense of betrayal or international legitimisation of a Jewish homeland), cite specific factual detail, and explain its long-term impact on tensions in Palestine.

Sentence Stems: One consequence of the Balfour Declaration was... Specifically, Foreign Secretary Arthur Balfour promised... This directly resulted in Arab opposition because...

• QUESTION 1(B): EXPLAIN ONE CONSEQUENCE [4 MARKS]

[4 MARKS • 5 MINS]

Explain one consequence of the British White Paper of 1939.

PFC Guidance: Explain how limiting Jewish immigration to 75,000 over five years alienated Jewish leaders during the Holocaust and triggered armed resistance against British rule.

Sentence Stems: One consequence of the 1939 White Paper was... In particular, Britain restricted... Consequently, the Jewish community (Yishuv) felt betrayed and...

Question 2: Narrative Account [8 marks • 12 mins]

EXTENDED WRITING ASSESSMENT • 8 MARKS

Write a narrative account analysing how British wartime diplomacy and policy between 1915 and 1923 created long-term conflict in Palestine. [8 marks]

You may use the following in your answer: • The McMahon-Hussein Correspondence (1915) • The Balfour Declaration (1917) • You must also use information of your own.

1. PHASE 1: CONTRADICTORY PLEDGES

Explain McMahon's 1915 pledge to Sharif Hussein vs the 1917 Balfour Declaration pledging a Jewish national home.

2. PHASE 2: SECRET IMPERIAL CARVE-UP

Explain the 1916 Sykes-Picot Agreement carving up Ottoman lands and Arab outrage at perceived imperial betrayal.

3. PHASE 3: THE MANDATE & CLASHES

Explain League of Nations Mandate (1922), Churchill White Paper, and early Arab-Jewish friction in Jerusalem.

ANALYTICAL CONNECTIVES:

The conflict originated during WWI when Britain... • In direct reaction, Arab forces launched... • Crucially, contradictory promises emerged because... • Consequently, when the League of Nations ratified... • This fundamentally altered relations because... • Ultimately, this resulted in unresolvable conflict because...

Question 3: Explain the Importance [8 marks • 12 mins]

EXTENDED WRITING ASSESSMENT • 8 MARKS

Explain the importance of the bombing of the King David Hotel (July 1946) for the British decision to withdraw from Palestine. [8 marks]

Structure across two distinct analytical aspects: • Destruction of British Military HQ & Security Breakdown • Domestic Economic Exhaustion & Handover to the UN

1. POINT 1: SECURITY BREAKDOWN

Explain how the 91 casualties and destruction of British Secretariat/HQ in Jerusalem shattered security control and proved the Mandate was ungovernable.

2. POINT 2: DOMESTIC CRISIS

Detail British post-WWII bankruptcy, 100,000 garrison costs, and the public outcry to "bring our boys home" following Sergeant executions.

3. EVALUATIVE SUMMARY: UN REFERRAL

Assess why Foreign Secretary Bevin concluded Britain could not reconcile Zionist and Arab demands, forcing the February 1947 handover to UNSCOP.

ANALYTICAL CONNECTIVES:

This was of paramount importance because... • Specifically, the bombing destroyed... • Furthermore, British public opinion hardened when... • Crucially, maintaining 100,000 troops cost... • Consequently, Prime Minister Attlee decided to... • Ultimately, this was important because it made British withdrawal inevitable.

- Superpower Intervention: US President Eisenhower forced Allied withdrawal via financial pressure; UNEF deployed to Sinai.

CARTOGRAPHIC DISCIPLINARY INSIGHT: HOW DID BORDERS & STRATEGIC MARITIME CHOKEPOINTS FUEL CONFLICT?

The armistice boundaries of 1949 created extreme strategic vulnerability: Israel's coastal waist near Tel Aviv was only 9 miles wide, while over 700,000 displaced Palestinians were confined to crowded refugee enclaves in Gaza and the West Bank without sovereignty. Simultaneously, critical maritime waterways—the Suez Canal and the Straits of Tiran at Sharm el-Sheikh—became geopolitical flashpoints. Nasser's blockade of Israeli shipping directly precipitated the 1956 invasion, demonstrating how geography and maritime access dictated the rhythm of regional warfare.

1. THE PFC ANALYTICAL FORMULA (Q1 CONSEQUENCE [4 MARKS])

STRICT 5-MINUTE EXAM TARGET

[P] POINT

Directly state the consequence using exact question phrasing.

[F] FACT

Provide precise historical evidence (exact dates, figures, casualties, names).

[C] CONSEQUENCE

Explain the long-term causal impact on regional tension or conflict.

2. HIGH-YIELD CAUSAL CONNECTIVES & BAND 4 EVALUATIVE CRITERIA

Analytical Causal Connectives:

- "Consequently, this fundamentally shifted..."
- "In direct reaction to this humiliation, Nasser..."
- "Crucially, this created an unresolvable deadlock because..."
- "This directly resulted in the military turning point whereby..."

Band 4 Evaluative Criteria Prompts:

- Scale & Permanence: Did this alter borders permanently (e.g. 1949 Green Line)?
- Superpower Influence: How did US or Soviet intervention dictate the outcome?
- Demographic Impact: How did displacement (Nakba) prevent diplomatic recognition?
- Strategic Supremacy: How did military factors overpower political agreements?

3. ANNOTATED GRADE 9 MODEL ANSWER • Q3: EXPLAIN IMPORTANCE [8 MARKS]

EXAMINER MARKS: 8/8 (BAND 4)

Question: Explain the importance of the bombing of the King David Hotel (July 1946) for the British decision to withdraw from Palestine.

Aspect 1 (Military & Administrative Destruction): The bombing of the King David Hotel on 22 July 1946 was of paramount importance because it directly crippled British military and civil administration in Mandatory Palestine. Militants from Menachem Begin's Irgun smuggled 350kg of explosives into the basement disguised as milk churns, detonating the entire south-west wing and killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish staff. Crucially, this eradicated the central archives, intelligence registries, and senior command infrastructure of the British Secretariat. Consequently, the British army was forced into defensive, fortified enclaves ("Bevingrads"), demonstrating that Britain could no longer maintain basic law and order against determined Jewish insurgent militias.

Aspect 2 (Domestic Political & Financial Exhaustion): Furthermore, the bombing was decisively important in shattering British political resolve at home. Prime Minister Clement Attlee's postwar Labour government was financially bankrupt, rationing bread, and struggling under £3 billion of wartime debt while deploying 100,000 soldiers to Palestine. The public spectacle of British soldiers dying in a thankless imperial conflict triggered ferocious parliamentary and media backlash, crystallised by the execution of two British intelligence sergeants in retaliation for Irgun hangings in 1947. In direct reaction to this unsustainable financial drain and domestic fury, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin announced in February 1947 that Britain would abandon the Mandate and surrender the entire problem to the United Nations without enforcing a partition.

• Detailed historical facts: 22 July 1946, 350kg TNT, 91 deaths, Menachem Begin, 100,000 troops.

• Analytical focus: Direct link to Attlee's February 1947 UN surrender.
