

undefined

KNOWLEDGE RECALL QUIZ PACK

1. Q1: Under the pre-1832 British electoral system, what term described depopulated geographic areas (such as Old Sarum) that still sent two MPs to Parliament?

- ☐ A Rotten boroughs (constituencies with almost no voters but disproportionate parliamentary representation)
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

2. Q2: Name the two distinct suffrage organizations that campaigned for female voting rights in early 20th-century Britain, specifying which was militant.

- ☐ A The National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies (NUWSS / Suffragists) led by Millicent Fawcett (peaceful/legal), and the Women's Social and Political Union (WSPU / Suffragettes) led by Emmeline Pankhurst (militant/illegal).
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

3. Q3: Define the core Victorian middle-class ideology of 'Separate Spheres' (or the 'Angel in the House') that restricted women to domestic life.

- ☐ A The belief that a respectable woman's place was strictly inside the home to please her husband and raise children, sheltered from the corrupting influence of public and professional life.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

4. Q4: Explain why European empires viewed control over territories like Egypt's Suez Canal as vital to maintaining global geopolitical dominance.

- ☐ A The canal was a vital shipping gateway that connected Britain to its empire in India and secured access to Persian oil supplies, which were needed to fuel modern naval warships.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

5. Q5: Rearrange these three constitutional milestones in the correct chronological order: The Equal Franchise Act, The Great Reform Act, The Representation of the People Act.

- ☐ A The Great Reform Act (1832) → The Representation of the People Act (1918) → The Equal Franchise Act (1928).
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

6. Q6: When evaluating a contemporary historical source, why must a historian examine its 'provenance' (nature, origin, purpose) rather than just its literal content?

- ☐ A To understand its limitations, bias, and reliability. Literal content can be faked, staged, or intended as propaganda; analyzing why, when, and by whom a source was constructed reveals its true historical utility.
- ☐ B Option B
- ☐ C Option C
- ☐ D Option D

7. Define: HMS Dreadnought

- ☐ A Which battleship, launched by Great Britain in 1906, revolutionized naval design and triggered a massive European arms race?
- ☐ B A different historical term
- ☐ C An incorrect definition
- ☐ D None of the above

8. Define: Bosnia and Herzegovina

- ☐ A Which province did Austria-Hungary annex in 1908, deeply angering Serbian nationalists?
- ☐ B A different historical term
- ☐ C An incorrect definition
- ☐ D None of the above

9. Define: Colonel Dragutin Dimitrijevic ('Apis')

- ☐ A Who was the leader of the radical Pan-Serbian secret society known as the Black Hand?
- ☐ B A different historical term
- ☐ C An incorrect definition
- ☐ D None of the above

10. Define: 1.1 million

- ☐ A Approximately how many British men voluntarily enlisted in the military during the first twelve months of World War I?
- ☐ B A different historical term
- ☐ C An incorrect definition
- ☐ D None of the above

11. Define: Pals' Battalions

- ☐ A Why did the 'Pals' Battalions prove to be a devastating experiment for local British communities?
- ☐ B A different historical term
- ☐ C An incorrect definition
- ☐ D None of the above