L6: How much did Britain change between 1945 and 2000? (Synthesis & Assessment)

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Review the major chronological milestones of post-war Britain.
- ☐ Categorize evidence into themes of progress and decline.
- ☐ Construct a 16-mark synthesis essay evaluating the extent of change.

Chronological Domino Flowchart

Task: The historical events below are out of order. Read them carefully, then use your pen to draw arrows connecting the boxes in the correct chronological and causal order (Event A → Event B → Event C...).

Vocabulary Check

Write a clear definition and a historically accurate sentence for the term: Synthesis

To conclude this unit, you will write a 16-mark synthesis essay answering the core enquiry: 'How much did Britain change between 1945 and 2000?' You must evaluate both the massive social progress (Welfare State, multiculturalism, civil rights) and the significant declines (loss of Empire, deindustrialisation).

Q1 Assessment Planner: Structure your argument before you write your final essay. Plan one paragraph for Social Progress, one for Imperial Decline, and one for Economic Restructuring.

| Paragraph Theme | Evidence (Historical Facts) | Explanation (Extent of Change) |
|-----------------|-----------------------------|--------------------------------|
|                 |                             |                                |
|                 |                             |                                |
|                 |                             |                                |

Q2. How much did Britain change between 1945 and 2000? Evaluate the extent of social, economic, and political transformation.
