Vocabulary Check

Fill in the blanks using the vocabulary words below.

Stagflation | Shuttle Diplomacy | Sinai II Agreement | Likud | Camp David Accords | Treaty of Washington

In the years following the Yom Kippur War, Henry Kissinger utilized exhaustive [.] to mediate initial disengagements like the [.] between Israel and its neighbors. A major political shift occurred in Israel with the election of the right-wing [.] party, led by Menachem Begin. Despite Begin's hardline stance, intense negotiations with Egypt led to the historic [.] in 1978. This framework ultimately resulted in the 1979 [.], marking the first formal peace treaty between Israel and an Arab nation amidst an era of global economic [.] influenced by [.].

Q2. How did Henry Kissinger's 'shuttle diplomacy' and the Sinai Disengagement Agreements (1974–75) lay the foundation for peace between Egypt and Israel?

Q3. Study Source B. Why was US President Jimmy Carter's personal mediation at Camp David indispensable in brokering a compromise between Menachem Begin and Anwar Sadat?

Q4. What historic gamble did Anwar Sadat take on 19 November 1977, and why did it break the diplomatic deadlock?

Q5. Study Source C. Using the map, explain why Israeli withdrawal from the Sinai Peninsula and guaranteed free passage through the Strait of Tiran were the twin territorial cornerstones of the Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty.

Q6. Outline the key compromises made by Menachem Begin and Anwar Sadat during the 13 days of secret negotiations at Camp David (1978).

Q7. Study Source D. How did the signing of the peace treaty transform regional alliances, and why did it lead directly to Egypt's suspension from the Arab League and the assassination of Sadat?

Q8. Why did the 1979 Washington Peace Treaty lead to Egypt's expulsion from the Arab League and the assassination of Anwar Sadat in 1981?

WRITTEN CONSOLIDATION & RECALL

Recall & Analysis

Q9. Was Anwar Sadat's decision to sign a separate peace treaty with Israel a heroic act of statesmanship or a fatal betrayal of the Arab world?

Guidance: Consider how the treaty recovered 100% of Egyptian land and ended 30 years of catastrophic wars, but isolated Egypt from its Arab allies.

SENTENCE STARTERS:

- Sadat's decision was a courageous act of statesmanship because it successfully restored the entire Sinai Peninsula and...
- On the other hand, Arab critics regarded it as a betrayal because it broke Arab solidarity and left Palestinians...
- Ultimately, Sadat paid with his life because extremist factions within Egypt believed that compromising with Israel was...

GCSE Exam Practice

Q10. Explain one consequence of the 1979 Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty (Treaty of Washington) for Egypt's position in the Arab world.

[4 marks • 5 mins]

EXAM STRUCTURE STRIP: THE 3-STEP PEE FORMULA (POINT, EVIDENCE, EXPLANATION)	EDEXCEL PAPER 2
Write exactly 1 focused analytical paragraph (approx. 5 minutes). Do NOT write an introduction, conclusion, or a second consequence. [P] Point (Consequence): State ONE clear, valid consequence of the Camp David Accords (1978) and the Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty (1979) directly addressing the geopolitical balance of the Middle East. [E] Evidence (Contextual Detail): Deploy precise historical facts (names, dates, treaties, or figures) from 1978–1981 to prove what happened. [E] Explanation (Causal Impact): Explain the lasting causal effect on Arab-Jewish relations or regional geopolitics using causal connectives. Sentence Starters: • "One consequence of the 1979 Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty was the total diplomatic and political isolation of Egypt within the Arab world." • "For example, following the treaty signing on the White House lawn, the Arab League immediately suspended Egypt's membership, moved its headquarters from Cairo to Tunis, and severed diplomatic relations." • "As a direct result of neutralizing Egypt—historically the largest and most powerful Arab military force—Israel was freed from the strategic nightmare of facing a multi-front war, which consequently provoked fury among radical Islamists and culminated in the assassination of Anwar Sadat in October 1981." Causal Connectives: As a direct result • Consequently • This led directly to • Because of this • This meant that • Crucially

EXIT TICKET: SPOT THE HISTORICAL IMPOSTER

EXIT TICKET · TWO TRUTHS & ONE FALLACY

Identify the IMPOSTER among these three statements regarding the 1982 Lebanon War:

- Statement A: Israeli Defense Minister Ariel Sharon sent troops far beyond the declared 40-kilometer buffer zone to lay siege to Beirut and expel Yasser Arafat's PLO leadership to Tunisia.
- Statement B: The Sabra and Shatila massacres were carried out directly by Israeli soldiers following an explicit order from Prime Minister Menachem Begin.
- Statement C: The official Israeli Kahan Commission found Ariel Sharon bore "personal responsibility" for failing to prevent the massacre, forcing his resignation as Defense Minister.

Teacher Guidance: Task: Identify the false statement (Statement B: the massacre was committed by Christian Phalangist militiamen, though Israeli forces encircled the camps) and write the correction.

Pupil Response:

L2: KT 3.2: The Palestinian Issue: Lebanon, Sabra & Shatila, and the First Intifada, 1974–1993

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- ☐ Understand Arafat's speech to the UN (1974) and the significance of PLO activities in Lebanon.
- ☐ Analyze Israeli reprisals, the invasion of Lebanon (1982) and the results.
- ☐ Evaluate the situation in the Israeli occupied territories and the First Palestinian Intifada (1987–93).

Q1. Study Source A. Why did Defence Minister Ariel Sharon push the Israeli military invasion all the way to Beirut, and why did the siege provoke intense domestic and international opposition?

PAPER 2

Write exactly 3 logically connected chronological paragraphs (approx. 10–12 minutes). You MUST use both stimulus points PLUS at least one development from your own knowledge. Show HOW each event directly triggered the next.

[1] The Beginning (Catalyst & Origin): Explain how cross-border fedayeen raids provoked Israel's full-scale invasion of Lebanon in June 1982 ('Operation Peace for Galilee') (Stimulus: 1982 Lebanon invasion).

[2] The Middle (Causal Turning Point): Explain the decisive turning point of the siege of Beirut, the expulsion of the PLO leadership to Tunisia, and the international outcry over the Sabra and Shatila massacres (Own Knowledge).

[3] The End (Culmination & Resolution): Explain the culmination: the explosion of the grassroots First Intifada in December 1987 in Gaza and the West Bank, which forced both Israel and the PLO to reconsider diplomacy (Stimulus: First Intifada 1987).

Sentence Starters:

- "The crisis was initiated in June 1982 when Israeli Defence Minister Ariel Sharon launched 'Operation Peace for Galilee', sending 76,000 troops across the border to destroy PLO bases in southern Lebanon and drive all the way to Beirut."
- "A decisive turning point occurred in September 1982 following the expulsion of Arafat and 14,000 PLO fighters to Tunisia, when Lebanese Christian Phalangist militias massacred between 800 and 3,500 Palestinian civilians in the Sabra and Shatila refugee camps while the IDF surrounded the perimeter, provoking immense international condemnation."
- "This protracted displacement culminated in December 1987 when spontaneous grassroots frustration exploded into the First Intifada in Gaza and the West Bank, where unarmed youths confronting armed soldiers with stones shattered Israel's international standing and created the urgent political necessity for the Oslo peace talks."

Causal Connectives: The crisis was initiated when • This directly triggered • A decisive turning point occurred when • Consequently • As a direct consequence • This situation culminated in

PAPER 2

Write exactly 2 analytical PEEL paragraphs (approx. 10–12 minutes). Divide your analysis into (1) Immediate / Short-Term Importance and (2) Long-Term / Strategic Significance. Always explain the difference the Oslo I Accord (Declaration of Principles, 1993) made for the Israeli-Palestinian peace process.

[P1] Immediate / Short-Term Importance: Explain how Oslo I broke the 45-year existential deadlock through historic mutual recognition between Israel and the PLO and the creation of the Palestinian Authority.

[P2] Long-Term / Strategic Transformation: Explain how the deferral of permanent status issues (Jerusalem, refugees, borders, settlements) enabled extremist sabotage, culminating in the assassination of Yitzhak Rabin in 1995.

Sentence Starters:

- "In the short term, the Oslo I Accord of September 1993 was of revolutionary importance because it achieved historic mutual recognition between the State of Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization, breaking a 45-year existential deadlock."
- "This was demonstrated by the iconic handshake between Yitzhak Rabin and Yasser Arafat on the White House lawn, followed by the establishment of the Palestinian National Authority (PNA) to govern Gaza and Jericho."
- "In the long term, however, Oslo's deliberate decision to postpone permanent status issues—namely the sovereignty of Jerusalem, the right of return for refugees, and Jewish settlement expansion—fatally undermined the peace process."

Causal Connectives: In the short term, the Oslo I Accord (Declaration of Principles, 1993) was of decisive importance for the Israeli-Palestinian peace process because • This was demonstrated when • In the long term, this fundamentally altered • Crucially, the strategic impact was that • Ultimately, the significance of the Oslo I Accord (Declaration of Principles, 1993) for the Israeli-Palestinian peace process was that
