WRITTEN CONSOLIDATION & RECALL

Recall & Analysis

Q12. Was Israel justified in launching Operation Focus on 5 June 1967? Explain one reason supporting Israel's decision, and one reason criticising it.

Guidance: Consider Nasser's provocative actions in May 1967 (closing the Straits of Tiran and ordering UN peacekeepers out) versus the fact that Israel struck first and destroyed Egypt's air force before any Arab invasion began.

SENTENCE STARTERS:

- Israel argued the pre-emptive strike was justified self-defence because...
- On the other hand, Arab states argued Israel was guilty of unprovoked aggression because...

Pupil Response:

GCSE Exam Practice

Q13. Explain one consequence of Egypt closing the Straits of Tiran to Israeli shipping in May 1967.

[4 marks • 5 mins]

EXAM STRUCTURE STRIP: THE 3-STEP PEE FORMULA (POINT, EVIDENCE, EXPLANATION)

EDEXCEL PAPER
2

Write exactly 1 focused analytical paragraph (approx. 5 minutes). Do NOT write an introduction, conclusion, or a second consequence.

[P] Point (Consequence): State ONE clear, valid consequence of the Israeli preemptive airstrike in Operation Focus (5 June 1967) directly addressing the military outcome of the Six Day War.

[E] Evidence (Contextual Detail): Deploy precise historical facts (names, dates, treaties, or figures) from June 1967 to prove what happened.

[E] Explanation (Causal Impact): Explain the lasting causal effect on Arab-Jewish relations or regional geopolitics using causal connectives.

Sentence Starters:

- "One consequence of the Israeli preemptive airstrike in Operation Focus (5 June 1967) was the total destruction of Arab air power, securing absolute Israeli air supremacy that guaranteed rapid victory."
- "For example, in the opening three hours of the war, the Israeli Air Force (IAF) wiped out over 300 Egyptian combat aircraft on the tarmac and cratered their runways, followed by the destruction of the Syrian and Jordanian air forces."
- "As a direct result of operating with zero aerial opposition, Israeli ground armour was able to advance with complete impunity across the Sinai Peninsula, West Bank, and Golan Heights, consequently achieving total military victory in just six days."

Causal Connectives: As a direct result • Consequently • This led directly to • Because of this • This meant that • Crucially

EXIT TICKET: SPLIT-PERSPECTIVE FRONT PAGE

EXIT TICKET • SPLIT-PERSPECTIVE HEADLINES

Write two punchy, 6-word newspaper headlines capturing the historic shock of the Six-Day War (10 June 1967):

- Headline A (Israeli Perspective - The Jerusalem Post): Summarize the capture of the Old City and new defensive depth.
- Headline B (Arab Perspective - Al-Ahram, Cairo): Summarize the shock of the "Naksa" (Setback) and loss of Sinai and Jerusalem.

Teacher Guidance: Strict constraint: Exactly 6 words per headline! Ensure each captures the emotional and geopolitical reality of each side.

Pupil Response:

(BEGINNING → MIDDLE → END)

EDEXCEL
PAPER 2

Write exactly 3 logically connected chronological paragraphs (approx. 10–12 minutes). You MUST use both stimulus points PLUS at least one development from your own knowledge. Show HOW each event directly triggered the next.

[1] The Beginning (Catalyst & Origin): Explain how the territorial losses of the 1967 Six Day War led to the rise of independent fedayeen guerrilla warfare and the Battle of Karameh (1968) (Stimulus: 1967 War aftermath).

[2] The Middle (Causal Turning Point): Explain the decisive turning point of Black September (1970) in Jordan, the expulsion to Lebanon, and the shift toward international terrorism like the Munich Olympics massacre (1972) (Own Knowledge).

[3] The End (Culmination & Resolution): Explain the culmination: international recognition of the PLO as the 'sole legitimate representative of the Palestinian people' at the Rabat Summit and Arafat's landmark UN address in 1974 (Stimulus: Arafat UN Speech).

Sentence Starters:

- "The growth of independent Palestinian resistance was initiated following the Arab defeat in the 1967 Six Day War, which convinced Palestinians that conventional Arab armies could not liberate their homeland."
- "A decisive turning point occurred in September 1970 ('Black September') when King Hussein of Jordan crushed and expelled the heavily armed PLO militias, which consequently drove extremist factions like Black September to adopt spectacular international terror tactics, culminating in the 1972 Munich Olympics massacre."
- "This cycle of armed resistance and international notoriety culminated in November 1974 when Yasser Arafat was invited to address the UN General Assembly in New York, securing global diplomatic legitimacy for the PLO while presenting his famous choice between 'an olive branch and a freedom fighter's gun'."

Causal Connectives: The crisis was initiated when • This directly triggered • A decisive turning point occurred when • Consequently • As a direct consequence • This situation culminated in

EDEXCEL
PAPER 2

Write exactly 2 analytical PEEL paragraphs (approx. 10–12 minutes). Divide your analysis into (1) Immediate / Short-Term Importance and (2) Long-Term / Strategic Significance. Always explain the difference the Yom Kippur War (October 1973) made for Arab-Israeli diplomacy and military perceptions.

[P1] Immediate / Short-Term Importance: Explain how Egypt's successful initial crossing of the Suez Canal (Operation Badr) shattered the myth of Israeli invincibility and restored Egyptian national honour.

[P2] Long-Term / Strategic Transformation: Explain how the OPEC oil embargo and superpower nuclear alert convinced the United States (via Henry Kissinger) that Middle Eastern peace was an urgent global priority, paving the way for Camp David.

Sentence Starters:

- "In the short term, the Yom Kippur War was of decisive importance because it shattered the dangerous Israeli myth of invincibility and restored Egyptian military honour following the humiliation of 1967."
- "This was demonstrated when Egyptian forces successfully crossed the Suez Canal under Operation Badr on 6 October 1973, breaching the heavily fortified Bar-Lev Line and inflicting catastrophic early casualties on Israeli armour using Soviet-supplied Sagger missiles."
- "In the long term, the war fundamentally transformed Middle Eastern diplomacy by convincing both Washington and Jerusalem that military occupation alone could not guarantee Israeli security."

Causal Connectives: In the short term, the Yom Kippur War (October 1973) was of decisive importance for Arab-Israeli diplomacy and military perceptions because • This was demonstrated when • In the long term, this fundamentally altered • Crucially, the strategic impact was that • Ultimately, the significance of the Yom Kippur War (October 1973) for Arab-Israeli diplomacy and military perceptions was that
