The Great War: 1914–1919

Industrial Slaughter, Global Sacrifice, Total War & The Flawed Peace

The Signing of Peace in the Hall of Mirrors, Versailles (28 June 1919) — Sir William Orpen (1878–1931)

On 28 June 1919, exactly five years after the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, Allied statesmen gathered in the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles to impose peace upon defeated Germany:

1. THE BIG THREE & CONFLICTING AGENDAS:
Seated at the centre are Woodrow Wilson (League of Nations), Georges Clemenceau (disarmament and reparations), and David Lloyd George (imperial compromise).

2. THE IMPOSITION OF THE DIKTAT:
In the foreground, German envoys Johannes Bell and Hermann Müller sign Article 231 (War Guilt) and £6.6bn in reparations without negotiation under naval blockade.

3. GLOBAL IMPERIAL REPRESENTATION:
Flanked behind the leaders stand imperial dignitaries—including the Maharaja of Bikaner—symbolising over 4 million colonial troops who sustained Allied victory.

4. THE SEEDS OF FUTURE CONFLICT:
Above, the ceiling proclaims 'Le Roy Gouverne' ('The King Governs'), foreshadowing Marshal Foch's warning: 'This is not peace. It is an armistice for twenty years.'

THE BIG THREE	GERMAN ENVOYS	HALL OF MIRRORS
Wilson, Clemenceau, Lloyd George.	Signing Article 231 (War Guilt).	1871 German Empire reversed.

SIGNIFICANCE: The Treaty of Versailles formally concluded the Great War, dismantled four European empires, and created the economic and territorial grievances that paved the road to the Second World War.

HINGE QUESTION:
Did the Allied peacemakers at Versailles make another war inevitable through excessive severity, or was the fatal weakness their failure to enforce the treaty's military terms when challenged in the 1930s?

Why were young British men so desperate to volunteer for the slaughter of 1914?

Core Specification Focus: Lack of peacetime conscription; Lord Kitchener's recruitment campaign; moral outrage over the invasion of neutral Belgium; Pals Battalions (Pompey Pals); economic poverty & the King's Shilling; propaganda posters & White Feather shame.

CHRONOLOGICAL INQUIRY SPINE • CORE CAUSAL NARRATIVE Construct your causal explanation for each stage incorporating the core trigger terms

1 Text [1.1–1.2] Aug 1914 • What forced Britain to launch Kitchener's urgent call for 500,000 volunteers?

- No Conscription
- BEF Just 120,000 Men
- Kitchener's Dire Call

2 Text [1.3, 4.2] Aug–Sept 1914 • How did the invasion of Belgium spark genuine moral outrage and civic duty?

- 1839 Treaty of London
- German Atrocities
- Crusade for Law

3 Text [2.1–2.2] Sept 1914 • Why did workplace camaraderie and local pride drive the formation of Pals Battalions?

- Pals Battalions Formed
- Pompey Pals (14th/15th Hants)
- Fight Alongside Mates

4 Text [1.3, 4.3] Autumn 1914 • In what ways did poverty, adventure, and the King's Shilling lure young recruits?

- Regular Pay & Food
- Escape Factory Drudgery
- Over by Christmas

5 Text [3.1–3.3] Late 1914 • How did state propaganda and social coercion make refusal to enlist unbearable?

- Kitchener Finger Poster
- White Feather Movement
- Unbearable Social Shame

In August and September 1914 alone, over 750,000 British men volunteered—creating the largest citizen army in British history.

Question 1: Give Two Inferences [4 marks • 5 mins]

SOURCE INFERENCE

Give two inferences from Lord Kitchener's 1914 recruitment campaign about how the British government persuaded men to enlist. [4 marks]

Sentence Stems: What I can infer is that the government believed... • Details in the recruitment drive that tell me this are... • What else I can infer is that recruits were motivated by... • Details that tell me this are...

Question 2: Explain Why [8 marks • 10 mins]

STRUCTURED WRITING

Explain why young British men volunteered in such massive numbers in the autumn of 1914. [8 marks]

Stimulus: The moral outrage surrounding the invasion of Belgium | The creation of civic Pals Battalions (e.g. Pompey Pals)

Analytical Connectives: One key reason why men volunteered was... • This encouraged enlistment because... • Furthermore, social pressure such as... • Consequently, young men felt compelled to...

Key Terms: Pals Battalions • Lord Kitchener • Treaty of London • Pompey Pals • King's Shilling • White Feather • voluntary enlistment

3 Text [2.3, 3.1] 1915–1916 • What lethal physical and psychological trauma did infantry endure in the mud?

- Trench Foot & Gangrene
- Corpses, Lice & Rats
- Shell Shock Trauma

4 Text [3.2–3.3] 1 July 1916 • Why did the First Day of the Somme become the bloodiest disaster in British history?

- 7-Day Bombardment Fails
- German Bunkers Intact
- 57,470 Casualties Day 1

5 Text [4.1–4.3] 1916–1918 • Was Sir Douglas Haig a callous "butcher" or a commander learning total war?

- Lions Led by Donkeys
- Industrial Learning Curve
- Allied Victory in 1918

On 1 July 1916, the British Army suffered 57,470 casualties—including 19,240 dead—the bloodiest single day in British military history.

Question 1: Describe One Feature [4 marks • 5 mins]

FEATURE DRILL

Describe one key feature of the trench defensive systems on the Western Front. [4 marks]

Sentence Stems: One key feature of the Western Front trench system was... • Specifically, it was constructed with... • This was important because it ensured that...

Question 2(b): 4-Prompt Forensic Source Follow-Up [4 marks • 5 mins]

SOURCE FOLLOW-UP

How could you follow up Source A to find out more about the tactical failures on the First Day of the Somme (1 July 1916)? [4 marks]

Sentence Stems: Detail in Source A that I would follow up: ... • Question I would ask: ... • Type of source I would use: ... • How this would help me find out more: ...

Milestone 3 (1 July 1916 • The Somme): Turn to Centrefold (Pages 8–9). Sketch the German concrete machine-gun redoubt firing across uncut wire at the advancing Pals Battalions [🧱 concrete bunker • ⚙️ Maxim gun • 〰️ barbed wire].

Historians remain divided over Douglas Haig: 1960s critics labelled him a "butcher", while modern scholars view him as a commander mastering an unprecedented technological r

Why were the military contributions of 4 million colonial troops and labourers marginalized in postwar British memory?

Core Specification Focus: Global reach of the British Empire; 1.5 million Indian soldiers on the Western Front and in Mesopotamia; West India Regiment and King's African Rifles; Chinese Labour Corps; Gallipoli campaign and ANZAC identity; systemic imperial racial hierarchies and commemorative erasure.

CHRONOLOGICAL INQUIRY SPINE • CORE CAUSAL NARRATIVE Construct your causal explanation for each stage incorporating the core trigger terms

1 Text [1.1–1.3] 1914 • Why was Britain completely dependent on mobilising 4 million imperial subjects?

- Imperial War Cabinet
- Global Manpower Pool
- Dominions & Crown Colonies

2 Text [2.1–2.2] 1914–1915 • How crucially did 1.5 million Indian soldiers save the crumbling Allied line at Ypres?

- Lahore & Meerut Divisions
- First Battle of Ypres
- Khadadad Khan VC

3 Text [2.3, 3.1] 1915 • Why did the catastrophe of Gallipoli forge national identity for Australia and New Zealand?

- Dardanelles Disaster
- Mustafa Kemal & Turkish Defence
- Birth of ANZAC Legend

4 Text [3.2–3.3] 1916–1918 • In what ways did the Chinese Labour Corps and African Pioneers sustain Allied logistics?

- 140,000 Chinese Workers
- Carrier Corps in East Africa
- Brutal Racial Segregation

5 Text [4.1–4.3] Post-1918 • Why were non-white colonial soldiers denied equal pensions, medals, and remembrance?

- Imperial Colour Bar
- Mass Graves in Africa
- Deliberate Erasure from Memory

Over 1.5 million Indian soldiers served in the Great War; Sepoy Khadadad Khan was the first South Asian recipient of the Victoria Cross.

Question 3(b) & 3(c): Contrasting Interpretations [8 marks • 10 mins]

HISTORIOGRAPHICAL ANALYSIS

INTERPRETATION 1 • LORD CURZON, BRITISH WAR CABINET MINISTER, SPEECH AT THE ROYAL ALBERT HALL (1917)

"The Indian Army and the troops from our dominions have rushed forward with magnificent devotion to defend the King-Emperor. Side by side with their British brothers-in-arms, they have shed their blood on the plains of Flanders, Gallipoli, and Egypt. This imperial brotherhood proves that the British Empire is held together not by force, but by mutual love, loyalty, and common sacrifice."

INTERPRETATION 2 • DAVID OLUSOGA, MODERN BRITISH HISTORIAN, THE WORLD'S WAR (2014)

"Over four million non-white men were mobilised as combatants and labourers by Britain. Yet their treatment was defined by systemic racism. Black and Asian soldiers were barred from becoming officers, paid a fraction of British wages, and subjected to brutal floggings. After 1918, the Imperial War Graves Commission deliberately refused to give African dead individual headstones. Their sacrifice was whitewashed from British national memory."

Question 3(b): Explain how Interpretations 1 and 2 differ about the experiences of colonial troops in the Great War. [4 marks]

PART B

Sentence Stems: Interpretation 1 emphasizes that colonial troops were treated with... • In contrast, Interpretation 2 argues that their service was characterized by... • Specifically, Interpretation 1 claims... whereas Interpretation 2 reveals...

Question 3(c): Suggest one reason why Interpretations 1 and 2 differ about the role of empire soldiers. [4 marks]

PART C

Scaffolded Sentence Stems: One reason why the interpretations differ is because the authors have different perspectives and purposes. Lord Curzon was a wartime imperial minister whose purpose was to... • On the other hand, David Olusoga is a modern historian using declassified military records to...

August 1914 • The Rush to the Colours & Lord Kitchener's Appeal

Enquiry 1

Following the German invasion of Belgium, Lord Kitchener issues his iconic recruiting appeal; over 750,000 volunteers enlist in eight weeks, creating the civic Pals Battalions across Britain.

April 1915 • The Gallipoli Landings & ANZAC Mobilisation

Enquiry 3

British, French, Indian, and Australian/New Zealand (ANZAC) forces land on the Gallipoli peninsula to knock the Ottoman Empire out of the war; eight months of bloody stalemate forge Australian national consciousness.

1 July 1916 • The First Day on the Somme & Destruction of the Pals

Enquiry 2

Following a seven-day artillery bombardment, 100,000 British infantry assault intact German wire; 19,240 men are killed in hours, devastating entire towns and wiping out civic volunteer battalions.

September 1916 • First Tank Deployment at Flers-Courcelette

Enquiry 2

Britain unveils the Mark I tank on the Somme, driving over trenches and crushing barbed wire; while mechanically unreliable, it inaugurates modern combined-arms armoured warfare.

1916–1917 • Conscription, "Canary Girls" & Total War Mobilisation

Enquiry 4

Parliament enforces military conscription for all eligible men while 1 million women enter munitions factories ("Canary Girls") and transport; German U-boat attacks bring Britain within weeks of starvation.

November 1917 • The Balfour Declaration & Middle East Partition

Enquiry 5

Foreign Secretary Arthur Balfour pledges British support for a Jewish national home in Palestine; conflicting with secret Sykes-Picot deals and pledges to Arab leaders, the stage is set for modern Middle Eastern partition.

28 June 1919 • The Signing of the Treaty of Versailles

Enquiry 5

In the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles, Allied powers force Germany to accept Article 231 (War Guilt), pay £6.6 billion in reparations, and surrender 13% of its European territory, leaving Weimar Germany humiliated.

1920–1923 • League of Nations Mandates & Parish Remembrance

Enquiry 5

The League of Nations grants Britain and France Class A Mandates over Palestine, Iraq, and Syria; across Britain, parishes erect permanent stone and timber war memorials to mourn 888,000 fallen service personnel.

How far did the First World War transform the British state and daily life on the Home Front?

Core Specification Focus: Total war concept; Defence of the Realm Act (DORA); blackout, censorship, pub hours, licensing; introduction of military conscription (1916); 1 million women in munitions ("Canary Girls") and transport; food shortages and German U-boat blockade; German Zeppelin air raids on civilians.

CHRONOLOGICAL INQUIRY SPINE • CORE CAUSAL NARRATIVE Construct your causal explanation for each stage incorporating the core trigger terms

1 Text [1.1–1.3] Aug 1914 • In what ways did DORA grant the British state unprecedented authoritarian control?

- Defence of the Realm Act
- Strict Press Censorship
- Curfews & Watered Beer

2 Text [2.1–2.2] 1915–1916 • What forced David Lloyd George to nationalise munitions factories in 1915?

- Daily Mail Shell Scandal
- Ministry of Munitions
- State-Run National Shell Factories

3 Text [2.3, 3.1] Jan 1916 • Why did catastrophic frontline casualties force Britain to impose conscription in 1916?

- Somme Demands Reserves
- Military Service Act 1916
- Conscientious Objectors

4 Text [3.2–3.3] 1916–1918 • How did 1 million "Canary Girls" transform industrial production despite toxic hazards?

- Toxic TNT Jaundice
- Silvertown Explosion (1917)
- 80% of British Munitions

5 Text [4.1–4.3] 1917–1918 • Why did unrestricted German submarine warfare push Britain to the brink of starvation?

- U-Boats Sink Merchant Fleet
- Only 6 Weeks Food Left
- Sugar & Meat Ration Books

Under DORA, it was illegal to buy rounds of drinks in pubs, feed bread to pigeons, ring church bells, or fly a kite in Britain.

Question 2: Narrative Account [8 marks • 10 mins]

PART A • NARRATIVE

Write a narrative account analysing the key events leading from the Shell Crisis of 1915 to the introduction of compulsory conscription in 1916. [8 marks]

Stimulus: The 1915 Shell Crisis and the Daily Mail headlines | The passing of the Military Service Act in January 1916

Analytical Connectives: The crisis began in May 1915 when... • This led to immediate political consequences because... • In response, David Lloyd George established... • Crucially, by late 1915 the voluntary system failed to... • Consequently, in January 1916 Parliament passed...
Key Terms: Shell Crisis • David Lloyd George • Ministry of Munitions • Lord Derby Scheme • Military Service Act (1916) • Conscription

Question 3: Explain Importance [8 marks • 10 mins]

PART B • IMPORTANCE

Explain the importance of female munitions workers to the British war effort in the period 1915–1918. [8 marks]

Stimulus: The production of 80% of all British weaponry and shells | The dangerous working conditions and toxic jaundice ("Canary Girls")

Analytical Connectives: The primary importance of women munitions workers was... • This was vital to the frontlines because... • Furthermore, their courage under toxic conditions... • In the long term, their contribution proved that...
Key Terms: Canary Girls • TNT poisoning • Silvertown explosion • Ministry of Munitions • Representation of the People Act 1918
