SECTION C: HIGH-SCORING EXEMPLAR RESPONSES

GRADE 8/9 MODELS: Q1 & Q3

QUESTION 1: CONSEQUENCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks • Level 2 (4/4)

Explain one consequence of the bombing of the King David Hotel (1946).

One consequence of the bombing of the King David Hotel was that it shattered British political and domestic resolve to maintain the Palestine Mandate. On 22 July 1946, Irgun militants disguised as milkmen detonated explosives in the basement, killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish administrative staff and destroying the British military secretariat. This was significant because it forced Prime Minister Clement Attlee's cabinet to conclude that keeping 100,000 troops in Palestine amid an escalating guerrilla insurgency was financially and militarily unsustainable, directly prompting Britain in February 1947 to announce its withdrawal and refer the problem to the United Nations.

Examiner Annotation: Level 2 (4 Marks): Precise point identified in sentence 1; detailed historical facts (22 July 1946, 91 killed, Attlee cabinet, 100,000 troops); sustained causal explanation of why this led to the British referral to the UN.

QUESTION 3: IMPORTANCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks • Level 3 (8/8)

Explain the importance of UN Resolution 181 for the creation of Israel.

UN Resolution 181 was important for the creation of Israel because it provided essential international legal legitimacy for sovereign Jewish statehood. Passed by a two-thirds majority in the United Nations General Assembly on 29 November 1947, the resolution voted to terminate the British Mandate and partition Palestine into independent Arab and Jewish states, allocating 55% of the territory to the Jewish state despite them forming only a third of the population. This international mandate was vital because it granted Jewish leaders the recognized diplomatic authority to establish a sovereign government without being dismissed as an illegal rebellion.

Furthermore, Resolution 181 was critical because it enabled David Ben-Gurion to formally proclaim the State of Israel on 14 May 1948 and immediately secure superpower recognition. Within hours of the declaration, both the United States under President Truman and the Soviet Union granted de facto recognition to the new nation based directly on the UN partition vote. Without this international legal foundation, Israel would have lacked the diplomatic backing required to establish formal foreign relations and secure emergency Czech arms shipments during the subsequent 1948–49 war.

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Two fully developed explanations; precise AO1 evidence (29 Nov 1947, 55% territory, 14 May 1948, Truman recognition); sustained analytical focus on statehood creation.

SECTION C: NARRATIVE EXEMPLAR & FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS

Official Level 3 continuous prose model answer and high-frequency pitfalls to avoid.

GRADE 8/9 MODEL: Q2

QUESTION 2: NARRATIVE ACCOUNT EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 3 (8/8)

Write a narrative account analysing the key events of the Arab-Israeli war (1948–49).

The Arab-Israeli War began immediately following the proclamation of the State of Israel on 14 May 1948. On 15 May, regular armies from Egypt, Transjordan, Syria, Lebanon, and Iraq invaded simultaneously. In the opening weeks, Arab forces achieved significant gains: Transjordan's Arab Legion captured East Jerusalem and besieged 100,000 Jewish residents in the New City, while Egyptian armoured columns advanced to within 20 miles of Tel Aviv. At this initial stage, the fledgling Israeli state faced imminent military collapse due to severe shortages of heavy artillery and combat aircraft.

A decisive turning point occurred on 11 June 1948 when the United Nations brokered a four-week truce. David Ben-Gurion exploited this breathing space to centralize command, dissolving rival paramilitary groups (Haganah, Irgun, and Lehi) into the unified Israeli Defence Forces (IDF) under Order No. 4. Furthermore, Israel covertly imported modern rifles, artillery, and Avia S-199 fighter aircraft from Czechoslovakia. Consequently, when fighting resumed in July (the "Ten Days"), the IDF possessed a decisive tactical advantage in firepower, air control, and coordinated leadership.

This organizational superiority directly enabled the IDF to launch devastating autumn counter-offensives. Operation Yoav broke the Egyptian blockade in the Negev, while Operation Hiram cleared the Galilee in the north. The fighting concluded with the 1949 Armistice Agreements (the Green Line), which left Israel in control of 79% of Mandatory Palestine—far exceeding the original 55% UN partition boundary. This outcome secured Israeli sovereign survival but displaced over 700,000 Palestinian Arabs into permanent refugee status (the Nakba).

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Seamless 3-stage chronological narrative; explicit causal connectives explaining how the June truce unlocked autumn counter-offensives; rich historical knowledge (Operation Yoav, Avia S-199s, Green Line).

TOP 3 FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS TO AVOID FOR KEY TOPIC 1

• Partition (1947) vs Armistice (1949) Do not confuse the 1947 UN Partition Plan (Res 181, which allocated 55% of Palestine to a Jewish state) with the 1949 Armistice Green Line (which enclosed 79% following the 1948–49 War). Res 181 was never implemented as Arab leaders rejected it.	• The Turning Point of the 1948–49 War The decisive turning point of the 1948–49 War was NOT superior Israeli numbers at the outbreak, but the 4-week UN truce in June 1948. This allowed Israel to import Czech Avia S-199 fighters and rifles, while David Ben-Gurion unified all militias into the IDF.	• Suez 1956: Military Victory vs Political Defeat Britain and France achieved military victory in capturing Port Said in November 1956, but suffered a catastrophic political defeat when US President Eisenhower threatened financial sanctions, forcing an immediate withdrawal and elevating Nasser into a Pan-Arab hero.

GRADE 8/9 MODELS: Q1 & Q3

QUESTION 1: CONSEQUENCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 2 (4/4)

Explain one consequence of the expulsion of the PLO from Jordan (1970).

One consequence of the expulsion of the PLO from Jordan in 1970 was that it forced Palestinian guerrilla factions to relocate their main military and political headquarters to Southern Lebanon. Following King Hussein's violent crackdown during Black September (1970), which killed several thousand fedayeen, Yasser Arafat and the PLO were expelled from Amman. In Lebanon, the PLO established an autonomous armed enclave along Israel's northern frontier. This directly triggered frequent cross-border rocket strikes and raids into northern Israel, provoking regular Israeli artillery reprisals and ultimately prompting Israel's 1982 invasion of Lebanon.

Examiner Annotation: Level 2 (4 Marks): Precise focus on the consequence (relocation to Lebanon and creation of border enclave); specific factual details (Black September, Amman, cross-border raids, 1982 invasion).

QUESTION 3: IMPORTANCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 3 (8/8)

Explain the importance of UN Resolution 242 for the aftermath of the 1967 war.

UN Resolution 242 was important for the aftermath of the 1967 war because it established the fundamental "land for peace" diplomatic formula that framed all subsequent Middle East negotiations. Adopted unanimously by the UN Security Council on 22 November 1967, it called for the withdrawal of Israeli armed forces from territories occupied during the conflict in return for the termination of belligerency and the acknowledgement of every state's right to live in peace within secure, recognized borders. This provided the first universally accepted legal compromise between Arab demands for land return and Israeli demands for permanent recognition.

Furthermore, Resolution 242 was important because its deliberate linguistic ambiguity dictated decades of regional diplomacy. The English text called for withdrawal from "territories occupied" rather than "THE territories occupied", allowing Israel to insist that it was not required to surrender all the land captured in 1967 (such as East Jerusalem and the Golan Heights). While the PLO initially rejected the resolution because it treated Palestinians merely as "refugees", Resolution 242 served as the mandatory foundation for the 1978 Camp David Accords, the 1979 Treaty of Washington, and the 1993 Oslo Accords.

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Two fully developed paragraphs; clear analysis of "land for peace" and linguistic ambiguity; precise knowledge (22 Nov 1967, Camp David, English drafting).

SECTION C: NARRATIVE EXEMPLAR & FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS

Official Level 3 continuous prose model answer and high-frequency pitfalls to avoid.

GRADE 8/9 MODEL: Q2

QUESTION 2: NARRATIVE ACCOUNT EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 3 (8/8)

Write a narrative account analysing the key events of the Six Day War (1967).

The Six Day War began at 7:45 am on 5 June 1967 when Israel launched Operation Focus, a pre-emptive airstrike against Egyptian airbases. Flying below Egyptian radar across the Mediterranean, the Israeli Air Force caught the Egyptian air force completely by surprise, destroying over 300 combat aircraft on the runway within three hours and disabling runways with specialized penetration bombs. This instantaneous destruction of Egyptian airpower established total Israeli air supremacy from the opening morning, leaving Arab ground forces without air support.

With aerial supremacy secured, Israeli ground forces executed rapid multi-front offensives. In the south, three armoured divisions under Sharon and Tal smashed through Egyptian defenses in Sinai, racing to block the Mitla Pass and reaching the Suez Canal by 8 June. Meanwhile, after King Hussein opened artillery fire on West Jerusalem under false Egyptian reports of victory, Israeli paratroopers under Motta Gur counter-attacked into East Jerusalem, capturing the Old City and the Western Wall on 7 June while clearing Jordanian forces from the entire West Bank.

Following victory on the southern and central fronts, the IDF turned against Syria on 9 June. Israeli brigades scaled the heavily fortified Golan Heights escarpment under intense artillery fire, capturing the strategic high ground overlooking the Sea of Galilee. By the time a UN ceasefire took effect on 10 June, Israel had shattered three Arab armies in six days and quadrupled its territory, bringing one million Palestinian Arabs under military rule in Sinai, Gaza, the West Bank, East Jerusalem, and the Golan Heights.

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): 3-stage causal narrative covering Operation Focus, the multi-front advance, and the Golan climax; explicit causal links; integration of both stimulus points with rich tactical knowledge.

TOP 3 FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS TO AVOID FOR KEY TOPIC 2

- The 1967 vs 1973 Territorial Shift

Israel conquered the Occupied Territories (Sinai, Gaza Strip, West Bank, East Jerusalem, Golan Heights) in the 1967 Six Day War, NOT in 1973. In 1973, borders remained essentially unchanged following the UN ceasefire.
- The Wording of UN Resolution 242

In UN Resolution 242 (1967), the English text intentionally called for Israeli withdrawal from "territories occupied" rather than "THE territories occupied". This deliberate ambiguity allowed Israel to claim it was not required to surrender all land.
- Israeli Intelligence and "The Conception"

The catastrophic surprise of the 1973 Yom Kippur War was rooted in "The Conception" (Aman hubris) — the false Israeli assumption that Egypt would never attack without long-range strike aircraft capable of neutralizing Israeli airfields.

GRADE 8/9 MODELS: Q1 & Q3

QUESTION 1: CONSEQUENCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 2 (4/4)

Explain one consequence of the Treaty of Washington (1979) for Egyptian relations with other Arab states.

One consequence of the Treaty of Washington (1979) was that Egypt was politically and economically ostracized by the rest of the Arab world. Signed on 26 March 1979 by Anwar Sadat and Menachem Begin, the bilateral treaty made Egypt the first Arab nation to formally recognize Israel in exchange for the return of the Sinai Peninsula. Arab League nations viewed this as a treacherous betrayal of the Palestinian cause, voting immediately to suspend Egypt from the Arab League, move the League's headquarters from Cairo to Tunis, and sever diplomatic ties. This regional isolation shattered pan-Arab diplomatic solidarity and fueled domestic Islamist fury inside Egypt, leading directly to Sadat's assassination in October 1981.

Examiner Annotation: Level 2 (4 Marks): Direct point on Arab ostracization; specific evidence (26 March 1979, Arab League suspension, Tunis move, Sadat assassination); causal explanation of why this severed pan-Arab unity.

QUESTION 3: IMPORTANCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 3 (8/8)

Explain the importance of the Oslo Accords (1993) for the setting up of the Palestinian National Authority.

The Oslo Accords (Declaration of Principles) were important because they established the legal and administrative framework for formal Palestinian self-government for the first time. Signed on 13 September 1993 following secret Norwegian backchannel talks, the agreement mandated that Israel would withdraw its military forces from the Gaza Strip and the West Bank town of Jericho, transferring civil administration to an interim Palestinian authority. This breakthrough transformed the PLO from an exiled guerrilla organization into an internationally recognized civilian government, creating the Palestinian National Authority (PNA) in May 1994.

Furthermore, the Oslo Accords were important because they enabled Yasser Arafat and the exiled PLO leadership to return to Palestine to govern directly. In July 1994, Arafat returned to Gaza after 27 years in exile to head the newly established PNA, creating an elected Palestinian Legislative Council and a dedicated Palestinian civil police force. Although the accords controversially deferred permanent status issues (borders, Jerusalem, refugees), the creation of the PNA permanently altered Middle Eastern politics by granting Palestinians direct administrative authority over their major population centres.

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Direct focus on setting up the PNA; precise facts (13 Sept 1993, Jericho and Gaza withdrawal, July 1994 return, police force); clear evaluation of immediate governance vs deferred final status issues.

SECTION C: NARRATIVE EXEMPLAR & FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS

GRADE 8/9 MODEL: Q2

QUESTION 2: NARRATIVE ACCOUNT EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 3 (8/8)

Write a narrative account analysing diplomatic negotiations between Egypt and Israel from Sadat’s visit (1977) to the Treaty of Washington (1979).

Diplomatic negotiations began with Anwar Sadat’s unprecedented direct peace initiative in November 1977. Recognising that Egypt’s economy was exhausted by warfare and seeking to reclaim the Sinai Peninsula, Sadat shocked the world by flying to Jerusalem on 19 November and addressing the Israeli Knesset, proclaiming "no more war" and offering direct bilateral negotiations. While Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin made a reciprocal visit to Ismailia in December, negotiations soon stalled over Israeli unwillingness to dismantle Jewish settlements in Sinai and grant Palestinian autonomy.

Faced with complete diplomatic collapse, US President Jimmy Carter intervened decisively in September 1978 by inviting Sadat and Begin to a secluded 13-day summit at Camp David. Carter conducted intensive marathon diplomacy, drafting 23 revisions of the agreements to mediate between Begin’s rigid legalism and Sadat’s emotional demands. Carter’s personal pressure successfully produced the Camp David Accords on 17 September 1978, establishing two frameworks: one for the full return of the Sinai Peninsula to Egypt in exchange for peace, and a second, vaguer framework for interim self-government in the West Bank and Gaza.

This breakthrough directly culminated in the signing of the formal Treaty of Washington on the White House lawn on 26 March 1979. Under the treaty, Israel agreed to completely evacuate the Sinai Peninsula (dismantling the Yamit settlement) and reopen the Suez Canal to Israeli shipping, while Egypt became the first Arab state to recognize Israel’s right to exist. This historic treaty fundamentally transformed Middle East geopolitics by removing the largest and most powerful Arab military from the anti-Israel coalition, ending thirty years of state-on-state warfare between Egypt and Israel.

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Complete 3-stage causal progression from Knesset speech through Camp David mediation to the Treaty of Washington; explicit explanation of Carter’s personal intervention; detailed knowledge (19 Nov 1977, 13-day summit, Yamit, 26 March 1979).

TOP 3 FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS TO AVOID FOR KEY TOPIC 3

- Camp David (1978) vs Treaty of Washington (1979)

Do not confuse the Camp David Accords (September 1978 - a framework negotiated with Jimmy Carter) with the formal Treaty of Washington (March 1979 - the official bilateral peace treaty signed on the White House lawn).
- Oslo Accords: Territorial Breakdown

Oslo II (1995) did NOT give Palestinians total control of the West Bank. It divided the land into Area A (full Palestinian control, ~3%), Area B (joint security, ~24%), and Area C (full Israeli security and civil control, ~73%).
- Importance Questions: Answer the Prompt Outcome

In Edexcel Importance questions, you MUST explain why an event was important FOR THE SPECIFIC PROMPT (e.g. importance of Arafat’s UN speech FOR PLO status), rather than writing general biography about Yasser Arafat.
