SECTION C: HIGH-SCORING EXEMPLAR RESPONSES

Official Pearson Edexcel Level 3 continuous prose exemplars with examiner annotations.

GRADE 8/9 MODELS: Q1 & Q3

QUESTION 1: CONSEQUENCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks • Level 2 (4/4)

Explain one consequence of the bombing of the King David Hotel (1946).

One consequence of the bombing of the King David Hotel was that it shattered British political and domestic resolve to maintain the Palestine Mandate. On 22 July 1946, Irgun militants disguised as milkmen detonated explosives in the basement, killing 91 British, Arab, and Jewish administrative staff and destroying the British military secretariat. This was significant because it forced Prime Minister Clement Attlee's cabinet to conclude that keeping 100,000 troops in Palestine amid an escalating guerrilla insurgency was financially and militarily unsustainable, directly prompting Britain in February 1947 to announce its withdrawal and refer the problem to the United Nations.

Examiner Annotation: Level 2 (4 Marks): Precise point identified in sentence 1; detailed historical facts (22 July 1946, 91 killed, Attlee cabinet, 100,000 troops); sustained causal explanation of why this led to the British referral to the UN.

QUESTION 3: IMPORTANCE EXEMPLAR

Full Marks • Level 3 (8/8)

Explain the importance of UN Resolution 181 for the creation of Israel.

UN Resolution 181 was important for the creation of Israel because it provided essential international legal legitimacy for sovereign Jewish statehood. Passed by a two-thirds majority in the United Nations General Assembly on 29 November 1947, the resolution voted to terminate the British Mandate and partition Palestine into independent Arab and Jewish states, allocating 55% of the territory to the Jewish state despite them forming only a third of the population. This international mandate was vital because it granted Jewish leaders the recognized diplomatic authority to establish a sovereign government without being dismissed as an illegal rebellion.

Furthermore, Resolution 181 was critical because it enabled David Ben-Gurion to formally proclaim the State of Israel on 14 May 1948 and immediately secure superpower recognition. Within hours of the declaration, both the United States under President Truman and the Soviet Union granted de facto recognition to the new nation based directly on the UN partition vote. Without this international legal foundation, Israel would have lacked the diplomatic backing required to establish formal foreign relations and secure emergency Czech arms shipments during the subsequent 1948–49 war.

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Two fully developed explanations; precise AO1 evidence (29 Nov 1947, 55% territory, 14 May 1948, Truman recognition); sustained analytical focus on statehood creation.

SECTION C: NARRATIVE EXEMPLAR & FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS

Official Level 3 continuous prose model answer and high-frequency pitfalls to avoid.

GRADE 8/9 MODEL: Q2

QUESTION 2: NARRATIVE ACCOUNT EXEMPLAR

Full Marks · Level 3 (8/8)

Write a narrative account analysing the key events of the Arab-Israeli war (1948–49).

The Arab-Israeli War began immediately following the proclamation of the State of Israel on 14 May 1948. On 15 May, regular armies from Egypt, Transjordan, Syria, Lebanon, and Iraq invaded simultaneously. In the opening weeks, Arab forces achieved significant gains: Transjordan's Arab Legion captured East Jerusalem and besieged 100,000 Jewish residents in the New City, while Egyptian armoured columns advanced to within 20 miles of Tel Aviv. At this initial stage, the fledgling Israeli state faced imminent military collapse due to severe shortages of heavy artillery and combat aircraft.

A decisive turning point occurred on 11 June 1948 when the United Nations brokered a four-week truce. David Ben-Gurion exploited this breathing space to centralize command, dissolving rival paramilitary groups (Haganah, Irgun, and Lehi) into the unified Israeli Defence Forces (IDF) under Order No. 4. Furthermore, Israel covertly imported modern rifles, artillery, and Avia S-199 fighter aircraft from Czechoslovakia. Consequently, when fighting resumed in July (the "Ten Days"), the IDF possessed a decisive tactical advantage in firepower, air control, and coordinated leadership.

This organizational superiority directly enabled the IDF to launch devastating autumn counter-offensives. Operation Yoav broke the Egyptian blockade in the Negev, while Operation Hiram cleared the Galilee in the north. The fighting concluded with the 1949 Armistice Agreements (the Green Line), which left Israel in control of 79% of Mandatory Palestine—far exceeding the original 55% UN partition boundary. This outcome secured Israeli sovereign survival but displaced over 700,000 Palestinian Arabs into permanent refugee status (the Nakba).

Examiner Annotation: Level 3 (8 Marks): Seamless 3-stage chronological narrative; explicit causal connectives explaining how the June truce unlocked autumn counter-offensives; rich historical knowledge (Operation Yoav, Avia S-199s, Green Line).

TOP 3 FATAL EXAMINER TRAPS TO AVOID FOR KEY TOPIC 1

• Partition (1947) vs Armistice (1949) Do not confuse the 1947 UN Partition Plan (Res 181, which allocated 55% of Palestine to a Jewish state) with the 1949 Armistice Green Line (which enclosed 79% following the 1948–49 War). Res 181 was never implemented as Arab leaders rejected it.	• The Turning Point of the 1948–49 War The decisive turning point of the 1948–49 War was NOT superior Israeli numbers at the outbreak, but the 4-week UN truce in June 1948. This allowed Israel to import Czech Avia S-199 fighters and rifles, while David Ben-Gurion unified all militias into the IDF.	• Suez 1956: Military Victory vs Political Defeat Britain and France achieved military victory in capturing Port Said in November 1956, but suffered a catastrophic political defeat when US President Eisenhower threatened financial sanctions, forcing an immediate withdrawal and elevating Nasser into a Pan-Arab hero.
