Which global superpower became the primary military supplier and patron of Egypt and Syria by the 1960s?

Vocabulary Check

Fill in the blanks using the vocabulary words below.

PLO (Palestine Liberation Organisation) | Fatah | Pre-emptive Strike | Casus Belli

In the 1960s, Palestinian nationalism grew stronger with the creation of the [.], an umbrella organization, and its dominant guerrilla faction, [.]. Border tensions flared violently when Israel launched the [.] into the West Bank in 1966. These escalating events eventually culminated in June 1967 when Israel launched [.], a devastating pre-emptive air strike that wiped out the Arab air forces on the ground.

Q2. How did disputes over River Jordan water diversion and rising Palestinian guerrilla (Fatah) raids increase border tensions between 1964 and 1966?

Q3. Study Source B. What does this iconic photograph reveal about the emotional and religious significance of capturing the Old City of Jerusalem for Israeli soldiers?

⚡ Dual-Coding Sequence: Nasser's Fatal Escalation Ladder (May 1967)

Step 1 Sinai Troop Surge 15 May 1967: Prompted by Soviet false reports of Israeli forces on Syrian border, Nasser moves 100,000 troops into the Sinai.	Step 2 UN Peacekeepers Evicted 16–18 May 1967: Nasser orders the expulsion of UNEF peacekeepers who had guaranteed the Egyptian-Israeli border since 1957.	Step 3 Closure of Straits of Tiran 22 May 1967: Egypt blocks Israeli shipping from the Straits of Tiran, cutting off 90% of Israel's oil and making war inevitable.

Q4. Explain how Soviet false intelligence and Nasser's expulsion of UNEF peacekeepers triggered the countdown to war in May 1967.

Q5. Describe the operational success of Israel's preemptive airstrike (Operation Focus) on 5 June 1967.

Q6. Study Source C. Why was Israel's preemptive strike against Egyptian airfields in Operation Focus decisive in securing total air superiority and victory in just six days?

Q7. What territories did Israel capture during the Six-Day War, and how did this transform Israel's strategic depth and political challenges?

WRITTEN CONSOLIDATION & RECALL

Recall & Analysis

Q8. Was Israel's launch of Operation Focus a necessary act of national self-defense or an opportunistic territorial expansion?

Guidance: Weigh the acute danger of Nasser's blockade of Tiran and Arab military mobilization against the long-term territorial expansion that followed.

SENTENCE STARTERS:

- Israel's preemptive strike was an act of legitimate self-defense because the closure of the Straits of Tiran...
- Conversely, critics argue that the war became an aggressive expansion because Israel chose to conquer and occupy...
- Overall, while military victory preserved Israel in the short term, the occupation of 1.1 million Palestinians...

GCSE Exam Practice

Q9. Explain one consequence of Egypt closing the Straits of Tiran to Israeli shipping in May 1967.

[4 marks • 5 mins]

EXAM STRUCTURE STRIP: THE 3-STEP PEE FORMULA (POINT, EVIDENCE, EXPLANATION)

EDEXCEL PAPER 2

Write exactly 1 focused analytical paragraph (approx. 5 minutes). Do NOT write an introduction, conclusion, or a second consequence.

[P] Point (Consequence): State ONE clear, valid consequence of the Israeli preemptive airstrike in Operation Focus (5 June 1967) directly addressing the military outcome of the Six Day War.

[E] Evidence (Contextual Detail): Deploy precise historical facts (names, dates, treaties, or figures) from June 1967 to prove what happened.

[E] Explanation (Causal Impact): Explain the lasting causal effect on Arab-Jewish relations or regional geopolitics using causal connectives.

Sentence Starters:

- "One consequence of the Israeli preemptive airstrike in Operation Focus (5 June 1967) was the total destruction of Arab air power, securing absolute Israeli air supremacy that guaranteed rapid victory."
- "For example, in the opening three hours of the war, the Israeli Air Force (IAF) wiped out over 300 Egyptian combat aircraft on the tarmac and cratered their runways, followed by the destruction of the Syrian and Jordanian air forces."
- "As a direct result of operating with zero aerial opposition, Israeli ground armour was able to advance with complete impunity across the Sinai Peninsula, West Bank, and Golan Heights, consequently achieving total military victory in just six days."

Causal Connectives: As a direct result • Consequently • This led directly to • Because of this • This meant that • Crucially

EXIT TICKET: SPLIT-PERSPECTIVE FRONT PAGE

EXIT TICKET • SPLIT-PERSPECTIVE HEADLINES

Write two punchy, 6-word newspaper headlines capturing the historic shock of the Six-Day War (10 June 1967):

- Headline A (Israeli Perspective - The Jerusalem Post): Summarize the capture of the Old City and new defensive depth.
- Headline B (Arab Perspective - Al-Ahram, Cairo): Summarize the shock of the "Naksa" (Setback) and loss of Sinai and Jerusalem.

Teacher Guidance: Strict constraint: Exactly 6 words per headline! Ensure each captures the emotional and geopolitical reality of each side.

Pupil Response:

Write a narrative account analysing the key events of the Six Day War (June 1967). [8 marks]

Edexcel Stimulus Clues: You may use the following in your answer: • Operation Focus (5 June 1967) • The capture of East Jerusalem (7 June 1967). You must also use information of your own.

⚡ CHRONOLOGICAL CHALLENGE (NUMBER 1–6)

- ☐ Nasser expels UNEF peacekeepers from Sinai and blockades the Straits of Tiran.
- ☐ Operation Focus: Israeli Air Force destroys 300+ Egyptian aircraft in three hours.
- ☐ Israeli armoured divisions shatter Egyptian defensive positions across the Sinai.
- ☐ Jordan shells West Jerusalem; IDF paratroopers storm and capture the Old City.
- ☐ Israeli infantry scale the Syrian volcanic ramparts to capture the Golan Heights.
- ☐ Ceasefire leaves Israel in control of Sinai, Gaza, West Bank, Jerusalem, and Golan.

PAPER 2

Write exactly 3 logically connected chronological paragraphs (approx. 10–12 minutes). You MUST use both stimulus points PLUS at least one development from your own knowledge. Show HOW each event directly triggered the next.

[1] The Beginning (Catalyst & Origin): Explain how the territorial losses of the 1967 Six Day War led to the rise of independent fedayeen guerrilla warfare and the Battle of Karameh (1968) (Stimulus: 1967 War aftermath).

[2] The Middle (Causal Turning Point): Explain the decisive turning point of Black September (1970) in Jordan, the expulsion to Lebanon, and the shift toward international terrorism like the Munich Olympics massacre (1972) (Own Knowledge).

[3] The End (Culmination & Resolution): Explain the culmination: international recognition of the PLO as the 'sole legitimate representative of the Palestinian people' at the Rabat Summit and Arafat's landmark UN address in 1974 (Stimulus: Arafat UN Speech).

Sentence Starters:

- "The growth of independent Palestinian resistance was initiated following the Arab defeat in the 1967 Six Day War, which convinced Palestinians that conventional Arab armies could not liberate their homeland."
- "A decisive turning point occurred in September 1970 ('Black September') when King Hussein of Jordan crushed and expelled the heavily armed PLO militias, which consequently drove extremist factions like Black September to adopt spectacular international terror tactics, culminating in the 1972 Munich Olympics massacre."
- "This cycle of armed resistance and international notoriety culminated in November 1974 when Yasser Arafat was invited to address the UN General Assembly in New York, securing global diplomatic legitimacy for the PLO while presenting his famous choice between 'an olive branch and a freedom fighter's gun'."

Causal Connectives: The crisis was initiated when • This directly triggered • A decisive turning point occurred when • Consequently • As a direct consequence • This situation culminated in

PAPER 2

Write exactly 2 analytical PEEL paragraphs (approx. 10–12 minutes). Divide your analysis into (1) Immediate / Short-Term Importance and (2) Long-Term / Strategic Significance. Always explain the difference the Yom Kippur War (October 1973) made for Arab-Israeli diplomacy and military perceptions.

[P1] Immediate / Short-Term Importance: Explain how Egypt's successful initial crossing of the Suez Canal (Operation Badr) shattered the myth of Israeli invincibility and restored Egyptian national honour.

[P2] Long-Term / Strategic Transformation: Explain how the OPEC oil embargo and superpower nuclear alert convinced the United States (via Henry Kissinger) that Middle Eastern peace was an urgent global priority, paving the way for Camp David.

Sentence Starters:

- "In the short term, the Yom Kippur War was of decisive importance because it shattered the dangerous Israeli myth of invincibility and restored Egyptian military honour following the humiliation of 1967."
- "This was demonstrated when Egyptian forces successfully crossed the Suez Canal under Operation Badr on 6 October 1973, breaching the heavily fortified Bar-Lev Line and inflicting catastrophic early casualties on Israeli armour using Soviet-supplied Sagger missiles."
- "In the long term, the war fundamentally transformed Middle Eastern diplomacy by convincing both Washington and Jerusalem that military occupation alone could not guarantee Israeli security."

Causal Connectives: In the short term, the Yom Kippur War (October 1973) was of decisive importance for Arab-Israeli diplomacy and military perceptions because • This was demonstrated when • In the long term, this fundamentally altered • Crucially, the strategic impact was that • Ultimately, the significance of the Yom Kippur War (October 1973) for Arab-Israeli diplomacy and military perceptions was that
