

Conflict in the Middle East

Key Topic 3: Attempts at Peace (1974-95)

Student Workbook

Name: _____

Class: _____

Specification Checklist & Inquiries

Done	Key Topic 3: Attempts at Peace (1974-95)	Core Inquiry Question
☐	The Camp David Accords (1978) and the Egyptian-Israeli Peace Treaty.	How did Egypt and Israel finally make peace?
☐	The Israeli invasion of Lebanon (1982) and the First Intifada (1987).	Why did conflict shift to Lebanon and the Occupied Territories?
☐	The Oslo Peace Accords (1993) and the assassination of Yitzhak Rabin (1995).	How close did Israel and the Palestinians come to a two-state solution?

TOPIC 3.1: CAMP DAVID & EGYPT-ISRAEL PEACE

CURRICULUM SPECIFICATION CHECKLIST (PEARSON EDEXCEL)

- ☐ The significance of the oil crisis and the involvement of the USA and the USSR.
- ☐ Kissinger, 'shuttle diplomacy' and the reopening of the Suez Canal.
- ☐ Sadat's visit to Israel (1977), Begin's visit to Egypt (1977), US President Carter and Camp David (1978) and the Treaty of Washington (1979).

Sadat Address to Knesset (Nov 1977)

"I come to you today on solid ground, to shape a new life, to establish peace. We accept to live with you in permanent peace and security. But peace is impossible without the withdrawal from occupied Arab land, including Arab Jerusalem."

Begin Speech at Camp David Signing (1978)

"The Camp David Accords are a great turning point. We have agreed on peace, security, and a framework for autonomy. I thank President Carter for his courage and Anwar Sadat for his vision."

Arab League Statement (Baghdad, 1979)

"The Egyptian government has betrayed the Arab nation and the rights of the Palestinian people by signing a unilateral peace with the Zionist entity. We hereby suspend Egypt's membership and withdraw all financial support."

Kahan Commission/Sharon Memo (1982)

"Dismantling our civilian settlements in Sinai (Yamit) is a painful cost of peace. But securing our southern border with Egypt allows us to concentrate our military assets elsewhere."

Shuttle Diplomacy Kissinger's flights between Middle East capitals to negotiate disengagement agreements.

Knesset Visit Sadat's historic 1977 address to the Israeli parliament in Jerusalem.

Menachem Begin Israeli Prime Minister who signed the Camp David Accords and the peace treaty.

Jimmy Carter US President who mediated the secret 13-day talks at Camp David in 1978.

Camp David Accords The 1978 frameworks for Egypt-Israel peace and West Bank autonomy.

Treaty of Washington Formal 1979 peace treaty signed by Egypt and Israel at the White House.

Sinai Withdrawal Israeli military and civilian evacuation of the Sinai Peninsula, completed in 1982.

Arab League Organization of Arab states which expelled Egypt in 1979 for signing the peace treaty.

Sadat Assassination 1981 assassination of Anwar Sadat by military officers opposed to peace with Israel.

Disengagement The physical separation of military forces after a conflict, brokered by Kissinger.

Autonomy Proposed self-government for Palestinians in the West Bank/Gaza, left unresolved.

Suez Canal reopen Waterway reopened in June 1975 following troop pullbacks from canal banks.

1. How did the US try to broker peace after Yom Kippur?

In the aftermath of the 1973 war, US Secretary of State Henry Kissinger engaged in shuttle diplomacy, flying repeatedly between Middle East capitals. His efforts brokered disengagement agreements in 1974 and 1975, which separated Israeli and Egyptian forces in Sinai and Syrian forces in the Golan Heights. Crucially, these treaties returned the banks of the Suez Canal to Egyptian control, allowing it to reopen to global shipping in June 1975, reducing superpower tensions.

2. Why was Sadat's visit to Jerusalem so historic?

In 1977, Anwar Sadat took a massive gamble to break the diplomatic deadlock. On 19 November 1977, he became the first Arab leader to visit Israel, addressing the Knesset (Israeli parliament) in Jerusalem. He offered formal peace in exchange for the return of all occupied territories. In response, Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin visited Egypt in December 1977. These visits broke decades of psychological barriers and prepared the ground for formal negotiations.

3. What were the terms of the Camp David agreements?

To secure a treaty, US President Jimmy Carter invited Sadat and Begin to the presidential retreat at Camp David in September 1978. After 13 days of intense, secret negotiations, they signed the Camp David Accords. The accords established two frameworks: (1) a peace treaty returning Sinai to Egypt, and (2) a framework for Palestinian self-government (autonomy) in the West Bank and Gaza, which remained vague and unresolved.

4. Why did the peace treaty anger the Arab world?

On 26 March 1979, Sadat and Begin signed the formal Treaty of Washington, ending 30 years of war. Israel withdrew all troops and settlements from the Sinai Peninsula in exchange for Egyptian diplomatic recognition and security guarantees. However, the Arab world viewed Sadat as a traitor, expelling Egypt from the Arab League and cutting off financial aid. In October 1981, Sadat was assassinated by Islamist extremists in Cairo, though the peace treaty survived.

Historical Interpretations: Contrasting Views

Interpretation 1: Harold Saunders (Pro-Treaty / Diplomatic Success Focus)

"The Camp David Accords were a monumental breakthrough that transformed Middle Eastern diplomacy. By bringing Israel and Egypt together, President Carter successfully ended the threat of a multi-front war against Israel, dismantled the settlements in Sinai, and proved that negotiation could replace decades of bloodshed."

Interpretation 2: Edward Said (Critical / Palestinian-Centric Focus)

"Camp David was a catastrophic separate peace that abandoned the Palestinians. By removing Egypt—the strongest Arab military power—from the conflict, Israel was neutralized on its southern border. This left Israel free to expand settlements in the West Bank and launch its devastating invasion of Lebanon in 1982 with total impunity."

Synthesis Tip: When evaluating Camp David, consider both its success as a bilateral peace treaty and its failure to resolve the wider Arab-Israeli and Palestinian conflicts.

Knowledge Check Tasks

- 1. Shuttle Diplomacy: Outline the aims and outcomes of Henry Kissinger's diplomacy.
- 2. Historic Visits: Describe Sadat's Knesset visit in 1977 and Menachem Begin's response.
- 3. Camp David Accords: Detail the role of President Carter and the two frameworks signed in 1978.
- 4. Treaty & Backlash: Analyze the 1979 Treaty of Washington and Egypt's subsequent isolation.

CORNELL NOTES • TOPIC 3.1: CAMP DAVID & EGYPT-ISRAEL PEACE

 DO NOW: RECALL FROM PREVIOUS LESSON

- Q1: When did the Yom Kippur War take place?
-
- Q2: What was the Bar Lev Line?
-
- Q3: How did the USA assist Israel during the Yom Kippur War?
-

1. Henry Kissinger's Shuttle (1974-75)

- What was shuttle diplomacy?
- What was its immediate impact?
- When did Suez Canal reopen?

Keywords:
Henry Kissinger, disengagement agreements, Suez Canal reopen 1975

2. Knesset Break (1977)

- Why did Sadat visit Israel?
- What did he demand?
- How did Begin respond?

Keywords:
Sadat visit 1977, address Knesset, Begin return visit, psychological barrier broke

3. Camp David Frameworks (1978) - Who hosted the summit? - How long did it last? - What were the two frameworks? Keywords: Jimmy Carter mediator, 13 days secret talks, Sinai return framework, Palestinian autonomy outline
4. Treaty and Arab Backlash - When was Washington Treaty? - Why was Egypt isolated? - What happened to Sadat? Keywords: Treaty of Washington 1979, Yamit settlement dismantled, Arab League expulsion, Sadat assassination 1981

GCSE EXAM PRACTICE • TOPIC 3.1: CAMP DAVID & EGYPT-ISRAEL PEACE

CURRICULUM SPECIFICATION CHECKLIST (PEARSON EDEXCEL)

- ☐ The significance of the oil crisis and the involvement of the USA and the USSR.
- ☐ Kissinger, 'shuttle diplomacy' and the reopening of the Suez Canal.
- ☐ Sadat's visit to Israel (1977), Begin's visit to Egypt (1977), US President Carter and Camp David (1978) and the Treaty of Washington (1979).

Question 1 [8 Marks]

Explain two consequences of the Camp David Accords (1978). (8 marks)

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.CONSEQUENCE RUBRIC (4 MARKS)

- ☐ [] Point: Clearly state one consequence of the event [1 Mark]
- ☐ [] Detail: Support with specific historical details (dates/names/key terms) [1 Mark]
- ☐ [] Explanation: Explain exactly how the consequence resulted from the event [2 Marks]

GCSE EXAM PRACTICE • TOPIC 3.1: CAMP DAVID & EGYPT-ISRAEL PEACE

Question 2 [8 Marks]

Write a narrative account analysing the key events in the diplomatic peace process between 1973 and 1979. (8 marks)

[illegible]

NARRATIVE ACCOUNT RUBRIC (8 MARKS)

- ☐ [] Sequence: Structure the account in clear chronological order (Beginning → Middle → End) [2 Marks]
- ☐ [] Linkage: Use connection words (e.g. 'This led to', 'As a direct result') to link events [2 Marks]
- ☐ [] Knowledge: Support with precise historical details (dates, names, key terms) [2 Marks]

☐ [] Analysis: Explain how the chain of events led to the final outcome [2 Marks]

TOPIC 3.2: LEBANON & THE RISE OF INTIFADA

CURRICULUM SPECIFICATION CHECKLIST (PEARSON EDEXCEL)

- ☐ Arafat's speech to the UN (1974).
- ☐ The significance of PLO activities in Lebanon.
- ☐ Israeli reprisals, the invasion of Lebanon (1982) and the results.
- ☐ The Israeli occupied territories and the First Palestinian Intifada (1987–93).

Ambassador Arafat Speech in Tunis (1983)

"They forced us out of Beirut, but they did not destroy our spirit. In Tunis, we remain the sole legitimate voice of our people. The struggle continues until we return."

Kahan Commission Report (1983)

"The decision to allow the Phalangists into the camps was made without considering the danger of revenge. The Defense Minister Ariel Sharon bears indirect responsibility for the atrocities."

Intifada Leaflet No. 1 (Dec 1987)

"O our people! Launch strikes, close your shops, block the roads, and confront the occupier's army with stones. This is a battle of popular resistance until we achieve independence!"

Rabin Address to IDF Officers (1988)

"We must restore order. We will use force, power, and blows to break their will. We will prove that violence against our soldiers does not pay."

Litani Operation 1978 Israeli military invasion of southern Lebanon to push back PLO bases.

Peace for Galilee Ariel Sharon's 1982 full-scale invasion of Lebanon to destroy the PLO.

Beirut Siege Israeli military blockade of West Beirut in 1982, forcing PLO exile to Tunis.

Sabra and Shatila Refugee camps where Christian Phalangists massacred hundreds of Palestinians under Israeli watch.

Ariel Sharon Israeli Defense Minister forced to resign after the Kahan Commission inquiry.

Hezbollah Shiite Islamist militant group formed in Lebanon to resist the Israeli occupation.

Intifada Arabic for 'uprising'; the grassroots Palestinian rebellion that began in December 1987.

Hamas Islamist militant organization founded in Gaza in 1987, opposing Israel and competing with PLO.

Iron Fist Rabin's military policy of using physical force and arrests to suppress the Intifada.

Kahan Commission Israeli inquiry that found government officials indirectly responsible for Sabra and Shatila.

Tunis Capital of Tunisia where the PLO relocated its headquarters in exile after being expelled from Beirut.

Stones Campaign The popular image of the Intifada, showing youth throwing stones at IDF armored vehicles.

1. How did the PLO destabilize Lebanon?

After expulsion from Jordan, the PLO established a state-within-a-state in South Lebanon ('Fatahland'), launching rocket attacks into northern Israel. This armed presence destabilized Lebanon's fragile Christian-Muslim sectarian balance, helping drag Lebanon into civil war in 1975. In March 1978, after a PLO bus hijacking, Israel launched the Litani Operation, invading South Lebanon to push PLO bases back from the border.

2. Why did Israel invade Lebanon in 1982?

In June 1982, following the attempted assassination of the Israeli ambassador in London, Defense Minister Ariel Sharon launched Operation Peace for Galilee, a full-scale invasion of Lebanon. Israeli forces besieged West Beirut, eventually forcing Yasser Arafat and the PLO to withdraw to Tunis. However, in September 1982, Israel's allied Christian Phalangist militia entered the refugee camps of Sabra and Shatila and massacred hundreds of civilians. An Israeli inquiry (the Kahan Commission) found Ariel Sharon indirectly responsible, forcing his resignation. The invasion also led to the rise of a new Shiite militant enemy: Hezbollah.

3. What caused the outbreak of the First Intifada?

In December 1987, decades of military occupation erupted into the First Palestinian Intifada ('Uprising') in Gaza and the West Bank. This was a grassroots movement featuring civil disobedience, strikes, boycotts, and youth throwing stones at IDF tanks. The uprising was not controlled by the exiled PLO leadership but by local committees. A new Islamist militant organization, Hamas, was founded in Gaza during the uprising, challenging the secular PLO.

4. How did Israel's response damage its international standing?

Israeli Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin ordered the IDF to suppress the uprising with physical force, implemented as the 'Iron Fist' policy (using force to break protesters' bones). The television coverage of heavily armed soldiers beating stone-throwing children drew international condemnation, turning global public opinion in favor of the Palestinian cause and forcing Israel to consider a political solution.

Historical Interpretations: Contrasting Views

Interpretation 1: Ahron Bregman (Israeli Defense / Security Focus)

"Israel's 1982 invasion of Lebanon was a necessary defensive action to eliminate the PLO's armed stronghold. For years, the PLO used 'Fatahland' in southern Lebanon to launch rocket strikes and terrorist raids on northern Israeli Galilee towns. The attempted assassination of Ambassador Argov was the final straw that forced Israel to secure its border."

Interpretation 2: Avi Shlaim (Critical / Pre-meditated Aggression Focus)

"Operation Peace for Galilee was an aggressive war of choice engineered by Defense Minister Ariel Sharon. The PLO had actually observed a ceasefire for a year. Sharon used the Argov shooting as a pretext to launch a pre-planned invasion, aiming to crush the PLO politically, destroy Palestinian national aspirations, and install a puppet Christian regime in Beirut."

Synthesis Tip: For questions on the Lebanon invasion, analyze whether the conflict was an immediate reaction to border provocations or part of a broader, pre-meditated geopolitical plan.

Knowledge Check Tasks

- 1. PLO in Lebanon: Explain the impact of the PLO's base in southern Lebanon.
- 2. 1982 Invasion & Massacre: Detail Operation Peace for Galilee and Sabra/Shatila.
- 3. The First Intifada: Describe the grassroots tactics and the founding of Hamas.
- 4. Rabin's Response: Detail the 'Iron Fist' policy and its international impact.

CORNELL NOTES • TOPIC 3.2: LEBANON & THE RISE OF INTIFADA

 DO NOW: RECALL FROM PREVIOUS LESSON

Q1: Which US President mediated the Camp David Accords?

Q2: Which territory did Israel agree to return to Egypt?

Q3: Why was Anwar Sadat assassinated in 1981?

1. PLO in Lebanon (1975-78)

- Why did PLO go to Lebanon?
- What was Fatahland?
- What was Litani Operation?

Keywords:
camps in South Lebanon, Litani
Operation 1978, destabilization of Lebanon

2. 1982 Invasion & Outflow

- What was Sharon's goal?
- Why Tunis exile?
- What was Hezbollah?

Keywords:
Ariel Sharon planning, siege of West
Beirut, PLO exile to Tunis, Hezbollah rise

3. Sabra and Shatila Massacre

- Who did the killings?
- What was Kahan Commission?
- What happened to Sharon?

Keywords:

Phalangist militia massacre, Kahan
Commission report, Sharon resignation, moral outcry

4. First Intifada (1987)

- When/where did it start?
- What was Hamas?
- What was Iron Fist?

Keywords:

- uprising in Gaza, stone-throwing youth,
- Rabin Iron Fist policy, founding of Hamas

GCSE EXAM PRACTICE • TOPIC 3.2: LEBANON & THE RISE OF INTIFADA

CURRICULUM SPECIFICATION CHECKLIST (PEARSON EDEXCEL)

- ☐ Arafat's speech to the UN (1974).
- ☐ The significance of PLO activities in Lebanon.
- ☐ Israeli reprisals, the invasion of Lebanon (1982) and the results.
- ☐ The Israeli occupied territories and the First Palestinian Intifada (1987–93).

Question 1 [8 Marks]

Explain two causes of the First Intifada (1987-93). (8 marks)

This image shows a full page of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page, typical of notebook paper. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.

SELF-EVALUATION RUBRIC

- ☐ [] Answered in full, grammatically correct sentences.
- ☐ [] Included specific historical details (dates, names, events).
- ☐ [] Explained the connection between cause and consequence or narrative progression.

GCSE EXAM PRACTICE • TOPIC 3.2: LEBANON & THE RISE OF INTIFADA

Question 2 [8 Marks]

Explain two consequences of the Israeli invasion of Lebanon (1982). (8 marks)

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.CONSEQUENCE RUBRIC (4 MARKS)

- ☐ [] Point: Clearly state one consequence of the event [1 Mark]
- ☐ [] Detail: Support with specific historical details (dates/names/key terms) [1 Mark]

☐ [] Explanation: Explain exactly how the consequence resulted from the event [2 Marks]

TOPIC 3.3: PEACE PROCESS & OSLO ACCORDS

CURRICULUM SPECIFICATION CHECKLIST (PEARSON EDEXCEL)

- ☐ The significance of Arafat's renunciation of terrorism in a speech at the UN (1988).
- ☐ Changing superpower policies in the Middle East: US involvement in the Gulf War (1991), and the end of the Cold War.
- ☐ Arafat, Rabin and the Oslo Accords (1993); the setting up of the Palestinian National Authority; Israel-Jordan peace treaty (1994); Oslo II (1995).

Oslo I Declaration of Principles (Sept 1993)

"The Government of Israel and the PLO agree that it is time to put an end to decades of confrontation. We recognize our mutual legitimate and political rights and strive to live in peaceful coexistence."

Rabin Speech at White House (Sept 1993)

"We who have fought against you, the Palestinians, say to you today in a loud voice: Enough of blood and tears. Enough! We harbor no hatred. We open a new chapter."

Hamas Leaflet (1994)

"The Oslo Accords are a sell-out of our holy land and our refugees. We do not recognize this surrender. Our military wing will continue the jihad and suicide bombings until all of Palestine is liberated."

Yigal Amir Statement to Police (Nov 1995)

"I acted alone on God's orders to save this country. Rabin was giving away our ancestral homeland of Judea and Samaria to terrorists. He had to be stopped."

Madrid Conference 1991 peace summit organized by US/USSR, bringing Israel and Arab states together for the first time.

Gulf War 1991 conflict where Arafat's support for Iraq isolated the PLO and cut off Gulf aid.

Oslo I The 1993 Declaration of Principles establishing Palestinian self-rule frameworks.

Declaration of Principles Oslo framework where PLO recognized Israel and Israel recognized PLO.

Yasser Arafat PLO Chairman who renounced terrorism and became head of the Palestinian Authority.

Yitzhak Rabin Israeli Prime Minister assassinated in 1995 by a Jewish extremist opposed to Oslo.

Palestinian Authority The self-governing body established in 1994 to rule Gaza and West Bank cities.

Israel-Jordan Treaty Historic 1994 peace treaty ending the state of war between Israel and Jordan.

Oslo II 1995 agreement dividing the West Bank into Areas A, B, and C.

Areas A, B, and C Security zones dividing West Bank authority between Israel and the PNA.

Yigal Amir Right-wing Jewish extremist who assassinated Yitzhak Rabin in November 1995.

Bill Clinton US President who hosted the historic Rabin-Arafat handshake in September 1993.

1. How did global changes push the PLO towards peace?

The end of the Cold War and the collapse of the Soviet Union cut off financial and military aid to Arab states. During the Gulf War (1991), Yasser Arafat isolated the PLO by backing Saddam Hussein's invasion of Kuwait, which led oil-rich Gulf states to cut off funding. As the sole superpower, the US used its leverage to bring both Israel and Arab states to the Madrid Conference in October 1991, establishing the principle of direct peace talks.

2. What breakthroughs were made at Oslo?

In 1992, the election of Yitzhak Rabin as Israeli PM opened new opportunities. In early 1993, secret negotiations took place in Norway. This led to Oslo I (the Declaration of Principles). Yasser Arafat renounced terrorism and recognized Israel's right to exist, while Rabin recognized the PLO as the representative of the Palestinians. On 13 September 1993, Rabin and Arafat shook hands on the White House lawn, hosted by Bill Clinton.

3. How were the Oslo Accords put into practice?

Oslo I established the Palestinian National Authority (PNA), granting self-rule in Gaza and Jericho. In October 1994, Rabin and King Hussein signed the Israel-Jordan Peace Treaty, ending a 46-year state of war. In September 1995, Oslo II was signed, dividing the West Bank into three zones: Area A (full Palestinian control), Area B (Palestinian civil, Israeli security control), and Area C (full Israeli control, containing Jewish settlements).

4. Why did the peace process ultimately stall?

The accords faced fierce opposition. Hamas launched suicide bombings to derail the peace process, while right-wing Israelis accused Rabin of treason. On 4 November 1995, at a peace rally in Tel Aviv, Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin was assassinated by Yigal Amir, a right-wing Jewish extremist. This tragedy froze the peace process, leaving permanent borders and statehood unresolved.

Historical Interpretations: Contrasting Views

Interpretation 1: Dennis Ross (Liberal / Optimistic Process Focus)

"The Oslo Accords were a vital, courageous breakthrough that ended decades of rejectionism. For the first time, Rabin and Arafat shook hands and recognized each other's legitimacy. It created the Palestinian Authority, initiated self-government, and established a realistic step-by-step framework that built trust toward a two-state solution."

Interpretation 2: Edward Said (Radical / Skeptical Post-Colonial Focus)

"The Oslo Accord was an instrument of Palestinian capitulation, a 'Palestinian Versailles.' It was a deeply flawed agreement that postponed all critical issues—Jerusalem, refugees, and borders—while creating a fragmented authority that acted as Israel's security policeman, allowing Israel to double its settlement population in the occupied lands."

Synthesis Tip: The Oslo Accords are highly debated. Some historians view them as a tragic, missed opportunity cut short by Rabin's assassination, while others see them as structurally designed to fail from the start.

Knowledge Check Tasks

- 1. Gulf War Isolation: Explain how the Gulf War and Cold War end forced the PLO to negotiate.
- 2. Oslo I & Handshake: Outline the mutual recognition terms of the 1993 agreement.
- 3. PNA & Area Division: Detail the creation of the PNA and the division of the West Bank.
- 4. Opposition & Assassination: Analyze the forces that derailed the peace process in 1995.

CORNELL NOTES • TOPIC 3.3: PEACE PROCESS & OSLO ACCORDS

DO NOW: RECALL FROM PREVIOUS LESSON

Q1: What was the PLO's base of operations before they were exiled to Tunisia in 1982?

Q2: What were the Sabra and Shatila massacres?

Q3: What grassroots uprising began in the occupied territories in 1987?

1. Geopolitical Realignment (1990-91)

- How did Cold War end affect Arabs?
- Why was PLO isolated in Gulf War?
- What was Madrid Conference?

Keywords:

Cold War collapse, Gulf War isolation,
Saddam support, Madrid Conference
1991

2. Oslo I Accords (1993)

- Who negotiated secretly?
- What was mutual recognition?
- What was the White House handshake?

Keywords:

Norway secret talks, mutual recognition,
White House handshake, Bill Clinton hosting

3. Palestinian Authority & Zones - What was PNA? - What was Jordan Peace (1994)? - How did Oslo II split West Bank? Keywords: Gaza-Jericho self-rule, Jordan peace treaty 1994, Oslo II Areas A/B/C, settlements in Area C
4. Extremist Backlash (1995) - How did Hamas oppose Oslo? - Why did Israelis protest? - What was Rabin's fate? Keywords: Hamas suicide bombings, right-wing Israeli protests, assassination of Rabin, Yigal Amir Tel Aviv

GCSE EXAM PRACTICE • TOPIC 3.3: PEACE PROCESS & OSLO ACCORDS

 CURRICULUM SPECIFICATION CHECKLIST (PEARSON EDEXCEL)

- ☐ The significance of Arafat's renunciation of terrorism in a speech at the UN (1988).
- ☐ Changing superpower policies in the Middle East: US involvement in the Gulf War (1991), and the end of the Cold War.
- ☐ Arafat, Rabin and the Oslo Accords (1993); the setting up of the Palestinian National Authority; Israel-Jordan peace treaty (1994); Oslo II (1995).

Question 1 [8 Marks]

Explain two consequences of the Oslo Accords (1993). (8 marks)

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.CONSEQUENCE RUBRIC (4 MARKS)

- ☐ [] Point: Clearly state one consequence of the event [1 Mark]
- ☐ [] Detail: Support with specific historical details (dates/names/key terms) [1 Mark]
- ☐ [] Explanation: Explain exactly how the consequence resulted from the event [2 Marks]

GCSE EXAM PRACTICE • TOPIC 3.3: PEACE PROCESS & OSLO ACCORDS

Question 2 [8 Marks]

How far do you agree that changing superpower involvement was the main reason for the Oslo Accords? (16 marks)

This image shows a full page of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page, typical of notebook paper. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.

SELF-EVALUATION RUBRIC

- ☐ [] Answered in full, grammatically correct sentences.
- ☐ [] Included specific historical details (dates, names, events).
- ☐ [] Explained the connection between cause and consequence or narrative progression.

KT3 EXAM PRACTICE BANK

Consequence (4 Marks)

Question: Explain one consequence of Sadat's visit to Israel in 1977.

Question: Explain one consequence of the Israeli invasion of Lebanon in 1982.

Question: Explain one consequence of the First Palestinian Intifada (1987).

Question: Explain one consequence of Yasser Arafat's support for Saddam Hussein in the 1991 Gulf War.

Narrative (8 Marks)

Question: Write a narrative account of the peace process in the years 1993–95 leading to the division of the West Bank.

You may use the following in your answer: • Oslo I Accords (1993) • Oslo II (1995)

Importance (16 Marks)

Question: Explain the importance of the Camp David Accords (1978) for Arab-Israeli relations.

You may use the following in your answer: • Sinai return • Palestinian autonomy framework