HISTORICAL PRIMARY RECORD • SEPTEMBER 1938

Hitler Youth Review at the Nuremberg Party Congress

Over 50,000 members of the Hitlerjugend parade before Hitler, reflecting the total militarisation of German children. Accession Shelfmark BA 183-1987-0703-508.

PEARSON EDEXCEL GCSE (9–1) HISTORY SPECIFICATION CONTENT — OFFICIAL SPECIFICATION CONTENT

1. WOMEN & FAMILY (1933–39)

- Nazi views on women: Kinder, Küche, Kirche, domesticity, opposition to Weimar "New Woman"
- Marriage & family laws: Law for Encouragement of Marriage (1933, 1,000 mark loans), Mother's Cross
- Lebensborn programme, birth control clinics closed, abortion made illegal
- Employment restrictions: exclusion of female civil servants, doctors, lawyers; 1937 labour shortage reversal

2. YOUTH & EDUCATION (1933–39)

- Hitler Youth (Hitlerjugend): aims, militaristic training, compulsory membership from March 1939
- League of German Girls (BDM): domestic training, physical fitness, racial purity
- Education: Nazified curriculum, Race Studies, PE emphasis, rewriting of history textbooks
- Elite training schools: National Political Educational Institutes (Napolas) & Adolf Hitler Schools

3. ECONOMY & PERSECUTION (1933–39)

- Reducing unemployment: National Labour Service (RAD), Autobahns, conscription & rearmament
- Living standards: DAF (German Labour Front), KdF (Strength Through Joy), Beauty of Labour, Volkswagen scheme
- Racial beliefs: Aryan master race (Herrenvolk), anti-Semitism, persecution of Slavs, Roma, disabled
- Anti-Jewish measures: 1933 shop boycott, 1935 Nuremberg Laws, 1938 Kristallnacht, economic exclusion

LIVING TIMELINE • PART 1: CHRONOLOGICAL ANCHORS (KEY TOPIC 4)

Instructions: As you study each enquiry lesson, complete the timeline missions by sketching and annotating in the corresponding dual-coding sketchpads below.

JUN 1933 • Law for the Encouragement of Marriage

KEY TOPIC 4.1

The Nazi state offers marriage loans of up to 1,000 marks to newlywed Aryan couples, provided the bride gives up her job. For each child born, 25% of the loan is permanently cancelled, boosting the national birth rate.

15 SEP 1935 • Enactment of the Nuremberg Racial Laws

KEY TOPIC 4.4

Announced at the Nuremberg Rally, the Reich Citizenship Law strips German Jews of citizenship and voting rights. The Law for the Protection of German Blood and Honour makes marriage and sexual relations between Jews and Aryans illegal.

MAR 1935 • Introduction of Military Conscription & Rearmament

KEY TOPIC 4.3

Hitler openly renounces the Versailles disarmament clauses, announcing a peacetime army of 550,000 men and the creation of the Luftwaffe. Massive military rearmament absorbs hundreds of thousands of unemployed German workers.

LIVING TIMELINE • PART 2: CHRONOLOGICAL ANCHORS (KEY TOPIC 4)

Instructions: Complete the dual-coding sketches to permanently anchor these chronological turning points in long-term memory.

DEC 1936 • First Hitler Youth Law Passed

KEY TOPIC 4.2

All non-Nazi youth organisations (Catholic and sporting clubs) are banned or absorbed. Membership of the Hitlerjugend becomes effectively expected for all children aged 10–18, and is made strictly compulsory in March 1939.

9–10 NOV 1938 • Kristallnacht (The Night of Broken Glass)

KEY TOPIC 4.4

Following the assassination of diplomat Ernst vom Rath in Paris, Goebbels unleashes nationwide anti-Jewish pogroms. SA and SS mobs burn over 1,000 synagogues, destroy 7,500 Jewish businesses, murder 91 Jews, and send 30,000 Jewish men to concentration camps.

1 SEP 1939 • Invasion of Poland & Outbreak of War

KEY TOPIC 4.3

Germany invades Poland, triggering World War Two in Europe. The four-year drive for economic autarky (self-sufficiency) shifts into total war mobilization, and persecution of minorities escalates toward mass deportation and murder.

How and why did Nazi policies attempt to restrict women to traditional roles, and why did this policy reverse after 1937?

Core Specification Focus: Policies Towards Women: views on women and family; marriage laws and loans (1933); Mother's Cross; Lebensborn; changes in employment (1933–37) and rearmament labor reversal (1937–39).

1 1933 • How did the regime attempt to remove women from public professions?	[1.1]
• Banning female lawyers, doctors, and civil servants
• Reversing Weimar era educational and workplace gains
• Wearing plain unvarnished faces and braided traditional hair

2 Jun 1933 • How were financial loans used to encourage childbearing and lower unemployment?	[2.1]
• Offering thousand-mark interest-free vouchers to newlyweds
• Deducting twenty-five percent debt for each newborn infant
• Requiring bride to surrender permanent job upon wedding

3 1935–1938 • How did honors and breeding centres aim to expand the Aryan population?	[3.1]
• Awarding gold medals for bearing eight or more children
• Hitler Youth required to salute medal-holders in street
• Establishing maternity homes for unmarried racially pure mothers

4 1933–1935 • How did eugenics legislation enforce biological selection on German families?	[4.1]
• Enacting Law for Prevention of Hereditarily Diseased Offspring
• Sterilising three hundred thousand women with mental illnesses
• Barring couples with genetic disabilities from marriage licences

5 1937–1939 • Why did the Four-Year Plan force the regime to abandon its domestic ideology?	[5.1]
• Hermann Goering demanding female labour for munitions plants
• Compulsory Duty Year forcing unmarried girls into agriculture
• Seven million women working in factories by outbreak of war

"Hitler Youth: Compulsory by 1939; boys trained for the battlefield, girls trained for domesticity."

How did the Nazi regime use schooling, teacher purges, and youth organisations to indoctrinate German children?

Core Specification Focus: Policies Towards the Young: Hitler Youth and League of German Girls (BDM); education policies (curriculum, textbooks); control of teachers (NSLB); elite schools (Napolas).

1 1933–1936 • How did the Hitler Youth prepare boys for future conscription and combat? [1.1]
• Training boys in compass reading and trench warfare
• Marching on overnight hikes carrying heavy military packs
• Passing fitness tests before receiving official pocket knives

2 1933–1936 • How did the BDM train adolescent girls for motherhood and domestic duty? [2.1]
• Exercising in blue skirts and white blouses outdoors
• Learning domestic cooking and infant hygiene skills
• Singing campfire folk songs celebrating racial community

3 1936–1939 • Why did the regime make youth group attendance legally compulsory in 1939? [3.1]
• Banning rival church youth groups and scout troops
• Passing law making youth service compulsory for all children
• Drafting eight million children into uniform by war outbreak

4 1933–1937 • How did the regime ensure that school teachers actively delivered propaganda? [4.1]
• Firing Jewish and politically unreliable educators from classrooms
• Ninety-seven percent of teachers joining national league
• Attending compulsory ideological camps during school holidays

5 1933–1939 • How were academic subjects rewritten to reinforce racial theory and militarism? [5.1]
• Allocating fifteen percent of timetable to physical fitness
• Calculating military bombing runs in mathematics word problems
• Establishing Napolas and Adolf Hitler boarding academies for leaders

Did the standard of living improve for German workers under Nazi rule between 1933 and 1939?

Core Specification Focus: Employment & Living Standards: reduction of unemployment (RAD, autobahns, rearmament, conscription); invisible unemployment; Labour Front (DAF), Strength Through Joy (KdF), Beauty of Labour (SdA); real wages vs cost of living.

1 May 1933 • How did the DAF destroy independent collective bargaining for wages?	[1.1]
• Arresting union bosses and seizing headquarters buildings
• Robert Ley establishing single compulsory state labour organisation
• Outlawing strikes and freezing basic hourly wages

2 1933–1935 • How did public works and motorway construction artificially reduce jobless figures?	[2.1]
• Sending young men to live in barracks for six months
• Shovelling dirt without machinery to build motorways
• Earning pocket money while wearing spade badge uniforms

3 1935–1939 • Why was the Nazi claim of full employment statistically misleading?	[3.1]
• Reintroducing military draft for half a million youths
• Excluding unmarried women and dismissed Jews from counts
• Arresting political opponents as asocials in workhouses

4 1933–1939 • How did leisure schemes compensate workers for lost political rights?	[4.1]
• Booking subsidized Mediterranean cruises for factory staff
• Saving five marks weekly toward stamp book for car
• Installing factory canteens and improved workshop ventilation

5 1936–1939 • How did total rearmament erode real worker purchasing power by 1939?	[5.1]
• Goering prioritizing steel factories over consumer goods
• Working hours climbing to forty-seven per week
• Rationing butter and meat while synthetic petrol developed

"Strength Through Joy (KdF): Cheap theatre tickets and cruises, but the Volkswagen car scheme was a con."

"Racial Hierarchy: Aryan Herrenvolk placed at the top; Jews, Roma, and Slavs classified as Untermenschen."

How and why did Nazi persecution of Jews and other minority groups escalate between 1933 and 1939?

Core Specification Focus: Persecution of Minorities: racial hierarchy and Herrenvolk; persecution of disabled, Roma, and homosexuals; anti-Semitic measures (1933 boycott, 1935 Nuremberg Laws, 1938 Kristallnacht).

1 1933 • How did the regime initiate public state-sponsored antisemitic discrimination?	[1.1]
• Placing Aryans atop biological hierarchy and others beneath
• Stormtroopers standing outside department stores with placards
• Excluding Jewish civil servants from government administrative posts

2 Sep 1935 • Why did the Nuremberg Laws turn antisemitism into legal statute?	[2.1]
• Stripping German Jews of civil rights and passport vote
• Outlawing marriage and sexual relations with German blood
• Classifying citizens through grandfather parish baptism records

3 1933–1938 • How did racial hygiene theories target groups outside the racial community?	[3.1]
• Deporting Roma into municipal camps on city outskirts
• Sending pink-triangle prisoners to concentration camp barracks
• Compulsorily sterilising patients diagnosed with schizophrenia

4 9–10 Nov 1938 • How did the November pogrom mark a decisive shift toward violent state terror?	[4.1]
• Goebbels ordering SA in plain clothes into streets
• Shattering windows of seven thousand Jewish shops
• Burning thousand synagogues as police instructed to watch

5 1938–1939 • How did the regime eliminate all remaining Jewish participation in economic life?	[5.1]
• Imposing one-billion-mark fine on community for damages
• Banning children from attending German state primary schools
• Central Office for Jewish Emigration expelling thousands penniless

Question 3(a): Source Utility [8 marks • 12 mins]

SOURCE B

Front-page article in the Nazi newspaper Völkischer Beobachter, 3 May 1933

From the official Nazi Party newspaper, published the day after SA stormtroopers raided and dissolved all independent German trade unions, May 1933.

"German workers! Your trade unions were corrupted by Marxist class hatred. Today, the National Socialist state has liberated you! By order of the Führer, the German Labour Front (DAF) under Dr. Robert Ley has assumed leadership of all working Germans. Henceforth, employers and workers are united as comrades in the service of the nation. Strike and lockout are abolished forever!"

SOURCE C

Contemporary photograph of Reich Labour Service (RAD) workers building an Autobahn, 1936

From a photograph published in a German magazine, 1936. It shows young men of the Reich Labour Service (RAD) clearing ground for the construction of a new autobahn.

Under the Reich Labour Service Law of June 1935, all young men aged 18 to 25 were compelled to serve six months in the RAD before entering the military. They lived in military-style barracks, wore uniforms, and performed hard manual labour—draining wetlands, planting forests, and building motorways—for pocket money rather than a regular wage.

HISTORICAL INTERPRETATIONS 1 AND 2

Target: How and why historians differ (AO4)

INTERPRETATION 1

From an account by historian Richard Grunberger, A Social History of the Third Reich (1971)

"For the vast majority of German industrial workers, the Nazi era brought tangible improvements in everyday life. Unemployment was eliminated within four years, replacing the terror of the Great Depression with guaranteed employment and steady earnings. Through the 'Strength Through Joy' (KdF) organization, millions of ordinary workers enjoyed subsidised theatre tickets, sports facilities, and cruise holidays to Norway and Italy that had previously been the exclusive preserve of the rich. The 'Beauty of Labour' campaign renovated factory canteens, washrooms, and ventilation, creating genuinely improved working conditions."

From an account by historian Tim Mason, Social Policy in the Third Reich (1993)

"The claim that German workers experienced a higher standard of living under National Socialism is thoroughly misleading. In return for full employment, workers surrendered all basic rights and freedoms. Real wages remained below 1928 levels while compulsory deductions for the Labour Front, winter relief, and state insurance consumed up to thirty percent of pay packets. Furthermore, the average working week rose from forty-three hours in 1933 to forty-seven hours in 1939. Stripped of the right to strike and tied to their jobs by the Labour Book, workers suffered declining living standards."

Study Interpretations 1 and 2. They give different views about the standard of living of German workers in the years 1933–1939. What is the main difference between these views? [4 marks] Score: [/ 4]
