The Great War: 1914–1919

Industrial Slaughter, Global Sacrifice, Total War & The Flawed Peace

The Signing of Peace in the Hall of Mirrors, Versailles (28 June 1919)

Sir William Orpen (1878–1931)

On 28 June 1919, exactly five years after the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, Allied statesmen gathered in the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles to impose peace upon defeated Germany:

1. THE BIG THREE & CONFLICTING AGENDAS:
Seated at the centre are Woodrow Wilson (League of Nations), Georges Clemenceau (disarmament and reparations), and David Lloyd George (imperial compromise).

2. THE IMPOSITION OF THE DIKTAT:
In the foreground, German envoys Johannes Bell and Hermann Müller sign Article 231 (War Guilt) and £6.6bn in reparations without negotiation under naval blockade.

3. GLOBAL IMPERIAL REPRESENTATION:
Flanked behind the leaders stand imperial dignitaries—including the Maharaja of Bikaner—symbolising over 4 million colonial troops who sustained Allied victory.

4. THE SEEDS OF FUTURE CONFLICT:
Above, the ceiling proclaims 'Le Roy Gouverne' ('The King Governs'), foreshadowing Marshal Foch's warning: 'This is not peace. It is an armistice for twenty years.'

THE BIG THREE	GERMAN ENVOYS	HALL OF MIRRORS
Wilson, Clemenceau, Lloyd George.	Signing Article 231 (War Guilt).	1871 German Empire reversed.

SIGNIFICANCE: The Treaty of Versailles formally concluded the Great War, dismantled four European empires, and created the economic and territorial grievances that paved the road to the Second World War.

HINGE QUESTION:
Did the Allied peacemakers at Versailles make another war inevitable through excessive severity, or was the fatal weakness their failure to enforce the treaty's military terms when challenged in the 1930s?

Medium & Provenance: Oil on canvas (152.4 × 127 cm) • Official War Art Commission — IMPERIAL WAR MUSEUM, LONDON • ART 2856

Why were young British men so desperate to volunteer for the slaughter of 1914?

Core Specification Focus: Lack of peacetime conscription; Lord Kitchener's recruitment campaign; moral outrage over the invasion of neutral Belgium; Pals Battalions (Pompey Pals); economic poverty & the King's Shilling; propaganda posters & White Feather shame.

CHRONOLOGICAL INQUIRY SPINE • CORE CAUSAL NARRATIVE Construct your causal explanation for each stage incorporating the core trigger terms

1 Text [1.1–1.2] Aug 1914 • What forced Britain to launch Kitchener's urgent call for 500,000 volunteers?

- BEF Limited to 120,000 Men
- Absence of Peacetime Conscription
- Massive Voluntary Mobilisation

2 Text [2.1–2.2] Aug–Sept 1914 • How did the invasion of Belgium spark genuine moral outrage and civic duty?

- 1839 London Treaty Guarantor
- Reported Civilian Brutalities
- Righteous International Crusade

3 Text [3.1–3.2] Sept 1914 • Why did workplace camaraderie and local pride drive the formation of Pals Battalions?

- Factory, Office & Club Units
- Shared Civic Identity
- Communities Enlisting En Masse

4 Text [4.1–4.2] Autumn 1914 • In what ways did poverty, adventure, and the King's Shilling lure young recruits?

- Guaranteed Meals & Clean Uniforms
- Escape from Industrial Deprivation
- Short-War Euphoria Illusion

5 Text [5.1–5.2] Late 1914 • How did state propaganda and social coercion make refusal to enlist unbearable?

- Alfred Leete Finger Poster
- White Feather Humiliation Stigma
- Overwhelming Moral Coercion

In August and September 1914 alone, over 750,000 British men volunteered—creating the largest citizen army in British history.

Enquiry Writing Task [12 marks • 15 mins]

EXTENDED WRITING PRACTICE

Explain why young British men volunteered in such massive numbers in the autumn of 1914. [12 marks]

Stimulus: The moral outrage surrounding the German invasion of Belgium (1914) | The creation of civic Pals Battalions (e.g. Pompey Pals) (You must also use information of your own)

ANALYTICAL CONNECTIVES:

One primary reason was... • This encouraged enlistment because... • Furthermore, social pressure contributed to... • Crucially, shared identity ensured that... • In consequence, this resulted in...

KEY VOCABULARY BANK:

Pals Battalions • Lord Kitchener • Treaty of London • Pompey Pals • King's Shilling • White Feather • voluntary enlistment • civic patriotism • 750,000 recruits

Task: Using the vocabulary and connectives above, write your analytical response below:

CENTREFOLD SKETCH CHALLENGES 1 & 3

Turn to Centrefold • Pages 8–9 →

Milestone 1 (August 1914): Turn to Centrefold (Pages 8–9). Sketch Lord Kitchener's pointing finger and the massive voluntary recruitment queues outside town halls [👉 pointing finger • 📜 enlistment papers • 🚶 queue of volunteers].

The Pompey Pals (14th & 15th Battalions, Hampshire Regiment) were formed by local Portsmouth and Fareham dockers, clerks, and sportsmen.

Did British military generals make trench slaughter worse, or was Haig trapped in an industrial learning curve?

Core Specification Focus: Stalemate on the Western Front; trench system architecture; machine guns & artillery dominance; Battle of the Somme (1 July 1916); General Sir Douglas Haig debate ("Butcher of the Somme" vs modernising general).

CHRONOLOGICAL INQUIRY SPINE • CORE CAUSAL NARRATIVE Construct your causal explanation for each stage incorporating the core trigger terms

1 Text [1.1–1.2] Autumn 1914 • What forced armies underground into a 400-mile line of industrial stalemate?

- Flanking Race to the North Sea
- Devastating Maxim Machine-Gun Fire
- Impassable Continental Fortifications

2 Text [2.1–2.2] 1915 • How was the three-tier trench system constructed, traversed, and defended?

- Front-Line, Support & Reserve Belts
- Deep Subterranean Dugouts
- Interlocking Killing Zones

3 Text [3.1–3.2] 1915–1916 • What lethal physical and psychological trauma did infantry endure in the mud?

- Waterlogged Slime & Gangrene
- Relentless Heavy Shelling
- Neurasthenia & Mental Breakdown

4 Text [4.1–4.2] 1 July 1916 • Why did the First Day of the Somme become the bloodiest disaster in British history?

- 1.5 Million Shell Bombardment
- Uncut Wire & Concrete Redoubts
- 57,470 Casualties Suffered

5 Text [5.1–5.2] 1916–1918 • Was Sir Douglas Haig a callous "butcher" or a commander learning total war?

- Attritional Frontal Assaults
- Technological Transition Trials
- 1918 Combined-Arms Breakthrough

On 1 July 1916, the British Army suffered 57,470 casualties—including 19,240 dead—the bloodiest single day in British military history.

Task A: Describe Two Features [4 marks • 5 mins]

FEATURE DRILL

Describe two features of the trench defensive systems on the Western Front. [4 marks]

Sentence Stems: Feature 1: One key feature was... • Detail: Specifically, this meant that... • Feature 2: A second key feature was... • Detail: This was designed to...

Task B: Explain Why [8 marks • 10 mins]

STRUCTURED WRITING

Explain why the First Day of the Somme (1 July 1916) resulted in catastrophic British casualties. [8 marks]

Stimulus:

- The failure of the 7-day artillery bombardment to cut German barbed wire
- German soldiers sheltering in deep underground concrete dugouts

Analytical Connectives: The primary cause of the catastrophic casualties was... • This proved fatal for advancing infantry because... • Furthermore, defensive firepower meant that... • Consequently, the outcome was...

Key Terms: General Sir Douglas Haig • 7-day bombardment • uncut barbed wire • concrete dugouts • Spandau Maxim machine guns • No Man's Land • 57,470 casualties

CENTREFOLD SKETCH CHALLENGES 2 & 3

Turn to Centrefold • Pages 8–9 →

Milestone 3 (1 July 1916 • The Somme): Turn to Centrefold (Pages 8–9). Sketch the German concrete machine-gun redoubt firing across uncut wire at the advancing Pals Battalions [🧱 concrete bunker • ⚙️ Maxim gun • 〰️ barbed wire].

Historians remain divided over Douglas Haig: 1960s critics labelled him a "butcher", while modern scholars view him as a commander mastering an unprecedented technological r

Why were the military contributions of 4 million colonial troops and labourers marginalized in postwar British memory?

Core Specification Focus: Global reach of the British Empire; 1.5 million Indian soldiers on the Western Front and in Mesopotamia; West India Regiment and King's African Rifles; Chinese Labour Corps; Gallipoli campaign and ANZAC identity; systemic imperial racial hierarchies and commemorative erasure.

CHRONOLOGICAL INQUIRY SPINE • CORE CAUSAL NARRATIVE Construct your causal explanation for each stage incorporating the core trigger terms

1 Text [1.1–1.2] 1914 • Why was Britain completely dependent on mobilising 4 million imperial subjects?

- Dominions & Crown Colony Regiments
- Critical Food, Oil & Grain Convoys
- Sustained Global War Effort

2 Text [2.1–2.2] 1914–1915 • How crucially did 1.5 million Indian soldiers save the crumbling Allied line at Ypres?

- Lahore & Meerut Divisions Deploy
- Freezing Mud & Winter Trenches
- Sepoy Khudadad Khan VC Bravery

3 Text [3.1–3.2] 1915 • Why did the catastrophe of Gallipoli forge national identity for Australia and New Zealand?

- Steep Shrapnel-Swept Cliffs
- Mustafa Kemal's Ottoman Resistance
- Emergence of ANZAC Nationhood

4 Text [4.1–4.2] 1916–1918 • In what ways did the Chinese Labour Corps and African Pioneers sustain Allied logistics?

- 140,000 Contracted Workers
- Heavy Munitions & Rail Maintenance
- Strict Compound Curfews Imposed

5 Text [5.1–5.2] Post-1918 • Why were non-white colonial soldiers denied equal pensions, medals, and remembrance?

- Imperial War Graves Commission Policy
- Unmarked Mass Burial Sites
- Whitewashed Post-War Commemoration

Over 1.5 million Indian soldiers served in the Great War; Sepoy Khadadad Khan was the first South Asian recipient of the Victoria Cross.

Enquiry Writing Task [8 marks • 10 mins]

HISTORIOGRAPHICAL ANALYSIS

INTERPRETATION 1 • LORD CURZON, BRITISH WAR CABINET MINISTER, SPEECH AT THE ROYAL ALBERT HALL (1917)

"The Indian Army and the troops from our dominions have rushed forward with magnificent devotion to defend the King-Emperor. Side by side with their British brothers-in-arms, they have shed their blood on the plains of Flanders, Gallipoli, and Egypt. This imperial brotherhood proves that the British Empire is held together not by force, but by mutual love, loyalty, and common sacrifice."

INTERPRETATION 2 • DAVID OLUSOGA, MODERN BRITISH HISTORIAN, THE WORLD'S WAR (2014)

"Over four million non-white men were mobilised as combatants and labourers by Britain. Yet their treatment was defined by systemic racism. Black and Asian soldiers were barred from becoming officers, paid a fraction of British wages, and subjected to brutal floggings. After 1918, the Imperial War Graves Commission deliberately refused to give African dead individual headstones. Their sacrifice was whitewashed from British national memory."

Task A: Explain how Interpretations 1 and 2 differ about the experiences of colonial troops in the Great War. [4 marks]

PART B

Sentence Stems: Interpretation 1 emphasizes that colonial troops were treated with... • In contrast, Interpretation 2 argues that their service was characterized by... • Specifically, Interpretation 1 claims... whereas Interpretation 2 reveals...

Task B: Suggest one reason why Interpretations 1 and 2 differ about the role of empire soldiers. [4 marks]

PART C

Scaffolded Sentence Stems: One reason why the interpretations differ is because the authors have different perspectives and purposes. The author of Interpretation 1 was writing from the perspective of... with the purpose of... • On the other hand, the author of Interpretation 2 is evaluating the events from the perspective of... • Consequently, this shaped their conclusions because...

Living Timeline Dual-Coding Protocol: Complete each milestone sketchpad using dual-coding (combining visual storytelling symbols, causal arrows, and dates) to master the chronological spine across the centre-fold.

August 1914 • The Rush to the Colours & Lord Kitchener's Appeal

Enquiry 1

Following the German invasion of Belgium, Lord Kitchener issues his iconic recruiting appeal; over 750,000 volunteers enlist in eight weeks, creating the civic Pals Battalions across Britain.

April 1915 • The Gallipoli Landings & ANZAC Mobilisation

Enquiry 3

British, French, Indian, and Australian/New Zealand (ANZAC) forces land on the Gallipoli peninsula to knock the Ottoman Empire out of the war; eight months of bloody stalemate forge Australian national consciousness.

1 July 1916 • The First Day on the Somme & Destruction of the Pals

Enquiry 2

Following a seven-day artillery bombardment, 100,000 British infantry assault intact German wire; 19,240 men are killed in hours, devastating entire towns and wiping out civic volunteer battalions.

September 1916 • First Tank Deployment at Flers-Courcelette

Enquiry 2

Britain unveils the Mark I tank on the Somme, driving over trenches and crushing barbed wire; while mechanically unreliable, it inaugurates modern combined-arms armoured warfare.

Centrefold timeline: Dual-coding sketches and dates turns narrative history into permanent long-term memory.

LIVING TIMELINE • PART 2: CONSCRIPTION, TOTAL WAR & THE FLAWED PEACE (1916–1923)

Living Timeline Dual-Coding Protocol: Complete each milestone sketchpad using dual-coding (combining visual storytelling symbols, causal arrows, and dates) to master the chronological spine across the centre-fold.

1916–1917 • Conscription, "Canary Girls" & Total War Mobilisation

Enquiry 4

Parliament enforces military conscription for all eligible men while 1 million women enter munitions factories ("Canary Girls") and transport; German U-boat attacks bring Britain within weeks of starvation.

1917–1918 • Global Empire Mobilisation & 4 Million Troops

Enquiry 3

Over 1.5 million Indian soldiers and hundreds of thousands of African, Caribbean, and Dominion troops fight across Europe, Africa, and the Middle East, sustaining the Allied war effort.

11 November 1918 • The Hundred Days Offensive & Armistice

Enquiry 5

Allied combined-arms offensives break the Hindenburg Line; facing revolution and starvation at home, Germany signs the Armistice in Marshal Foch's railway carriage, ending active combat.

28 June 1919 • The Signing of the Treaty of Versailles

Enquiry 5

In the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles, Allied powers force Germany to accept Article 231 (War Guilt), pay £6.6 billion in reparations, and surrender 13% of its European territory, creating a fragile peace.

How far did the First World War transform the British state and daily life on the Home Front?

Core Specification Focus: Total war concept; Defence of the Realm Act (DORA); blackout, censorship, pub hours, licensing; introduction of military conscription (1916); 1 million women in munitions ("Canary Girls") and transport; food shortages and German U-boat blockade; German Zeppelin air raids on civilians.

CHRONOLOGICAL INQUIRY SPINE • CORE CAUSAL NARRATIVE Construct your causal explanation for each stage incorporating the core trigger terms

1 Text [1.1–1.2] Aug 1914 • In what ways did DORA grant the British state unprecedented authoritarian control?

- Emergency Parliamentary Powers
- Strict News & Mail Censorship
- Curfews & Alcohol Restrictions

2 Text [2.1–2.2] 1915–1916 • What forced David Lloyd George to nationalise munitions factories in 1915?

- Daily Mail Front-Page Exposé
- Critical Frontline Shell Deficits
- Direct State Production Command

3 Text [3.1–3.2] Jan 1916 • Why did catastrophic frontline casualties force Britain to impose conscription in 1916?

- Exhaustion of Voluntary Enlistment
- Military Service Legislation
- Tribunals for Conscientious Objectors

4 Text [4.1–4.2] 1916–1918 • How did 1 million "Canary Girls" transform industrial production despite toxic hazards?

- Silvertown Factory Disaster (1917)
- Chemical TNT Poisoning & Jaundice
- Manufacture of 80% Heavy Munitions

5 Text [5.1–5.2] 1917–1918 • Why did unrestricted German submarine warfare push Britain to the brink of starvation?

- Torpedoing of Atlantic Merchant Convoys
- Six Weeks Grain Reserves Remaining
- Compulsory Sugar & Meat Coupons

Under DORA, it was illegal to buy rounds of drinks in pubs, feed bread to pigeons, ring church bells, or fly a kite in Britain.

Task A: Narrative Account [8 marks • 10 mins]

PART A • NARRATIVE

Write a narrative account analysing the key events leading from the Shell Crisis of 1915 to the introduction of compulsory conscription in 1916. [8 marks]

Stimulus: The 1915 Shell Crisis and the Daily Mail headlines | The passing of the Military Service Act in January 1916

Analytical Connectives: The sequence of events began when... • This led to immediate political consequences because... • In response, the government intervened by... • Crucially, this proved necessary because... • Consequently, this resulted in...
Key Terms: Shell Crisis • David Lloyd George • Ministry of Munitions • Lord Derby Scheme • Military Service Act (1916) • Conscription

Task B: Explain Importance [8 marks • 10 mins]

PART B • IMPORTANCE

Explain the importance of female munitions workers to the British war effort in the period 1915–1918. [8 marks]

Stimulus: The production of 80% of all British weaponry and shells | The dangerous working conditions and toxic jaundice ("Canary Girls")

Analytical Connectives: The primary importance of this contribution was... • This was vital to the frontlines because... • Furthermore, the challenging conditions demonstrated that... • In the long term, this had a profound impact because...
Key Terms: Canary Girls • TNT poisoning • Silvertown explosion • Ministry of Munitions • Representation of the People Act 1918

CENTREFOLD SKETCH CHALLENGES 4 & 5

Turn to Centrefold • Pages 8–9 →

Milestone 5 (1916–1917 • Home Front): Turn to Centrefold (Pages 8–9). Sketch a factory of "Canary Girls" loading heavy artillery shells beside a queue of women holding 1918 rationing books [munitions factory • artillery shell • ration book].

Over 1 million women entered the wartime workforce; in January 1917, the Silvertown munitions factory in London exploded, killing 73 people and devastating 70,000 properties.

Did the Treaty of Versailles solve the problems of 1914, or create the nightmares of 1939?

Core Specification Focus: Armistice of 11 November 1918; Paris Peace Conference; Big Three conflicting aims (Clemenceau, Lloyd George, Wilson); terms of the Treaty of Versailles (GARGLE: Article 231 War Guilt, £6.6bn reparations, military caps, Polish Corridor, Rhineland demilitarisation); Keynes' "Carthaginian Peace" warning; Will Dyson's "1940 Class" cartoon; League of Nations creation; modern revisionist debate on Allied enforcement.
